

FRIENDS!

Tonight, we have been going through all of the memories we've collected over the years- hand painted banners, buttons, decorations that filled the meeting house with our presence. We are filled with excitement and grief as the end of FEMS is upon us. Our final festival is less than a week away!

Here is some information that you need to know to be able to join us for this weekend!

Everyone

- If you haven't registered yet, please do so! Also, tell all your friends!
- You can log in to the discord now! This is the only FEMS space that will exist beyond the organization. During the festival you can drop favorite lines, grab zoom links, and post your outfits of the day with the community. If you have questions about discord or any tech you can email kay.kassirer@gmail.com
- We will keep our linktree up to date with everything you need to know during the festival.
- Add to our collaborative playlist!!
- Submit to the anthology!
- Dress up for the Haunted Open Mic if you want!!!

Virtual Folks

- For our open mics you are welcome to send in a video of your performance beforehand (3min or less) if you don't feel comfortable performing where you live or if you know you don't have good wifi. Please send your performance to kay.kassirer@gmail.com and let them know which event you want the video played at. You are invited to perform live virtually if that doesn't apply to you!

In Person Folks

- Doors open at 6pm on Friday, 11:30am on Saturday and 2:30pm on Sunday. Please plan to get there early especially if you know you will need to take a FEMS provided rapid test. Plan to wait for your results before entering the building.
- The address to Friends Meeting of Cambridge where all of the events will be is 5 Longfellow Park Cambridge MA 02138

Behold, the schedule for FEMS: Loving and Lasting 2022.

We hope that you will join us in practicing loving departures and lasting relationships. We're saying goodbye to FEMS as we know it, and welcoming in space for new beginnings and iterations.

So excited to see you soon,
Dee, Zenaida and the organizing team!
