IMPORTANT

This is a credits map, if you haven't seen the main map you wont understand this one

It is ALWAYS snowing, in all parts (gentle snowing)

Most resources are in the discord server, which is now mandatory for this specific map

Part 1: The screen fades in from black to thunderclan as the screen zooms down and snow falls gently

Part 2: draw (don't animate) this scene, the screen slides from the sides to see

Brightheart tolerating the centipedes as whitepaw brings a bucket full of them (both the centipedes and the bucket has a reference sheet)

Sorrel and leaf laughing with each other (there are still vines scattered on her body)

Fireheart finally tolerating brambleclaw and letting him sleep on his back (note that bramble is MUCH larger than fire, almost like a bear sleeping on a cat) (not that big lol)

Part 3: Mousefur and longtail talk with each other with dustpelt staring in the background. dustpelt is blurred then gets unblurred as the screen zooms in (look at storyboard to see what I mean)

Part 4: this scene requires a LOT of emotion.

Dustpelt stares at them then stares off to the side, thinking for a moment then looking back up and waving his paw at them in the intention of being friendly, dust immediately gets embarrassed and does an eye roll, walking off screen (look at storyboard to help with this one)

Part 5: Dustpelt walks off screen as a bunch of thunderclan cats are together with each other in the background (he feels left out because he doesn't know how to make friends very well)

Part 6: staring at the night sky, dust sits on a small cliff as the screen zooms in and he sits down

Part 7: (only able to see the night sky, not the ground in this scene) as the wind blows dust's fur, he stares out looking unimpressed as ever with a hint of sadness that can't be expressed in his face. Dust turns his ears back as he hears something, a huge white snowball hits the back of his head

Part 8: dustpelt jerks his head back in pure anger to see who threw a snowball at his head like that, he immediately lies his fur back and his gaze softens as he sees sandstorm with a snowball in her paw staring back

Part 9: dustpelt and sand stare at each other, dustpelt in disbelief and sandstorm with a playful, determined and understanding look in her eyes (zoom the screen to the side)

Part 10: Dustpelt, still in disbelief, looks slightly awkward, not knowing what to do or say and looking to the side, sand rolls her eyes in a playful way

Part 11: Sand kicks up snow at dust's face and runs off, dustpelt shakes the snow off and runs at her in rage

Part 12: (tween this part) dustpelt runs at sandy in rage

(Animate this part) sand runs on a log then jumps off looking back at him and sort of teasing him and sticking her tongue out at him prompting him to chase her. Dustpelt chases her in pure rage and runs into the log, crashing. dust gets back up and jumps over the log

Part 13: dustpelt runs in rage but as he keeps running, his expression softens a little and begins to have fun

Part 14: zoom out to see thunderclan again as sand looks back at him, dust notices she was trying to help him not feel left out and include him (thunderclan cats are having a snowball battle) the storyboard here is sloppy so don't try to follow it exactly 🥲

Part 15: dustpelt stares in disbelief as a smile slowly (but not too noticeably) creeps on his face, breathing hard because he was just running
Sand pounces on him off screen

Part 16: Sand stands on top off dustpelt and pounces off screen prompting him to chase her
Dustpelt slowly gets up and smiles knowing he did not loose a friend, but gained a few more that day as well.

Part: 17 (tween, dont animate this scene) dustpelt and sandstorm run off with the others as the screen zooms down to show a shiny yellow star (as shown in the main map) stuck in the snow saying

“The End”
