

Journal Prompt #3

Consider what you've learned about the wars that happened in the colonies, both between Europeans and Native Americans, the religious structures of the colonies, and the economic systems of the colonies. In light of those things, would you have been able to live like this? Why or why not? Be sure to talk about all three things in your response!