

Yo [Name]

Based on past experience with clients I noticed a few things that are reducing your potential revenue.

It's not anything related to your X profile, but rather is your marketing strategy that isn't on point.

Is this something you've been struggling with or working on?

I already have a few ideas to help you with this, so if you want we can have a quick chat.

Let me know if you're interested to know what I'm talking about.

Yo (Name). Another quick thing.

You might have thought I was making some bold claims so I'm here to show you some social proof I've stacked lately:
