Linda: Yes, it's really cold and snowy, but I'm having a great time. Guess what! Tomorrow, we're going to go sledding with husky dogs through a pine forest!
John: Wow! So, what else are you going to do?
Linda: Well, this afternoon we're going to a restaurant to try some local food. Tim wants to try reindeer stew, but I'm not going to have that! No way! In the evening, we're going to go on a snowmobile tour to see the Northern Lights!
John: What are they?
Linda: A really beautiful display of natural colorful lights in the sky. They're common near the Arctic Circle. I hope we'll see them.
John: Promise me you'll take lots of photos.
