PURPOSE OF COLLECTED INFORMATION

We use your personal information to provide you with services.

We use your personal information to detect, investigate, or take action in response to possible fraudulent, illegal, or malicious activity.

We use your personal information to provide you with customer support and to improve our services. This is in our legitimate interests to respond to you, provide you with efficient services, and maintain our business relationship with you.

DISCLOSURE OF INFORMATION

We will keep the personal information we hold confidential but may provide your personal information to:

personnel, agents, advisers, auditors, contractors, financial institutions, and service providers in connection with our operations or services.

persons to whom we are required to make disclosure under applicable laws.

as required or permitted by law to comply with a summons, subpoena or similar legal process or government request.

If we share your personal information with third parties, we will use encryption, de-identification and anonymisation measures to keep your information secure and we will require them to implement security measures for your personal information.

INFORMATION STORAGE

We retain the information we collect for different periods of time depending on what it is, how we use it, and how you configure your settings.

We keep some information until you delete your account, such as information about how often you use our services.

Some information we retain for longer periods of time when necessary for legitimate business or legal purposes, such as security, fraud and abuse prevention, or financial record-keeping.

When you delete information, we follow a deletion process to make sure that your information is safely and completely removed from our servers or retained only in anonymized form. We try to ensure that our services protect information from accidental or malicious deletion. Because of this, there may be delays between when you delete something and when copies are deleted from our active and backup systems.
