Created by Melanie Bunyea

What

- ❖ An individual meeting between student, parent(s)/guardian(s), and counselor to discuss future dreams, goals, and career plans, share information about students' strengths, interests, abilities and potential, and to assist students in transitioning to high school.

When and Where

- ❖ Conferences will be scheduled at the date and time you select. They will be held daily during the month of April. Please be sure to sign up for a time on my website when the schedule becomes available. (8th Grade Resources tab)
- ❖ The conference will likely last about 50-60 minutes. Students will be excused from their classroom for the conference.
- ❖ Please check in at the main high school office, as the conference will be held in my office at the HS.

Benefits

- ❖ Students take responsibility for their future,
- ❖ Students and parents/guardians share their thoughts and feelings,
- ❖ Parents/guardians feel more informed and involved,
- ❖ Students and parents/guardians are motivated to be involved in post-secondary planning,
- ❖ Student apprehension about school and future goals is reduced, and

A connection is developed between school,

parents/guardians, and students to increase the chances of academic success.

...they help to put all the pieces together!

Topics of Discussion

Conferences are specifically designed for students and their parents to communicate positively with one another about their school experience. These conferences will include the following topics of interest:

- ❖ Student goals
- ❖ Academic strengths and challenges
- ❖ Learning styles
- ❖ Career exploration
- ❖ Resume
- ❖ Freshman course selection process/schedule

Please visit my website to sign up for your conference! (Click 8th Grade Resources to access the link/google doc.)
