

Hey there future 7-figure high ticket sales machine!

Thanks for checking out the exclusive.....

Prospects On Demand Masterclass

The Alarmingly Simple Process To
Bank 1-3 High Ticket Sales Per Week

While Cutting Your Time In messenger By AT LEAST Half, Booking MORE Highly Qualified Calls WITHOUT Being Desperate Or Needy

This process works EVEN IF...

- ★ You have a small audience
- ★ You think you SUCK at sales
- ★ Even If you HATE sales calls (there's hardly any ACTUAL selling involved as your prospects will be virtually begging for access to your offers)

If you made it this far it tells me you're;

- An up and coming affiliate, info product creator or coach who's looking to spend LESS time IN their business and focus more on helping their amazing clients...

- Someone who's tired of spending countless hours glued to messenger waiting and hoping the prospect they've spent months building rapport with will FINALLY be ready to jump in

Or;

- Someone who just wants a simple way to send 5-8 messages to a cold prospect, book a short call (or lob over a doc like this) and make sales of $997 - $9700 like clockwork?

That's exactly what you'll uncover inside my;

Prospects On Demand Masterclass

This masterclass will be unlike anything you've seen before.

Why?

Well if you're like 97.36% of organic marketers out there, who are making these mistakes (most aren't even aware of them)...

...You're running into broke minded folks at every turn?

You're spending countless hours 'building rapport' with folks that never do anything OR; you're wishing and hoping they make a move.

But....

This is often taking months.

Worse still, you're not even able to get an offer over to them before they lose focus and bounce to the next guru that's just popped up on the radar?

It's like that saying old say from Einstein: "Insanity is doing the same over and over again and expecting a different result."

You keep diving into messenger without a framework to get person A to point Z.

You're likely getting stuck at B.

This is completely different.

You build rapid rapport.

You build rapid authority.

You cut to the chase in a way that doesn't feel pushy.

Better yet, people love it.

They get help quicker.

You're providing TONS of value upfront.

Now, the crazy thing is, this happens in 8 messages or less from icy cold prospects.

Lob a google doc at them?

Cool, they're eager to get it.

Lock in a call?

Amazing, they're happy to get help with their business.

Having sold tens of millions of dollars of products, services and coaching on and offline for over 15 years, I have yet to see a sales process work as efficiently and effortlessly as this does.

In fact, I've been very tempted NOT to let the cat out of the bag with this one as it's almost TOO GOOD to share!

But, seeing as though you're here, I'm going to give a few inspired folks that don't hate money the opportunity to test this ultra secret strategy out for yourself....

I recently revealed this process to a small group of private coaching students who paid $1,500+ to be there for 4 coaching sessions and the feedback was unsurprisingly positive....

"Dude, I would have paid $1500 for this part alone!"

"There's over $20,000 worth of info on this!"

"Damn, I'm gonna have to change the way I do things now! I can see why you're banking $50,000 months!"

You get the gist of it....

Let me ask you....

What if, instead of spending months in messenger chasing a lead around the interwebs in the vain hope they 'maybe, one day, hopefully jump into your program....

...You had an 8 'magic message' sequence that got calls booked in your calendar like clockwork?

...What if those prospects were happy to be there and actually showed up?

....How would it feel when your week was over, you'd built a ton of good will in your audience, made 2-3 sales and had people willingly drop testimonials for you building your authority?

.....What if you DIDN'T want to get on calls at all?

I know. Crazy, but this works SO well, it's really up to you which pathway you decide to take your prospects down.

....How would it feel to look up at the clock after spending 20-30 minutes locking in calls and say to yourself 'I think I'll go hang out with the fam tonight' and 'drop tools' to go spend more time with them?
