

*Video Tutorial: Click here*

AP Lit Exam: *Oedipus Rex

Time: 50 minutes

Directions: Do not write on this paper or the multiple choice questions on the back so that they can be reused--please turn in separately when done. Write all answers underneath the multiple choice box, clearly numbered and labeled. If you run out of room, please attach separate sheets of paper. Please write as legibly as possible. Thank you and good luck!

Practice AP Multiple Choice and Literary Terms (poem found on back of answer sheet)

1-10. See practice AP multiple choice exam on the back. Answer all questions on your scantron sheet. (1 point each)

11. Identify all examples of literary terms used in the reading passage. Please write your answers on the poem itself, drawing arrows if necessary. Full credit for correctly identifying all terms possible with description of the term's effect on the passage, not merely a definition of the term. You're responsible for any and all literary terms that are on the board. -1 for each one you're missing (10 pts total)

---

*Write all answers to questions 12-20 in blank space around answers or on separate paper if you run out of room. These are being graded on accuracy, depth, clarity, and specificity to text*

---

Review Questions

12. List the title and author of one book you've read in high school that you enjoyed and could use to answer the AP exam's Q3 essay this year (5 points).

13. List three themes you could write about using one book you read this summer for the AP exam's Q3 essay this year (5 points). Examples include jealousy, coming-of-age, perseverance. Make sure to say which book you are discussing.

Oedipus Rex Specific Questions

14. Who wrote this play? Incorrect if spelled wrong. (5 points total)

15. When was this play written? (date must be within 10 years to be correct) (5 pts total)

16. What country is the author from? (nationality) (5 points total)

17. Character map: Write the names of a 5+ characters and connect them with short descriptions of how they are related / connected.

18. How is this story influenced by its historical context? List 3-5 characteristics of the time period this text was written in and describe how these characteristics are reflected in the play through specific references to the characters and the plot. (10 points total)

19. 1/2 page to 1 page ESSAY QUESTION--answer using "demonstrative statements"(15 points total)

20. 1/2 page to 1 page ESSAY QUESTION (15 points total)

---

*Extra credit for turning in Book Reviews stapled to test for books you cover in question #12.
+5 points for each book review*

