

Justice Integration - Content-Lesson Planning

Grade / Course:

Name(s)

Build trusting classroom community

What activity do you do to build a trusting community?	When would you do it? (can be done multiple times through the year)	How does this build community?
Community Circles	Beginning of the week or when discussing difficult topics	Builds trust, empathy, and open communication between students and teachers

How does your course theme / question connect to justice? How might you shift it?

What Pre-lessons could you teach to elevate concepts of justice.

E.g. Lessons on Enlightenment? Discussion of personal values. Discussion of the word list (Rights, Justice, Liberty, Freedom, ...others?)

Justice Activity Design

When would you do it? What unit would it connect with?
How might you shift the prompt to align with your course themes? (e.g. In a just economic system...)
What sorting categories? (ex. Good, Better, Best, Essential / Desirable, Icing on the Cake, etc)
What kind of reflection would you design? <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Individual Process Reflection • Personal Statement • Class Discussion • Content Reflection
When might you repeat the activity?

Where in your course could you explicitly re-raise the generated concepts of justice
