

OOO

Hello there! I'm Zomb / Trash. I've been RPin on Tumblr for at least ten years, most of which have been my fandomless OCs.

- Bri'ish
- She/Her
- I'm old. (31)

Basic Rules

I currently don't have many rules, and honestly never have had many rules. Typically the usual suspects. Most of this page isn't necessary reading, as it is typical, general yapping, but if you want to read on, please do-so!

- No Godmodding, Thank you! I feel this is a general rule for most people, so it's pretty self-explanatory! Please do not try to control my character/s. They are my characters and shouldn't have their actions controlled by another person.
- I don't want mun-muse interactions. They make me very uncomfortable. I don't wish to have a mun engaging with my characters. I'm here for muse-muse. My character is not here to be your girlfriend. My character is here to be your muse's (potential) girlfriend. Big difference. I have dealt with overly clingy muns in the past and it makes me very uncomfortable, as stated.
- Multi-verse and multi-ship! I will always have my character's ships in separate verses unless stated by myself and my partner.
- There's no need for follow-follow. Sometimes I just like to see a particular writer on my dash even if they don't follow me back.
- I do not mind memes / so on being reblogged from me! Go right ahead! (Is that reblog Karma? I dunno. I'm thick, leave me be.)

- I have begun using small <s> text! If you don't use, or don't want it used in an RP, just let me know! Send me a message! That's the only kind of formatting or text altering I do (I'm too dumb to figure all that out).
- Discord available on request! - My IM/DMs are always open! Don't feel afraid to pop in!

Shipping

I love shipping.

I love crackshipping. Honestly, any kind of shipping!

If you wish to ship with me, whether it be romantic, platonic, familial, crack, whatever, you can message me, send me asks, throw things my way. Any and all ships are welcome.

I do prefer to ship with chemistry, BUT, if it's a memeing / crack ship that pops up out of nowhere, I'm all ears.

SFW & NSFW

Given the nature of my art and it being heavily ecchi-themed, there will be NSFW content. I also just quite like drawing my girl/s and her/their squishier parts, so if that makes you uncomfortable, I won't be the blog to follow.

I am happy with both SFW and NSFW RP, however, given my content and my age I will not interact with a mun under 18 years old. I do have a preference for those I interact with to be over 21.

All that being said, NSFW content (RP wise) will be hidden under a Read More, so if you don't like that on your dash, but still wish to follow me, you won't be subjected to reading it. Art-wise, I will have a small preview image (i.e the face) and the image itself will be under a Read More!

Just know that NSFW is not required! I am all about that friend / enemies / rival / etc dynamic!

Icons

I sadly don't have many icons for my muses as I don't have much art for them, so if you require icons for scenes, I won't be able to accommodate, sorry. I'm just not that great at art / expressions, soooooooo, I sadly don't have the art at my disposal to make icons from!

Asks

My ask box will always be open, never feel nervous to send something!

Think it's going to be cringe? I love that. Something I might not respond to? I probably will! If you see me reblogging memes and such, don't be worried about sending things my way. Ask away!

Legitimate anon hate will be ignored (I know there are a few memes that call for 'mean' anons. Those are fine!).

Password?

No password here, but if you wanna send something idk, you can be rude or somethin'. It can be awkward for people, so I don't ask for passwords or send them. However, if you ask, I will probably send it!
