To whom it may concern,

This letter is to serve as confirmation that Kodee Shay is a member in good standing with the IAPWE or International Association of Professional Writers & Editors and has provided sufficient evidence through their work to indicate that their abilities are at a sufficient level of proficiency such that they were accepted into our organization and continue to prove to be both a reliable and valuable resource to our organization.

This letter also serves as a recommendation of Kodee Shay since we have found this member's skills and aptitude to be such that they would serve as a valuable resource to any other person or company that were to utilize their services.

Best regards,

Melissa Coleman
