ABSTRACT

The abstract should be clear and informative in one paragraph (not exceeding 300 words). Use Cambria font in size 11-pt with single spacing. It should succinctly describe your entire paper which contains the introduction indicating the research gap, research purpose, methodology, findings, and research implication/contribution. It should tell the prospective readers what you did and highlight the key findings. Avoid using technical jargon and uncommon abbreviations. The abstract must appear on the top of the first page after the title, author(s) name and affiliation, and email address of corresponding author (who will handle correspondence at all stages of refereeing and publication, also post-publication; this responsibility includes answering any future queries about Methodology and Materials) of the paper. Keywords are the labels of your manuscript and critical to correct indexing and searching. They should be well selected and closely related to the topic to facilitate readers' search and should represent the content and highlight of your article. Use only abbreviations that are firmly established in the field. There must be 3-7 keywords (phrases). Each phrase in Keywords should be separated by a semicolon (;).

Introduction

It is an introduction of the article (level one headings). The article structure contains (a) Title; (b) Author(s) name, affiliation, and email address of corresponding author; (c) Abstract; (d) Keywords; (e) Introduction; (f) Method; (g) Findings; (h) Discussion; (i) Conclusion; (j) Acknowledgements; (k) Funding; (l) References; and (m) Appendices (if any). Therefore, the article should clearly describe the background of the subject, the author's work, including the method used, results, and concluding discussion on the importance of the work.

Manuscripts should be typed in MS Word doc. format; using 12-pt Cambria font; left, right, top, and bottom margins are 3 cm; single-spaced on A4-sized paper; length: between 4,000 and 7,000 words (including tables, figures, references, and appendices). It is expected that the author will submit carefully written and proofread material.

Use Reference Management Software such as Zotero (<http://www.zotero.org>), Mendeley (<https://www.mendeley.com>), etc. for citations and references by following the style of the American Psychological Association (APA) 7th Edition. Careful checking for spelling and grammatical errors should be performed. It is suggested to use Grammar Checker Software Grammarly (<http://app.grammarly.com>).

The introduction should clearly state the purpose of the paper. It includes a review of related literature and research purpose in essay style. The introduction should include key references to appropriate work. It states the significant contribution of the research. All introductions should be presented in the forms of paragraphs, not pointers, and with the proportion of 15-20% of the whole article length.

Author should provide an adequate background, and literatures review or in order to record the existing solutions/method, to show which is the best of previous studies, to show the main limitation of the previous studies, to show what do you hope to achieve (to solve the limitation), and to show the scientific merit or novelties of the paper. Avoid a detailed literature review or a summary of the results. Do not describe literatures review as author by author but it should be presented as group of articles per method or topic reviewed which refers to some literatures.

At the end of the introduction, author should explicitly state the research gaps and show the novelty of the research. Author should also write the research questions or research objectives and the research contributions. Here is the examples of the gaps analysis statement at the end of Introduction section: “..... (short summary of background) (put here state of the art or overview of previous researches similar to this research)..... A few researchers focused on There have been limited studies concerned on Therefore, this research intends to The objectives of this research are”.

“..... (short summary of background) (put here state of the art or overview of previous researches similar to this research) A few researchers focused on There is no researcher concerned on Therefore, this research focuses on This research is aimed to”.

The research contribution should be written here.

Method

This section discusses the research methodology (level one headings). This section consists of several subsections telling about the research method description such as the research design, participants, data collection (practical procedures), and data analysis (practical procedures). Methods already published should be indicated by a reference: only relevant modifications should be described. Do not repeat the details of established methods.

In the Method section, the proportion is 10-15% of the total article length, all presented in the form of paragraphs in the subsections. All text paragraphs should be single-spaced, with the first line indented. Double spacing should NOT be used anywhere in the manuscript. The position and style of headings and subheadings should follow this template.

First subsection of method

It deals with the first subsection of method (level two headings). XXXXXXXX XXXXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXX XXX. XXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXX XXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXX.

XXXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXXXXX. XXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXX.

Second subsection of method

It deals with the second subsection of method (level two headings). XXXXXXXX
XXXXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXX XXX. XXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXX XXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXX. XXXXXXXXXXX

Third subsection of method

It deals with the third subsection of method (level two headings). XXXXXXXX
XXXXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXX XXX. XXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXX XXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXX. XXXXXXXXXXX

How many subsections will be presented depend on the needs of the explanation related to the research methodology. XXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXX XXXXXXXX XXXXXXXX. XXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXXXXX.

Results

This section deals with the research findings (level one headings). The findings obtained from the research have to be supported by sufficient data. The research results and the discovery must be the answers, or the research hypothesis stated previously in the introduction part. The findings section consists of a description of the results of the data analysis to answer the research question(s). The findings should summarize (scientific) findings rather than providing data in great detail. Please highlight differences between your results or findings and the previous publications by other researchers.

This section should be explained in several subsections with the detail explanation of the findings. XXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXX XXXXX XXX XXXXXXX XXXXXXX XXXXX XXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXXXXX XXXXXXXX.

First findings

This section deals with the first findings (level two headings). The author is required to present the results of the study with a detailed explanation. XXXXXXXX

Subsection of the first findings

This section deals with a detailed explanation of the first findings (level three headings). How to make and place Figure? The placement of the *colorful mention the title of the figure.

Subsection of the first findings

This section deals with a detailed explanation of the first findings (level three headings). How to make and place Table? Each table must be typed, and consecutively numbered, just like Table 1 which links to the presented table. The title is written in the align-left above the table and 11-pt Palatino Linotype, while the source is placed below the table in the same font.

Second findings

This section deals with the second findings (level two headings). The author is required to present the results of the study with a detailed explanation. [If this subsection reports the data gained from the interview, the author is required to quote and write the transcription of interview result of the relevant data related to the answer to the research questions. References

This section deals with references (level one headings). Every source cited in the body of the article should appear in the list of References, and all sources appearing in the list of References should be cited in the body of the article. The references should be more up-to-date (published in the last 5 years). The primary sources cited in your paper are in the forms of journal articles, proceedings, research reports including theses and dissertations that can be accessed online (show the permalink/DOI). There should be at least 80% of the total references cited should be taken from journal articles (primary sources). Check each reference against the source (author name, volume, issue, year, permalink/DOI). Use other published articles in the same journal as models. The References should be presented alphabetically and chronologically and be set to 11-pt Cambria font, justified, with single line spacing and hanging indent as on the following examples:
