

This module will take us out of the house and into the streets, as we learn the vocabulary of places in the community. To do that, we'll need a new verb: ir, "to go."

Once we have the ability to go to the restaurant, café, or supermarket, we'll need some food vocabulary— otherwise we'll be stuck eating cognates like pizza, chocolate, and dónuts. We'll also learn to use the verb gustar with nouns, which will let us talk about things we like and don't like.

Here are some songs to whet your appetite. What do they have in common?
