

CODE OF CONDUCT

- All participants are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that reflects positively on the organisers (and any of its affiliates), press, attendees, and other participants and comply with all applicable law and regulation at all times.
- Participants shall not engage in conduct which the organisers deem to be harmful to the business, reputation or relationships of an individual or of their partners.
- No forms of cheating, gameplay, gamesmanship or gaining an unfair advantage in any way will be tolerated. This includes, but is not limited to:
 1. Hardware modification - Any modification made to a piece of hardware allowing it to function in a way the manufacturer did not intend. This includes adding or inserting anything not originally on the hardware configured by the organisers.
 2. Hacking - Any modification made to the game or other software by any person other than by way of standard software patches or updates.
 - c. Exploiting game glitches - Intentionally using any in-game bug to seek an advantage.
 3. Exploiting is defined as utilising any game function that, in the sole determination of the organisers, is not functioning as intended.
 4. Impersonation (including playing under another driver's account) - to be understood as playing under another driver's account or soliciting, inducing, encouraging or directing someone else to play under another driver's account.
- Participants must be respectful of the staff involved in the tournament organisers, sponsors, and/or partners at all times. Participants must not use obscene gestures, language, or offensive comments, including:
 1. Hate speech or discriminatory behaviour - Participants may not use language that is deemed by the organisers to be obscene, foul, vulgar, insulting, threatening, abusive, libellous, slanderous, defamatory or otherwise offensive or objectionable; or promote or incite hatred or discriminatory conduct, in or near any racing area, at any time, off or on broadcast. Participants may not use any facilities, services or equipment provided or made available by the organisers or its contractors to post, transmit, disseminate or otherwise make available any such prohibited communications. Participants may not use this type of language on social media or during any public facing events such as streaming.
 2. Violent or physical aggression or behaviour - abuse of the organisers, its affiliates, or other participants will not be tolerated.
 3. Harassment of any kind - is strictly prohibited. Harassment is defined as systematic, hostile and repeated acts taking place over a considerable period of time, which are intended to isolate or ostracize a person and/or affect the dignity of the person
 4. Discriminatory words, phrases, or gestures - Offending the dignity or integrity of a private person, or group of people, a team, a brand, a sponsor, a country, through contemptuous or discriminatory words or actions on account of race, skin colour, ethnic, national or social origin, gender, language, religion, political opinion or any other opinion, financial status, birth or any other status, sexual orientation or any other reason will not be tolerated.
 5. Trolling - Any participant who posts inflammatory, extraneous, or off-topic messages in an online community, such as a forum, chat room, or blog/stream, with the primary intent of provoking readers into an emotional response or of otherwise disrupting normal on-topic discussion. Any conduct that is deemed to be in violation of this Code of Conduct is punishable at the sole discretion of the organisers and may result in disqualification from the ADAC SimRacingExpo Professional Trophy
 6. Drivers and/or competitors posting negative, disruptive and brand damaging content on social media about the organisers, ADAC SimRacing Expo, South West Vision

GmbH, The SimGrid, Assetto Corsa Competizione, iRacing and their partners in general and/or any other participant, including but not limited to images and videos of game faults, may result in the participant (accordingly) being withdrawn from the Competition. Positive and engaging content is highly encouraged, as long as the content is from areas permitted by the organisers.

- Only Team Managers are permitted to contact the organisers and racing stewards during any of the on-site competitions and on-line activities.
