

COME BE A ROLE MODEL FOR A DAY!!

JA Day is a 3-4 hour activity where volunteers spend the entire morning teaching a Junior Achievement program to an assigned class. The teacher remains in the classroom for support. Materials and training are provided by Junior Achievement. No teaching experience required, just your enthusiasm.

JA DAY @ Oakridge Elementary School (OES) Oakridge Elementary is located in Hollywood. Volunteers will conduct five fun, hands-on JA lessons that teach kids about the free enterprise system, personal finances and the basic principles of a business. This event will take place on Thursday, May 31, 2012 from 7:45am to 11:30am.

Training for the event will be held at JA World-Broward College North Campus on Wednesday, May 16th from 9:00am-11:00am.

To RSVP and join the fun, contact Sennetha Desroches at 954-979-7101 or sennetha@jasouthflorida.org.
