1. INTRODUCTION

This document is a template. An electronic copy can be downloaded from the Journal website. For questions on paper guidelines, please contact the editor Journal Website.

The main text format consists of a flat left-right columns on A4 paper (quarto). The margin text from the left, right, top, and bottom must follow this template. The manuscript is written in Microsoft Word, single space, Trebuchet MS 10 pt with minimum 5 pages and maximum 15 pages (generally follow this template), this template can be downloaded at the website

A title of article should be the fewest possible words that accurately describe the content of the paper. Omit all waste words such as "A study of ...", "Investigations of ...", "Implementation of ...", "Observations on ...", "Effect of.....", "Analysis of ...", "Design of..." etc. Indexing and abstracting services depend on the accuracy of the title, extracting from it keywords useful in cross-referencing and computer searching. An improperly titled paper may never reach the audience for which it was intended, so be specific.

The Introduction should provide a clear background, a clear statement of the problem, the relevant literature on the subject, the proposed approach or solution, and the new value of research which it is innovation. It should be understandable to colleagues from a broad range of scientific disciplines.

Organization and citation of the bibliography are made in APA style . The terms in foreign languages are written italic (italic). Authors are suggested to present their articles in the section structure: Introduction -The Proposed Method/Algorithm (optional) - Research Method - Results and Discussion - Conclusion.

Literature review that has been done author used in the chapter "Introduction" to explain the difference of the manuscript with other papers, that it is innovative, it are used in the chapter "Research Method" to describe the step of research and used in the chapter "Results and Discussion" to support the analysis of the results. If the manuscript was written really have high originality, which proposed a new method or algorithm, the additional chapter after the "Introduction" chapter and before the "Research Method" chapter can be added to explain briefly the proposed method or algorithm.

To make your manuscript of good quality and accepted using good and correct English (use grammarly) and with a maximum similarity of 15% (use turnitin) and after the paragraph must be accompanied by a references.

2. METHOD

Explaining research chronological, including research design, research procedure. The description of the course of research should be supported references, so the explanation can be accepted scientifically.

Tables and Figures are presented center, as shown below and cited in the manuscript.

Resource: xxxxx

No.	Name	Old	Sex
1	A	11	F
2	B	11	F
3	C	11	M

3. RESULTS AND DISCUSSION

In this section, it is explained the results of research and at the same time is given the comprehensive discussion. Results can be presented in figures, graphs, tables and others that make the reader understand easily. The discussion can be made in several sub-chapters.

3.1. Tables

Place tables at the places where they needed and must center as shown below and cited in the manuscript.

No.	Name	Old	Sex
1	A	11	F
2	B	11	F

Table 1: Write here title of tables

Resource: XXXXX

3.2. Figures

Place figures at the places where they needed and must center as shown below and cited in the manuscript.

3.3. Theorems and Proofs

Theorems and related structures, such as axioms corollaries, and lemmas, are formatted using a hanging indent paragraph. They begin with a title and are followed by the text, in italics.

Theorem 1. Theorems, corollaries, lemmas, and related structures follow this format. They do not need to be numbered, but are generally numbered sequentially.

Proofs are formatted using the same hanging indent format. However, they are not italicized. Proof. The same format should be used for structures such as remarks, examples, and solutions (though these would not have a Q.E.D. box at the end as a proof does).

CONCLUSION

Provide a statement that what is expected, as stated in the "Introduction" chapter can ultimately result in "Results and Discussion" chapter, so there is compatibility. Moreover, it can also be added the prospect of the development of research results and application prospects of further studies into the next (based on result and discussion).

ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

The preferred spelling of the word "acknowledgment" in America is without an "e" after the "g". Avoid the stilted expression, "One of us (R. B. G.) thanks ..." Instead, try "R. B. G. thanks". Put sponsor acknowledgments in the unnumbered footnote on the first page.
