

Campus Librarian Network workshop

Brooklyn Public Library Brooklyn Collection, Central Library, 10 Grand Army Plaza, Brooklyn NY	The Interference Archive 314 7th Street, Brooklyn NY
---	---

Feb 26, 2020

EVALUATION FORM FOR TODAY'S WORKSHOP

9:00 AM - 3:00 PM

Workshop Facilitator(s): Russell West, New Visions; Jen Hoyer, Brooklyn Public Library

Category: Campus Librarians Network (CLN)

Expected Attendees: Librarians

Summary of Objectives

to build their capacity as instructional leaders; to strengthen their ability to advocate and use library data; to promote 21st century technology; to share best practices and resources around curriculum support; and to work to ensure students are acquiring the information literacy skills necessary to be successful in school, college and career.

Agenda:

Brooklyn Public Library provided agenda

9:00AM	Arrival and Registration	Brooklyn Collection	Linked Resources Program Booklet BPL Trustworthy Online Resources
9:10AM	Introduction and Welcome to the Brooklyn Collection
9:20AM	Primary Sources Icebreaker
9:40AM	Orientation to the Brooklyn Collection: an activity on skills-based learning in archives
10:45AM	Bathroom Break
11:00AM	Travel to Interference Archive

11:45AM	Lunch at Interference Archive	Interference Archive
12:45PM	Library Services Announcements, YA book distribution, etc
1:30PM	Introduction to Interference Archive
1:45PM	Archives In Context: A Guided Exploration Activity
2:30PM	Wrap up discussion
3:00PM	Day ends

Linked Resources

Interference Archive intro handout

Notes: