
Dear Sir,

This letter serves to demand a quick retraction of my participation at your excursion exercise center. The sum total of what commitments have been satisfied without anyone else as to this enrollment. I demand you to postpone off any wiping out charges relevant, thinking about my long relationship with your organization.

If it's not too much trouble affirm the receipt of this solicitation by return mail at your most punctual accommodation.

Earnestly,

Liam