KCA Statement of Faith

Because KCA is a community of families partnering together in the education of our children, we affirm a shared foundation of Christian belief. The following statement of faith expresses the essential truths that unite our community and guide our life together.

Apostle's Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, His only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried; he descended to the dead. On the third day He rose again; He ascended into heaven, He is seated at the right hand of the Father, and He will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy catholic* Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and life everlasting. Amen.

* "catholic" refers to the universal Church

KCA Essential Beliefs

We believe the Bible is the inspired, infallible, and authoritative Word of God. We believe salvation is by grace alone through faith alone. We believe in the present ministry of the Holy Spirit, who dwells in believers and enables us to live godly lives. We believe marriage is between one man and one woman, and that God created each person as male or female according to His intentional design.

KCA Covenant Relationship

At KCA, covenant is an intentional and meaningful commitment to one another, grounded in shared faith, and marked by steadfast love. We understand covenant to be more than a simple agreement; it is a promise of faithful partnership and committed belonging within our community.

This covenant calls us to love and serve one another through both our words and our actions. Recognizing that none of us does this perfectly, we rely on the Holy Spirit to guide what we say and do. We depend on Him to convict our hearts when we have wronged someone and to humble us to seek forgiveness, restoration, and reconciliation.

Living in covenant means striving to reflect the character of Christ in our interactions—being thoughtful and considerate toward every member of our community and faithfully carrying out our individual responsibilities. As each person seeks to honor these commitments, we help cultivate a culture of grace, accountability, and mutual care.

This commitment is not binding in a burdensome sense, but freeing—liberating us to love as Scripture teaches and encouraging gracious and life-giving speech. As a chosen and practiced discipline, covenant cultivates peace, unity, and protection within our fellowship. It is both the strength and the beauty of what we do at KCA.

By signing below, I affirm that my family and I agree with and will support the Statement of Faith and covenant commitments of KCA.
