We provide a way that allows you to study in your own home, by yourself, and have the resources of a teaching staff readily available. We will review your answers, make comments and return them to you.

This John Hurt Series consists of eight lessons, which offer an overview of the Bible, acceptable worship, and what one must do to be a Christian. This is an excellent starting place for those who are just beginning to investigate the Bible. You receive the next lesson in the series when you return the question sheet at the end of the current lesson. The course is graded, but is not extremely difficult.

You will receive a certificate of completion when we have received all the course lessons.
