

Template of the research paper

Title

Abstract

This portion should present the summary of the study (not more than 100 words for the concept paper; not more than 250 words for the final paper).

Introduction

This section should present the background of the study, the problem, and the proposed solution (You may follow the CARS Model of writing the Introduction )

Related studies

This section should discuss studies relevant to the topic being investigated.

Methodology

This section provides the description of the dataset and the method of analyses.

Results

This section presents the results of the study. Tables and their descriptions are presented here.

Discussion

This section presents the significant findings. Findings should be discussed in the light of existing findings and theorizing is provide.

This section also subsumes the Conclusion of the study where a summary of the research, limitations of the study, and recommendations for future studies or policy recommendations.

References

All the references should be listed in this section following the APA 7th edition style guide.

Note: The concept paper should only include the title, abstract, Introduction, Related Studies, Methodology, and References.