The origin of Veterans Day is November 11, 1918	Memorial Day is for remembering people who died in battle and Veterans Day is to thank and honor people who served in the military.	The tomb of the unknown soldier is a monument dedicated to American service members who have died without there remains being identified. The flag should never touch anything beneath it, the flag should not be used as a drapery, the flag should never be used as a part of a costume or athletic uniform.	Veterans Day is a very important day because it honors those who have fought for our country's freedom, and were willing to give up their life for other people's. This relates to our lives because we could not have all the freedoms that we have now without the Veterans.	We perform and participate in the Veterans Day assembly at Byron middle school because we want the Veterans to know how much they are appreciated and honored.

Veterans Day, formerly known as Armistice Day, was originally set as a U.S. legal holiday to honor the end of World War I, which officially took place on November 11, 1918.	Memorial Day, on the last Monday in May, is when we remember and honor men and women who died while serving in the military. Veterans Day, on November 11, is the day to thank all the men and women who have served in the military during wars and peaceful time	Respecting the flag. U can't let the flag touch the ground	My dad is a veteran so on Veterans Day we celebrate.	To celebrate and thank veterans

Veterans Day pays tribute to all American veterans (living or dead) but especially gives thanks to living veterans who served their country honorably during war or peacetime. It started on November 11th, 1938.	Memorial Day honors American service members who died in service to their country or as a result of injuries incurred during battle, while Veterans Day honors all the American veterans who are living or dead, and served our country in any way, especially giving thanks to those who served our country honorably during war.	World War 1: More than 70 million military personnel, including 60 million Europeans, were mobilised in one of the largest wars in history Vietnam War: lasted from the 1st of November 1955 to the fall of Saigon on 30 April 1975.	Veterans Day is significant because it is a day to honor all of the Americans who have served for our country. My mom is a navy veteran, and I'm proud to say that my mom served as a nurse in the Navy.	We perform and participate in the Veterans Day assembly to show that we care and support all the veterans that served our country.
