

Field: Veterinary Science/ Animal Medicine

Amber Vet was founded in 2011, and constantly strives to be the leader in all fronts of veterinary care by providing a cohesive, dedicated, caring and responsible veterinary team.

Placement description (unpaid):

- 1 placement
- The placement will be mainly observation, but helping to assist the Vet where possible, You will learn how to properly help and care for animals: mainly dogs, cats and rabbits
- You will see a variety of different types of veterinary procedures such as dental work, vaccinations and general health check ups.
- You will have many opportunities to discuss with veterinary nurses and Doctors about their experiences in the field.
- If the student is keen to see the operations/administrative part of the practice, it is available too
- A great opportunity to see if Veterinary science is for you!

Skills required:

- Ideal for students interested in working with animals, especially in Veterinary Science
- Important skills needed: patience, compassion, love of animals, communication
- Be willing to help out around the clinic

Format:

- Face to face
- Hours: 9.00am to 7.30pm
- Address: 50 Burnfoot Terrace, Singapore 459837

Hear from last year's student
Portfolio post