

A Resolution to approve 2023 National Convention delegate lodging and travel expenses
By Jack R.S.

WHEREAS, the biennial National Convention is the highest decision-making body of the Democratic Socialists of America; and

WHEREAS, it is a priority for our chapter to provide whatever resources necessary to allow for our elected delegates' full participation in the 2023 National Convention in Chicago; and

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, the General Membership approves the lodging expenses for delegates staying at the National Convention site immediately preceding and for the duration of the National Convention, in the amount of approximately $1,272 (the cost of two hotel rooms for four nights), with a margin of error of +/- $318.

RESOLVED, each delegate is entitled to an allowance of no more than $700 total for travel; and

RESOLVED, any remaining allotted funds will be remitted to the Chapter's general fund; and

RESOLVED, the delegates will work to raise funds to replenish the general fund.
