Video Production Blogs For Chick-fil-A The Baby Bras Story <https://studionine13.com/> Studio Nine 13 scheduled and filmed several video production blogs for the Chick-fil-A Orlando locations. This video featured Baby Bras's story. Our video production services include producing, shooting, and editing promotional videos for Chick-fil-A The Loop and Southchase Plaza in Orlando. We created a monthly video series that would showcase team members of Chick-fil-A and their stories. Their products and services were also covered. The output from our video shoot was also used for their social media purposes. This video showcases Baby and her story. The goal was to highlight how Chick-fil-A has made a positive impact on their team members' lives, both at work and outside of work. Baby is the youngest of two siblings. Baby's mom had her at the age of 46. Doctors said her mother wouldn't be able to have any more kids and yet here she is. Growing up Baby said she always loved Chick-fil-A as they always treated her like family. They always asked how her day was going. Growing up Baby said she was shy and reserved and that she didn't like talking to people. When she became involved in sports, it helped her meet people and she began to open up. Baby used her experience in sports in the workplace. She loves her job and has become a leader with Chick-fil-A. She stated the food is good, the customer service is good and that you can't go wrong as a customer. We hope you enjoyed Baby's story as part of our video production blogs for Chick-fil-A.
