

the infection from space: hello my name is gabe mackins and I am going to tell you the story of when i nearly died in an old abandon house and being chased by crazy zombie like people and an alien invasion. that about this so let's get started shall we. it was a normal saturday afternoon i was still sleeping everyone in the house was sleeping my mom my dad i was 14 and an only child with three friends life was good i thought to myself. soon that was all going to change. GABE! GABE! WAKE UP said my father w w what is it? i asked A EXPLOSION HAS DESTROYED THE TOWN'S ONLY GROCERY STORE AND THE CITY'S POLICE HAVE ORDERED EVERYONE TO GO TO THE SECRET BOMB SHELTER OUTSIDE THE TOWN. your mother has already packed enough clothes for you grab whatever you need then were leaving! he said. the ride there took a lot longer than i expected it to be. we were driving for about 5 hours with all the traffic jam from everyone trying to get out of the town. when we finally got there we had to wait a REALLY long line to actually get in the place it didn't look anything like a bomb shelter the outside was just a old house looked kinda creepy to me the inside was really high-tech everything was made of metal,glass all the rooms would open when you walked by in a two foot radios it was pretty cool. gabe my mother called I saw your friends down the hall going to the lunchroom this place has a lunchroom i asked yes it's just turn to the left at the corner down the hall you should be able to see it she replied i said ok and then i was off to go and see my friends. at the lunch room i was eating with my friends martin, cody, josh.martin who was the kind of guy who was realy into sports and would never stop talking about it, josh was very addicted to playing video games he can't stop playing them no one knows why, cody was smart he did lots of extra work at home his mom had someone come and work with him after school when he wasn't doing that he'd hang out with josh most of the time. while we were eating i asked what do you think of all this? they all shrugged i think its strange that they wouldn't have warned us sooner if it was a bomb people were in there when it happend and lots were outside getting hit with shrapnel and garbage.after that we all spent about a week there people were going missing after the sixth day it was really strange. people were trying to get out of the place protesting to let them free and then the next day they were gone... cody's dad was getting a bit
