

TW - Sexual/Explicit Images

This is a document to share screenshots and evidence of u/Automatic-Amoeba-121 trying to/getting art including OCs that he has no permission getting drawn.

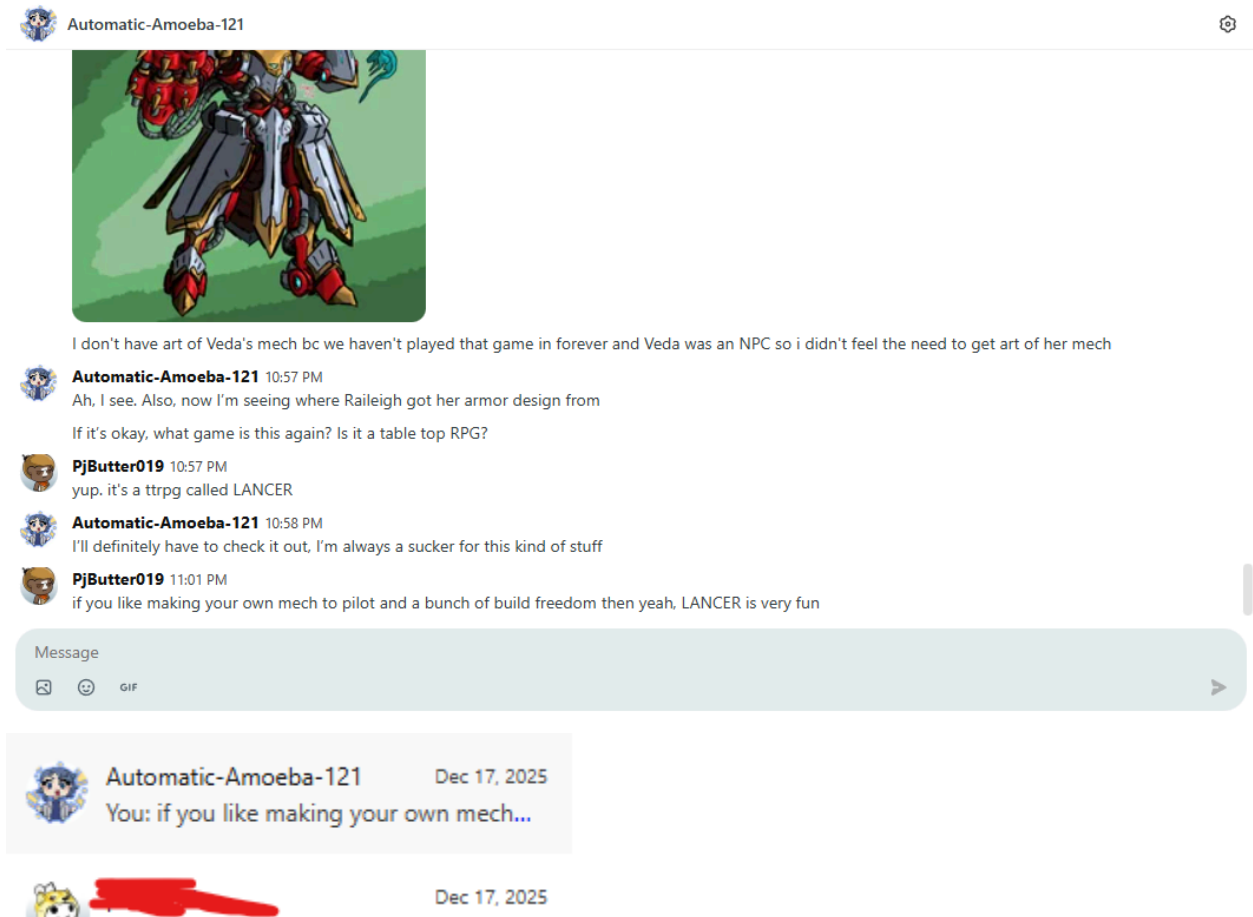

- The screenshots above showcase one of my OCs, Raileigh Burnett, who I have shared on the subreddit numerous times, as well as an OC that I am unfamiliar with but one that I don't believe automatic owns either, Automatic asking to have them be drawn with another OC, Tara in this case, sparring or something based on what the artist told me.

- Automatic asking for the commission to be private and lying to the artist that I have given him permission to get art of Raileigh or any of my OCs drawn in any capacity.

- Proof that I haven't messaged him since December 2025, nor given him any permission at all to get my OCs drawn in any capacity, proof of him lying

- Proof of Automatic having Raileigh on the commission document

- Examples of what he seemed to be wanting to have drawn, sparring

Also, sorry to change subjects, but would it be okay for me to ask you a strange question?

PjButter019 11:03 PM

sure

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:09 PM

Okay, so I was planning on commissioning artwork for one of your characters, and I was wondering if it would be okay to ask for permission to ask for artwork of one of your characters.

PjButter019 11:10 PM

oop, doing what exactly if you dont mind me asking also which OC?

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:11 PM

Okay, i hope this isn't too weird, but it's Mira having intercourse (Sorry, I am very bad at talking or asking about these kinds of subjects). I admit, it's weird.

PjButter019 11:12 PM

mhm. what's the idea then

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:16 PM

Okay, i hope this isn't too weird, but it's Mira having intercourse (Sorry, I am very bad at talking or asking about these kinds of subjects). Don't worry, the art itself was consensual.

Sorry once again, I didn't realize I would be this bad at asking about this.

PjButter019 11:20 PM

oop. I imagine with one of your OCs? I am slightly taken aback by this lmao but uh I will say no for now as I only really have her doing stuff like that with Cristin due to me and Frost being close friends and other things like that. I don't know you super well ya know?

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:20 PM

Of course, that is totally fair.

I'm sorry for the awkwardness, I hope I didn't make you uncomfortable.

PjButter019 8:54 PM

you're fine, a bit uncomfortable ngl lol but I think it'll pass. mostly bc I don't really get NSFW art of my OCs with others OCs unless i'm kind of close to that person and we've already talked about our OCs to an extensive amount, developing them to get there and such. Like I don't plan on ever really getting Mira having sex with other characters or anything bc of what she already has going on. Plus, would like that stuff to come up more naturally than anything. I don't wanna just base my entire interaction with people around ships and such unless I specifically make a character to be like I suppose a horn dog lol but yeah

Automatic-Amoeba-121 8:57 PM

Sorry about the weird question and request from me, and sorry about making you uncomfortable

I won't let it happen again.

PjButter019 8:59 PM

Appreciate that

Hello! Sorry to bother you, and apologies for the random message, but I have an admittedly weird question to ask you.

Lightningfo5t 11:05 PM

...Sure?

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:05 PM

Hello, apologies once again for the random message, but I was planning on commissioning artwork for one of your characters, and I was wondering what your stance on that is

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:11 PM

Sorry, I realize I worded my was awkward. Let me rephrase the question.

I was planning on commissioning an illustration of one of your characters and I was wondering if it would be okay for me to ask for your permission to do so.

Lightningfo5t 11:11 PM

Uuummmm which oc and doing what exactly before I give my permission on anything.

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:13 PM

Okay, so the OC is Cristin, and the illustration is a NSFW illustration. Actually, if it's okay for me ask, what would you not give permission for?

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:18 PM

Also, I'm sorry for the awkwardness.

Lightningfo5t 11:19 PM

Yeah, that's going to be a no for me. I don't know you well enough in any capacity for me to

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:20 PM

That is totally fair

I understand, and I apologize for making you uncomfortable.

I am so sorry.

Lightningfo5t 11:30 PM

Yeah.... I will also say that the vagueness of your question definitely did not help. Like you need to clear about what the nature of the nsfw or things can be taken in negative way.

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:33 PM

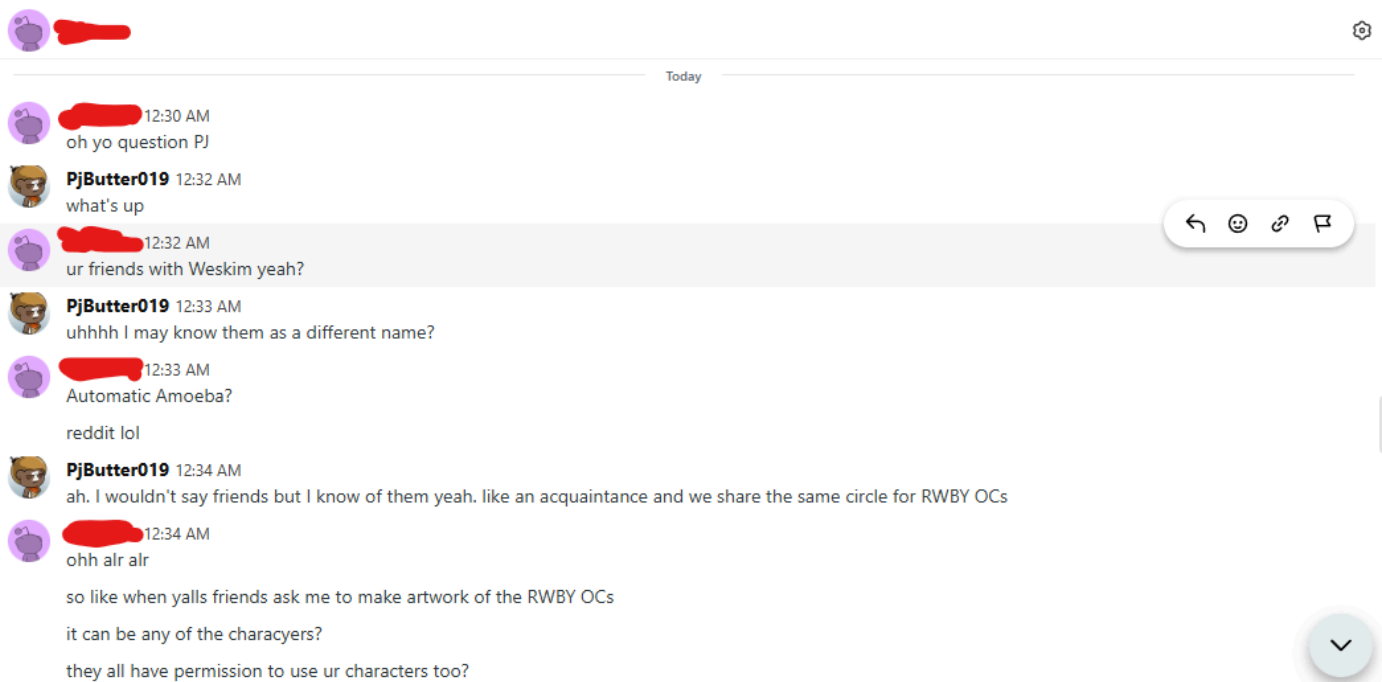

Of course, I understand. Sorry for bothering you and thank you for taking the time to answer.

- Sharing these screenshots of times that Automatic reached out to myself and a friend of mine, asking to get NSFW Art of our OCs. He didn't explain what the pieces would even be like content wise, as well with us having to ask him multiple times about that. It is also evidence of the two of us having not given Automatic any permission to get our OCs drawn in any capacity. The idea is that he planned on getting NSFW art of Cristin as well and didn't bother to tell Frost even that information. This also ties into my other concern that he may have been getting NSFW art of Raileigh without my permission as well, given what I have seen another artist post, that being art of Raileigh that I myself have not gotten drawn. I am unsure about this entirely as the artist has expressed that it is just fanart that he drew because he liked her but with this as evidence, I have genuine concern and cause to believe that Automatic has been getting NSFW art of my own OCs and others OCs without their permission.

- Sharing these as proof that the artist reached out to me out of concern and that they were the ones to give me the information about Automatic's requests.

Automatic-Amoeba-121

Okay, I'll continue working on the sketch book.

I also might have to fix Mylo's arm 😊

PjButter019 12:12 PM

Lol do what you gotta do, looking cool so far though hehehe

Automatic-Amoeba-121 10:37 PM

Hello! Sorry, I don't have an update on Mylo just yet, but I was wondering if I could ask you something about Raileigh and Veda?

I was thinking that after Mylo, I would like to have Raileigh and Veda drawn down the line

And I was wondering if that would be okay

PjButter019 11:00 PM

Oh sure, like you drawing them?

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:15 PM

Yeah, though it might be a while, and I'm also gonna be a bit busy

PjButter019 11:17 PM

That's fine with me lol

Automatic-Amoeba-121 11:19 PM

Okay!

So just to confirm, I have your permission to have Veda and Raileigh drawn?

Oct 4, 2025

Yeah, though it might be a while, and I'm also gonna be a bit busy

PjButter019 11:17 PM

PjButter019 2:34 AM

Yes. 👁️ You drawing them

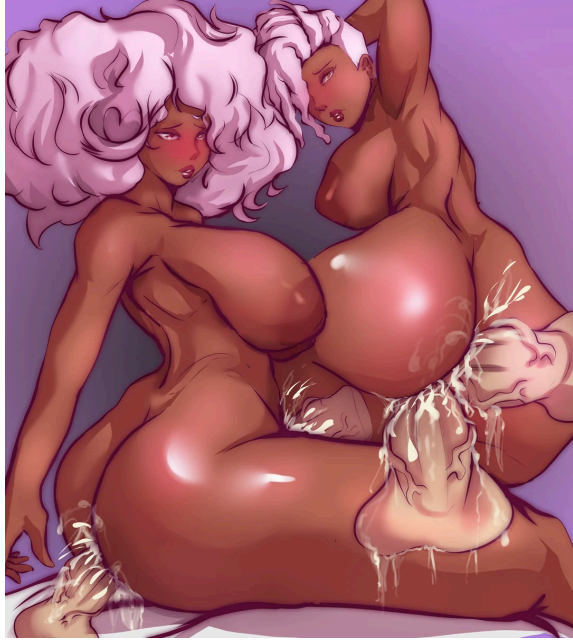

Automatic-Amoeba-121 2:35 AM

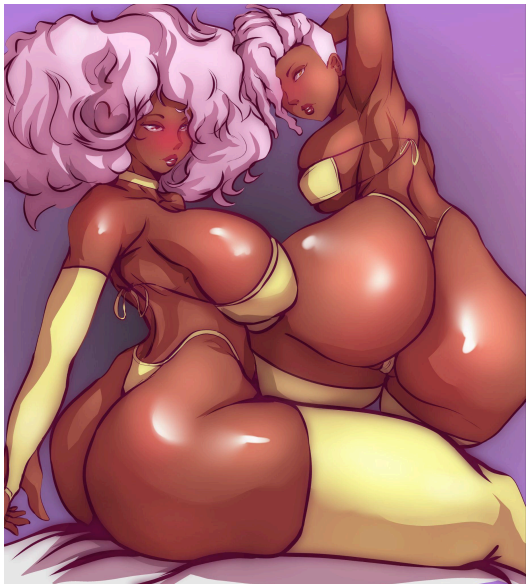

Alright! Sounds good!

If it's okay for me to ask, do you have any more references for both? Preferably ones that are more SFW?

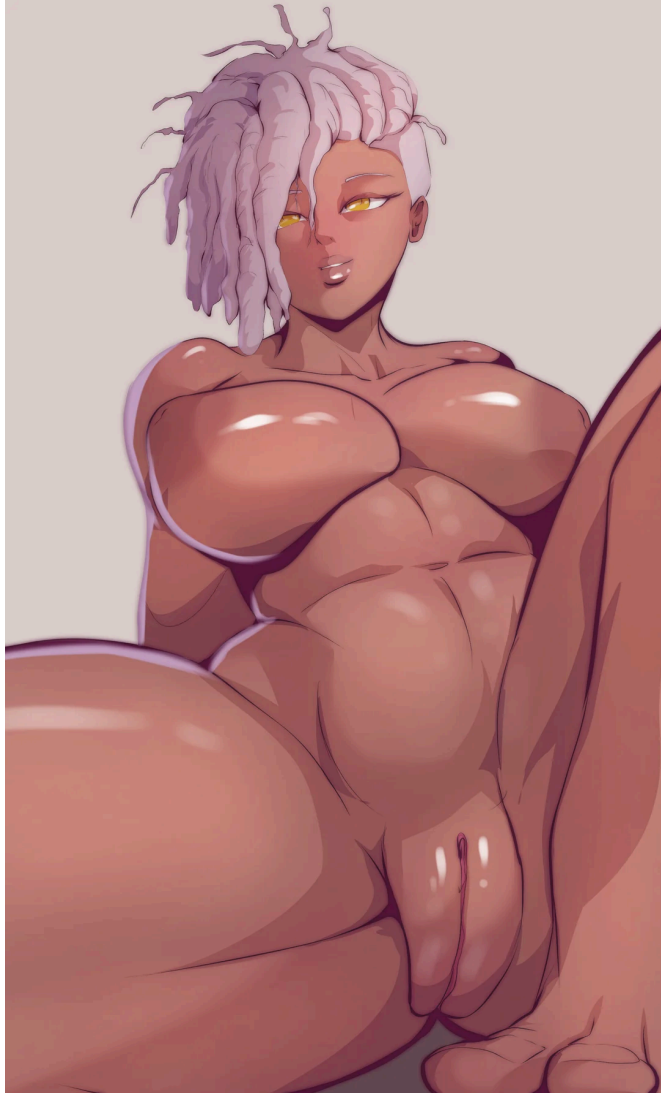

- Adding these here as I recalled him asking if he could have some of my OCs “drawn” but I made it clear that I meant I was okay with him drawing them, not him getting art of them, given that’s what he said when I initially asked him what he meant by getting them drawn. He clearly said that he would be the one drawing the characters when I asked and nothing more. Given that he asked a second time, he may have worded it like this with specific intent to make it seem like I agreed to him getting art of my characters, when that is not the case given the context of the full conversation.

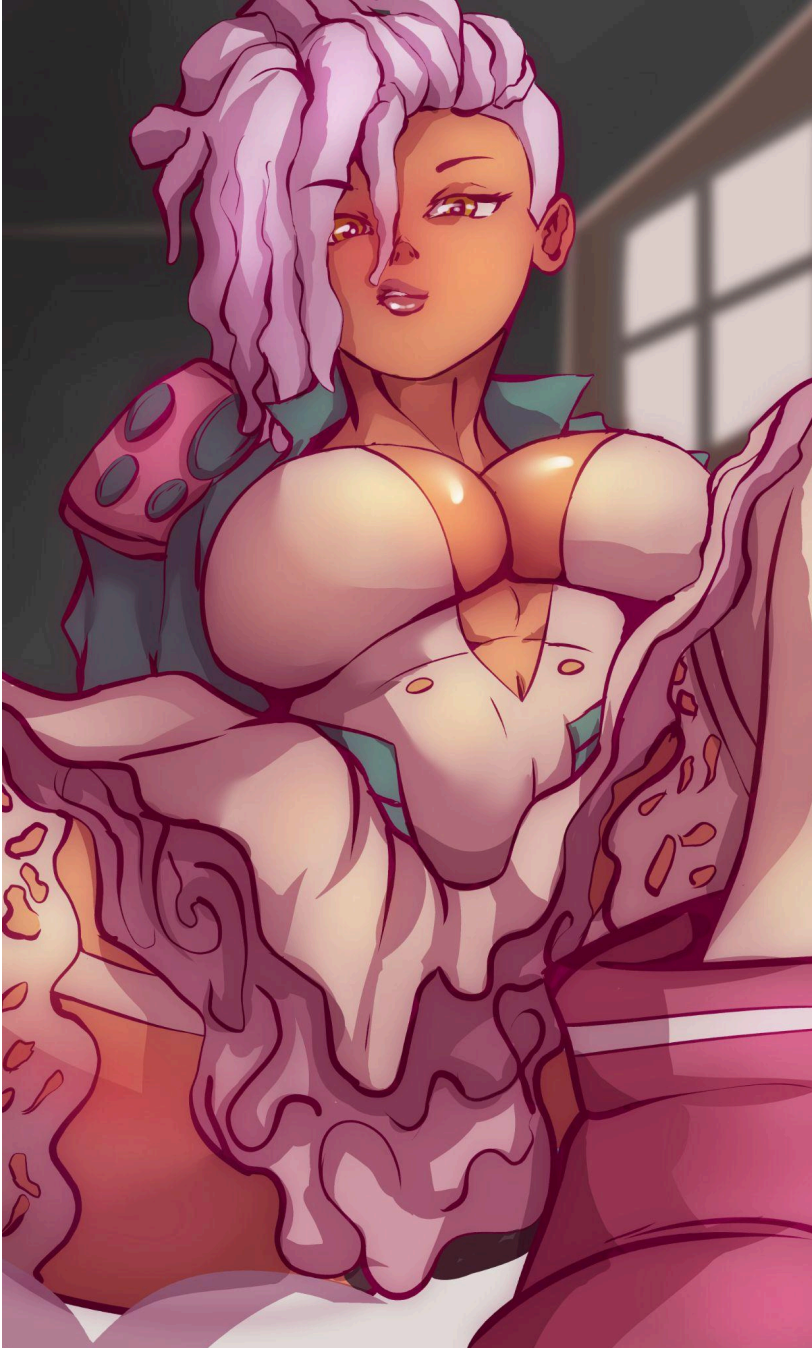

- A commission that he got from an artist, editing the original piece that I got of these two.

- This is the original commission of the piece I got

- Another commission he got of my OC, the original being edited to be this.

- This is the original piece, nothing like what was drawn above.

- These are completely original pieces that I noticed being posted by the artist around the time that I believe Automatic started to commission the artist as well. These are commissions that I didn't pay for nor gave him permission to get, though I can't say that all of these are commissions he asked for. The ones that have the floating penises in them are likely the ones that he asked to get commissioned, as it lines up with the description of a commission that he asked another artist to do for him.

These first two images are the one for Ral and veda he asked for and the screenshot he provided to it, was originally a request to just redraw it without Mou, but to add things like Ghost donges or some shi, then he just asked to edit it from the original image later down the line

next 3 images are for when he came back around with the other comm edit idea, same edits, ghost donges and outfit changes, and then the screenshots he provided along with them

Since then, no one has come to me with requests of your characters, but if they do, although i was gonna wait on asking about these til i got to them since i knew it was gonna be a while, But i'll make sure to come to you right away for future reference If you aint mutuals with them here on discord, or if you'd like me to ask you regardless

- This screenshot supports that he's most likely the one that got the art of my OCs drawn with the floating penises as it seems to be some sort of fetish for him.

- Proof from the artist that he drew art of my OCs without my permission just because someone gave him money to do so. This is an artist that I have commissioned several times and he knew that I was the owner of the OC that he was drawing, not the person that reached out to commission him.
