

Privacy Policy for Nexus Four

Effective Date: July 20, 2026

("we," "our," or "us") handles information in the mobile application Nexus Four (the "Game").

We are committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Policy explains that we do not collect, store, use, or share any personal information or data from our users.

1. Information Collection and Use

Device Permissions

- Zero Permissions Requested: The Game is designed to run entirely without requiring any special device permissions.
- It does not request access to your device's camera, microphone, contacts, location, storage, phone state, or any other sensitive hardware/software modules.

Personal Data

- No Data Collection: We do not collect any personally identifiable information (PII) such as your name, email address, phone number, or physical address.
- No Account Creation: You do not need to create an account, log in, or provide any credentials to play the Game.

2. Offline Gameplay and Data Storage

- Local Execution: All gameplay processing, including the AI logic and game state calculations, takes place locally on your device.
- No Server Storage: We do not operate external cloud servers for this Game. Your win/loss records or game progress (if any) are kept strictly within the application's local sandbox on your device and will be wiped if the Game is uninstalled.

3. Third-Party Services

The Game is distributed through official application marketplaces (such as the Google Play Store). While the Game itself does not collect data, these marketplaces may collect automated infrastructure data (such as crash logs or device models) to facilitate app installation and stability.

We do not integrate third-party advertising networks, analytics trackers, or social media plugins that track your behavior across the internet.

4. Children's Privacy

Because our Game does not collect any personal information whatsoever, it is inherently safe for children. We do not knowingly collect or solicit personal information from anyone, including children under the age of 13, in compliance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA) and global privacy regulations.

5. Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. Since we do not collect user contact information, we cannot notify you individually. Any changes will be reflected by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page with an updated effective date. You are advised to review this policy periodically for any updates.

6. Contact Us
