

Monday	Tuesday	Wednesday	Thursday	Friday
Begin the introduction of Shakespeare. Discuss his plays and their cultural relevance. Knowingly give them a difficult stanza to understand. Introduce the project to the students and announce the due date for next Friday.	Spend the next two days approving songs. Toward the end of the class do an example project to show them what it should look like. Use the song "I Try" by Macy Gray. Represents a comedy with its love story.	Final day to get song approved by the teacher. If a song hasn't been approved they are assigned one from a list of pre-approved songs. Go over the different kinds of plays written by Shakespeare.	Go over iambic pentameter and how it was used in Shakespeare's plays. Do another example project in class. Use the song "My Hands" by Leona Lewis Represents a tragedy	Take a test on Shakespeare. Start picking actors and readers for "The Death of Julius Ceasar" Begin reading the first chapter.
Do another example project. Use the song "Locked Out of Heaven" by Bruno Mars Represents a comedy with its love story. Continue reading "TDoJC." Begin accepting early submissions of the project. Those who do this will have the advantage of having it edited and returned on Wednesday.	Continue accepting early submissions. Continue reading "TDoJC."	Return early submissions. Finish reading "TDoJC." Give out study guide for the test on "TDoJC" on Friday.	Begin watching "Romeo and Juliet"	Projects are due today. Have test on "TDoJC." Finish waqtching "Romeo and Juliet."