4 questions:

I am talking to people who want to get into affiliate marketing and want to change their life around and quit their job

Right now, they want to start making money online but are not sure what business model to do, they have done some research on affiliate marketing.

Emotionally they are tired of having to wake up and slave away at a job and just want money. they wake up at about 6 o'clock and get ready for work or for the day and throughout their day they wish they had a way out and that they could just be somewhere else but where they are now/. They think that they deserve better and their skill sets are not meant for the type of job they are currently working. They are saying/ thinking "Where do i start, how do i start". They also think that affiliate marketing is skeptical but if I can show them actual people get results then they would believe me.

Mentally they just want to live the life they truly desire and to travel

Physically these are mostly women but some men who are busy and do not have time for their lifestyle and want to escape this by making money while they sleep
At the end of this AD, I want them to click the CTA and go to the landing page where i hand the marketing and persuasion over to the program that is running ads.

I want them to feel passionate about getting into affiliate marketing and want them to feel the fire inside of them to take action and learn affiliate marketing

They need to hear regular people just like them making thousands a day while they sleep, and living the life they wish for, and traveling, and just the good life.

They need to think, " if this person who is way less qualified than me could do it, so can i".

Also need to think that this is the way to escape the matrix

They need to see average people doing this and making thousands while they sleep. I want this copy to be the best in the affiliate marketing space in terms of ads and want to over-deliver my client with value and i want this ad to drive so much curiosity and intrigue that they sign up with her affiliate link making her commissions.

My copy weaknesses

1. I think maybe I should shorten the copy

2. My copy's personal analysis is in the comments. I left some comments below where I think I should improve the copy

Roadblocks

My client's roadblocks are that because she doesn't have any sort of following or audience she can not get her name out there and sell her affiliate link and make money. I'm running ads for her to grow her audience. I will run ads for her until she starts to see people buy through her affiliate link, and then she will get a commission and that is her ultimate goal.

And for the people actually buying the course their roadblocks are that they want to get into affiliate marketing but can't trust any guru or people because they say things like "this will make you rich in 90 days". They are really just unsure about getting into affiliate marketing. This course will make them better because it is a community full of like minds and other top affiliates in the space to guide and help each other.
