Today we are creating a piece of narrative writing about a comic book hero!

You are to use the picture on the right as your story starter or even your story finisher. Not sure what this means? Well, the picture could depict what is happening in the beginning of your story. You would describe the events from the picture then tell your audience what happens next. Or if you're using the picture as your story ending, what are the events that led to this action packed scene?

Use the table below to answer the main questions for your narrative before you begin writing!

Bronze - Two Paragraph Silver Three Paragraphs Gold - Four or more Paragraphs	Medal Achieved:
