Luz Arriaga
Creative Content Producer
Friends of the National Museum of Fine Arts Association

Luz Arriaga has worked at Fundación arteBA and in the Development Department of the Museum of Modern Art of Buenos Aires (MAMBA). She implemented nationwide programs training teachers in arts education for Fundación Bunge & Born and collaborated on the development of content for the program “Latidos del arte / Heart for Art” in partnership with the Van Gogh Museum in Amsterdam.

Luz has led talks, training sessions, and conferences for Open Bank, GDN, and Laboratorio Gador, among others. In 2022, she was selected to represent Argentina at the international educators’ conference “Educate for Life” held in Copenhagen, and in 2025 for “The Presenters Network” conference.

She is part of the program “Amigos hacia la comunidad” and currently is a Creative Content Producer at the Department of Education & Creative Content at the Friends of the National Museum of Fine Arts Association.

Luz Arriaga will be speaking at the Museum AI Summit 2026
