

Infinity of Spike

Chaos = Spike disappeared in Season 2, then reappeared at the end of season 6 as a member of the Chaos Insurgency

Evaluator = Spike is the giver of karma, and we see the inner workings of said giver

Subject = Story of Vectromirror but with this cast

Test Subject = AJ, RB, Rarity, Flutter, Twilight, Pinkie

Manipulator = Spike

Extrapolator = Starlight Glimmer

A Magical Waltz = Spike secretly Practices Magic from waltz of the wizard

Glitch = Spike becomes unclipped from the story and the world, and sees through the boundaries of reality, but things go awry, as we know, things can only be unclipped and safe for so long, before things become...Dangerous.

During 3rd chapter, he gets captured by a cult of celestia, tortured, and becomes the Scrapespike, based off of scrapeface (See scrapeface og video for idea).

Musical = Spike becomes a popular singer, but things go downhill. Remember to include good enough, I'm on fire, and making day by atsuoever.

Darkest Night = Spike comes into contact with a black Liquid (Bob from fnf) and tries to maintain sanity and control.

Monarch of Darkness = Spike fills the role as Villain as the New Lord X in MLP. Use Vs. Omega's Hivemind song.

Stoned = Spike gets the Deimos Treatment. After getting heavily injured in an attack, he loses some of his body, only to get it replaced overnight by strange magic stone.

Matrix Directive = While everyone is living their lives, Spike is secretly behind the scenes making sure everything is going as it should, but when he accidentally uncovers an entrance to the mainframe, Twilight discovers it and shiz hits the fan. At Chapter 3 he is glitched in and out and becomes an auditor form.

Use Isotope (FNF)

Melancholic Melodies of a Mad Dragon = Spike starts to see some terrifying things as he descends into madness because of Twilight's meddling

Savior = After a small massacre, a volcano erupts, and from the ashes came the savior. (Jebus Style)

Creation = Spike is a god and shifts things around in his world.

The Horror = Spike becomes SCP-3999 and starts to torture the villains, but loses mind in power and starts to torture other main characters.

Lonely Day = Spike wanders through the ruined remains of equestria, being the last living being.

Nihildraco = Spike is the G Man, trying to get the main characters to fall for his trickery. In the final chapter, Sunny Starscout finds spike and Spike delivers he this, "Cleverly done, miss Star Scout, but you're not supposed to be here. As, a matter a fact, your not. Get back where you belong and forget about all of this...again."

The End = A Story similar to the sonic fan comic, where was my hero. When twilight shatters Spikes egg, a mysterious explosion occurs and he is blown to another part of equestria. He then fend for himself until he has had enough, and decides he'll cleanse this world of all evil. Then it basically follows the comic.

Restart = Spike Goes back in time in order to fix the story of mlp. This is pretty much a prologue for another story.

Use Repair what you've broken for one of these stories.

Anomalous Properties

A Story about an Earth Pony runaway, Question Mark, who uses SCPs to survive against the elements and other ponies. And like the title, he is completely immune to any mental properties that the SCPs would inflict upon him.

SCPS Used

- Control that Question Mark has over the SCP
 - Maksud = No Control Needed
 - Thaumiel = Controls other SCPS
 - Safe = Completely controlled from everyone else
 - Euclid = Semi-controlled from everyone else
 - Keter = Barely Controlled from everyone else
 - Apollyon = Not controlled
- Inanimate

Inanimate SCPS are usually held by QM via normal methods.

 - SCP-001-JB "Sheaf of papers" : Apollyon
 - While QM does his best to keep the sheaf of papers away from everyone, he can't exactly stop it from opening and causing disasters or spawning new anomalies. All he can really do is stick a weight on it.
 - Any SCP below marked with (JB) is spawned from this during the timeline of the story.
 - SCP-1499 "Soviet Gas Mask" : Safe
 - The Escape plan. If Question Mark is ever caught, putting on the mask transports him to another world. This world isn't safe however, so once you find somewhere safe, in both worlds, it's best to take it off.
 - SCP-1025 "Encyclopedia of common diseases" : Safe (JB)
 - A Book that contains every disease common to the world of MLP, but don't go opening it to finish your Medical class. Reading the pages gives you whatever disease is being read.
 - SCP-035 "Possessive mask" : Euclid
 - The riskiest SCP in Question's arsenal, because chances are he'll double cross him soon enough. Luckily though, there does seem to be a kinship between the two, where the mask allows for Question to take him off whenever he wishes. Anyone else though...well, that's their problem.
 - SCP-963 "Immortality" : Maksud
 - Unlike the actual 963, which has the soul of Jack Bright, instead, it obviously has the soul of Question Mark. Also unlike 963, the host doesn't have to be dead for the soul to transfer. Anytime the necklace is worn by someone that isn't who Question mark is hosting, Question mark is transferred from the original host into who wore it next. Whenever this happens, QM's original body goes into a coma until QM decides to return to it.

- SCP-018 "Super Ball" : Euclid (JB)
 - haha bouncy ball go brrrr.
- SCP-500 "Panacea" : Safe
 - A pill bottle containing 73 Red pills, that once consumed, completely cures the user after 2 hours or so. This causes a lot of strife in Question Mark, because he knows that the pills are limited, and while he is selfish with these pills, he also knows that ponies dying for no reason is something he can stop.
- SCP-117 "Complete Multitool" : Safe (JB)
 - While it looks like a normal multi-tool, depending on what is required, the tool can gain any tool needed.
- SCP-714 "The Jaded Ring" : Safe
 - Causes immense fatigue but basically makes the user immortal to all dangers.
- SCP-178 "3-D Specs" : Safe
 - Once worn by question mark, and only question mark, the entities on the other side will be able to interact with QM, and vice versa. Unlike normally, where the user suffers severe lacerations upon contact, instead, it just feels like touching carpet. At least to QM.
- SCP-099 "The Portrait" : Safe (JB)
 - A seemingly normal portrait, that affects the user minorly at first, but continued viewing can cause irreparable mental damage.
- SCP-1022 "Suspiciously Clean Coat" : Safe
 - Basically worn at all times by QM, this allows him to become completely immune to any telekinetic magical property. Not only that, but it allows him to sense and detect magical residue, along with actual biological organisms like bacteria. Almost like a super enhance. And, like with everything else, QM is immune to the negative effects. Anyone else though, might just become a twilight level obsessed hypochondriac.
- SCP-2000-TNY "Deus Ex Machina" : Safe
 - A Much Smaller variant of SCP-2000, which once used, will replicate the DNA inserted into the slot, making a clone of whoever inserted the DNA. Takes a day at most.
- SCP-3922 "STOPRIGHTTHERECRIMINALSCUM" : Thaumiel (JB)
 - A small cylinder. The cylinder itself does nothing, however if placed near a form of entertainment, such as movie, TV, or book, suddenly an elite group of guards will join the narrative of the story.
- SCP-5000-P "Why?" : Safe
 - Question's last resort. If he truly needs to be on the offensive for any reason, this robotic suit matching his anatomy should be able to get him out of any situation.

- SCP-4098 "S-C-P, easy as 19-3-16!" Safe
- SCP-860 "Blue Key" : Safe
 - A small blue key that, once put inside a keyhole, transforms the location that the door normally goes to into a portal to another world.
- SCP-184 "The Architect" : Keter
 - A Small octadecahedron that can extend and create rooms if left unattended. Question used this to increase his Backpack's space, and keeps this thing under control via magnet.
- SCP-180 "Identity Thieving hat" : Safe
 - Whoever wears the hat becomes completely unrecognizable to anyone that sees them. Say, if rarity wore the hat, suddenly no one would know that she's rarity.
- SCP-294 "Coffee Machine" : Safe
 - A machine that can dispense the liquid form of anything that can turn into a liquid form.
- SCP-005 "Skeleton Key" : Maksur (JB)
 - Simply put, the key can open any door, regardless of the existence of a lock or not.
- SCP-348 "Gift from Dad" : Maksur
 - A Bowl of soup that changes depending on the relationship with the consumer's father.
- SCP-1188 "Matter-displacing Flashlight" : Safe (JB)
 - While the energy required to use this device is relatively high, it is worth it. Instead of a standard cone of light, anything caught in the field of view of this flashlight is instead temporarily erased from existence. Until the flashlight is pointing away, it's all gone.
- SCP-010 "Collars of Control" : Safe (JB)
 - Consists of 1 remote with 6 collars. Placing the collar on the neck of a creature will allow for the unwilling control of the creature via remote. While QM doesn't plan to use this, drastic measures are an unwilling measure.
- SCP-148 "The 'Telekill' Alloy : Thaumiel
 - Due to the transfer from SCP to MLP world, Not only does the metal block out mind-affecting properties, but also completely blocks out any magic effects. QM holds onto a sheet of 148 at all times, just in case he ever needs to defend himself. The rest is at his base, protected by 079.
- SCP-427 "Lovecraftian Locket" : Safe (JB)
 - A small locket that causes various positive to negative effects for time held.
- SCP-1341 "JUNGLE IN A JAR" : Safe
 - A Jar that, when opened, can create a jungle the size of the room in a varying time, with included soil, anomalous plants, and water.
- SCP-914 "Clockworks" : Thaumiel (JB)

- A massive machine that can do a numerous amount of things to what is put in the input area.
 - Rough
 - Downgrades the object significantly, or completely destroys the item.
 - Coarse
 - Downgrades the item to a lower form, or takes the item apart.
 - Ex. Small Machine ---> pile of bolts and wires
 - 1:1
 - Transforms the item into a object of equivalent value.
 - Ex. Ruby ---> Sapphire
 - Fine
 - Upgrades the item.
 - Ex. Iron ---> Steel
 - Very Fine
 - Upgrades the item significantly, or transforms the item into something else of higher quality. Possibility to destroy the item.
 - Ex. Gold ---> Diamond
 - Ex. Spear ---> Damascus Sword
- SCP-662 “Butler’s hand bell” : Safe
 - Shaking the bell causes a British earth pony to appear, who will take the orders of whoever rang the bell as long as it is logistically possible for an earth pony. If the pony is killed, they will return after another ring of the bell.
- SCP-207 “Cola Bottles” : Safe
 - Due to Question mark’s unique ability to resist anomalous properties, these cola bottles are simply able to deal with the positive effects due to high increase in sugar and energy. However, no one else is as safe as he is.
- SCP-105-B “Polaroid” : Thaumiel (JB)
 - When held, all photographs will now turn into portals of what is seen.
 - Ex. Photographs of the ocean will turn into a portal where you can touch the water, and watch it move up and down via waves.
- SCP-244 “Ice fog jar”: Safe (JB)
 - A small jar that, once opened, releases an unlimited amount of liquid nitrogen, freezing anything near. Question mark is affected by this, as while the jar is supernatural, the fog isn’t, so he has to be very careful with it.
- SCP-323 “Wendigo Skull” : Euclid
 - While Question mark is immune to the “luring” of the skull, that doesn’t mean no one else is. While Question mark tries his best to keep the skull out of sight of everyone, which is done to good effect, the luring in other sensory forms is something Question cannot stop.

- SCP-399 “Atomic Manipulation Ring” : Safe (JB)
 - Allows for question mark to completely change the anatomy of anything, as long as he is near a force of energy, with the more changes requiring more energy.
- SCP-063 “The world’s best TothBrush” : Safe
 - The bristles on this brush can completely eradicate anything it’s brushed against.
- SCP-426 “I am a toaster” : Safe
 - With every other SCP, question mark is immune to the effects, however, he does pretend to suffer the effects of me. He simply finds it funny to act like he is me.
- SCP-458 “Never-ending Pizza Box” : Maksur (JB)
 - Need I say more? The pizza is refilled whenever closed, and it adds and removes toppings depending on whoever opened it.
- SCP-4581 “Anti-Racist Audio Cassette” : Maksur
 - Depending on whoever picked up the cassette tape last, the audio contained in the cassette will change to positively impact whatever species the user is.
- SCP-1999-QM “Loewes” : Thaumiel
 - A Pen that has bonded with QM. If QM writes his name on an object, everyone now perceives and interprets that object as being owned by QM.
- SCP-6999 “Nearer, my god, to thee” : Safe (JB)
 - The only SCP that question wishes he would be affected by. This simple recording of an orchestra has been known to cause creatures to vastly improve their lives by making the listener repair relationships.
- SCP-012 “A Bad Composition” : Maksur (JB)
 - The opposite of 6999, instead of helping, it makes whoever views or listens to it hurt themselves, in an attempt to finish the piece. Thankfully, QM keeps it locked up tight.
- SCP-3782 “Through Roosevelt’s glasses” : Safe (JB)
 - The only difference is that not only is QM immune to the properties they inflict on others. Whoever puts them on is still a semi-omnipotent Theodore Roosevelt.
- SCP-003 “Biological Motherboard” : Safe
 - A Small bio-technical device that can be put on any sentient flora/fauna. Once activated, the flora/fauna can now be controlled via QM.
- SCP-093 “Red Sea object” : Safe
 - Due to the MLP world’s properties, the Red Sea Object now only allows for the transportation between mirrors. Depending on the user’s psyche, it transports them to different mirrors, but due to QM’s unique ability, it simply transports him to the closest mirror to where he wants to go.

- SCP-067 “Artist’s pen” : Maksur
 - Essentially makes whoever holds it an expert artist. Not much too it.
- Animate

Unless stated, all Animate SCPS are hidden in QM’s secret basement, with him basically doing his best to take care of them.

 - SCP-079 “Old A.I.” : Thaumiel
 - Unlike the real 079, this version of the Old A.I. is much more inclined to the world, able to manipulate magical, technical, and normal properties like in Secret Lab. He’s also much more nice of an...A.I. but only towards Question mark. Question mark usually uses him by wielding him like a backpack, where the A.I., who he calls Kane, is on top of his back keeping him safe, in return for Question keeping him safe.
 - SCP-5094 “Miss J’s Whiz Kidz Schoolhouse” : Safe
 - Miss J is probably better than she’s even been. While she mainly remains in the computer, she is freely able to leave the computer, assume a pony form, and walk around. She even keeps her digital abilities! She’s the best teacher you could ask for.
 - SCP-055 “[unknown]” : Safe
 - Seemingly a true deus ex machina, Question Mark is not affected by the anti-meme properties of 055 and is able to tell exactly what it is. However, no one else is, which is amazing for Question mark, as he’s able to make people forget they were chasing him in the first place.
 - SCP-4205-S “In the eyes of the Beholder” : Keter (JB)
 - A Singular panel of glass that contains the [ACCESS DENIED]. One glance at the eyes can cause irreparable damage to the viewer.
 - SCP-1471-A “Mal0 1.0.0” : Euclid
 - This version of Mal0 is a bit different. While Question mark and it do cooperate with each other, due to Question mark’s unique ability, Mal0 can’t actually interact with Question mark, although they can see each other. However, other creatures cannot see Mal0, but she sure can interact with them.
 - SCP-002-PD “The Living Room” : Safe
 - An unofficial version of SCP-002. A small fleshy ball that, once thrown, grows into the actual version of SCP-002. However, unlike the actual 002, this version is much less dangerous. It only transforms non-living objects into the fleshy variants.
 - SCP-085 “Hand-Drawn ‘Cassy’” : Safe
 - Unlike the normal SCP universe, Cassy is not restricted to paper. If she so chooses, or if QM wishes, Cassy can hop out of her paper onto another flat surface, and manipulate things as if she was actually there.
 - Ex. Hopping on a lever
 - SCP-2999 “The Black Cat and the White Rabbit” : Thaumiel (JB)

- This dynamic duo of lovers is more than happy to help QM in his endeavors, so long as they're never separated. While White Rabbit has the same powers as 079, Black cat, as long as it's repaired, is freely allowed to roam around, so long as he never speaks.
- SCP-2396 "Ms. Sweetie" : Euclid (JB)
 - Basically if you mixed applejack with Pinkie Pie. However, if any stallion, aside from QM, is in range of her, that stallion becomes a strange candy monster. This is why QM has no other stallion close to her, which might have ended up with Ms. Sweetie developing a crush on him due to his immunity.
- SCP-7999-3 "Meet me in the stars : Euclid/Thaumiel (JB)
 - This instance of 7999-3 is, along with 079, considered QM's main assistants. He's relatively nice, however his curiosity is way too big.

Relations

Question Mark

- Twilight Sparkle
- Rainbow Dash
- Pinkie Pie
- Rarity
- Fluttershy
- Applejack
- Celestia
- Luna

- Cadence
- Shining Armor
- Discord
 - Discord is constantly searching for Question Mark, for all the SCPS that QM has aren't supposed to exist in this world, and both know this. Unfortunately for Discord, the SCPS don't emit any form of magic, so he can't locate them off hand. Besides, most SCPS make it so he is incapable of even getting close to him.

Others

- SCP-079, 2999-A, and SCP-5094
 - Due to all 3 of these characters being contained in computers, and only one of them being able to leave, these three have formed a pretty nice bond, with 079 being cynical as ever, 2999-A being the dramatic yet nice romantic, and 5094 being just nice in general, they're very fun together.

Chapter Ideas

1 (Yet another Run): We open with a standard life in MLP, only to flash away to a group of guards chasing after a pony. Fluttershy comes out of her house to see what's happening, and once she sees the aggressive ways the guards are shouting and chasing after this pony who, seemingly just had a big backpack, she goes over to find out what's going on. Fluttershy stops the two groups, and while the guards and Fluttershy are distracted, the pony runs away, heading to a nearby door with a keyhole, before inserting a blue key and hopping in the door. The guards and fluttershy chase after him, only to find nothing in the house. Afterwards, fluttershy asks the guards what the pony was doing, only for discord to suddenly appear. Discord explains that he sent the guards after the pony, because that pony is in possession of things from another world. Fluttershy asks why he didn't just tell or ask her for help, and Discord explains that he doesn't want fluttershy and the rest of the mane 6 to be hurt by what the pony is packing. Meanwhile, we flash to the pony, who is now in a dark forest from the blue key. Suddenly, a beast appears, which the pony calls, "Puppers," and it is revealed that they have a kinship of sorts.

The Spooky Zone

A Set of My little pony stories based on halloween

- Trick Me
 - Butterscotch attempts to woo Princess Luna, but due to his shyness, he can't even get close. When Nightmare night comes however, and Princess Luna is as active as she could ever be, Butterscotch gathers enough courage to ask her to a dance. However, it isn't called nightmare night for no reason. Nightmare moon breaks free, yet despite the Lunar nightmare returning, it seems that butterscotch isn't deterred, and asks Nightmare Moon to a dance. Confused at first, she takes him up on the offer, which leads to Butterscotch singing the titular song. Nightmare Moon continues to try and act scary to get him to shut up, but butterscotch has come too far to back down now. At the end, Nightmare moon is revealed to not be back, and it was just Luna testing Butterscotch, much to his shock. Luna decides to give butterscotch a chance afterwards.
- Haunted House
 - Paranorman Lives in a house that's inhabited by every form of classic scary creature. Ghosts, Werewolves, Ghouls, Vampires, everything you'd see from the Dark Universe. These paranormal creatures, while not actively malicious or hostile, are very mocking of Paranorman. Why? Because he cannot drag up the courage to ask out his crush, Rarity.
- Howling at the moon
 - Rainbow Dash has the biggest secret, one that only she trusts Fluttershy with. However, when Luna forecasts a week of full moons, how long can Rainbow Dash hide herself before someone finds her furry problem?
- Neon Sonata
 - Trixie might not be the strongest in magic, but when Starlight Glimmer suffers an injury that leaves her in a magical coma, Trixie will do anything to get her best friend (and maybe more) out of it.
- Masks
 - Twilight Sparkle isn't used to the customs of Veilville, so when she wanders in, seeing all these ponies wearing strange masks, she realizes she might be out of her depth. Especially when one of them comes off.
- Undead
 - Lost Herb is dead. He has been for over 3 decades. It's something Ponyville never forgot, and it's something that Ponyville wishes they did forget when he finally returns.
- Scarlet Vow

- Celestia never forgot her old student, Sunset Shimmer. Banished to a realm she would never return from. The caveat is that Celestia thought this realm would be safe. How laughable.
- When our bodies wash ashore
 - Off the coast of griffonstone, a lone fisherpony does his job.
- Sweet Dreams
- Outside
 - A Story about a paranoid Changeling who hasn't left his home in days. He hides as, "Bright Maple," in the town of ponyville. He's starving, however he's too terrified to even step outside his house because he's confident in the fact that everypony outside has been turned into a monster. Constantly he peeks outside windows to watch other ponies, going throughout their lives like normal, with him thinking it's all an act to get him to come outside. Meanwhile, Pinkie Pie is wondering where her syrup supplier is, as Bright Maple hasn't been by in quite a while, and she's running out. Pinkie wanders into town to try and find him, only to realize that no one really knows where he lives. It's revealed later that Bright Maple lives on the top floor of Lyra and Bon Bon's house, and they never even knew. As a crowd gathers to try and find the "Missing" Pony, Maple watches from his window carefully, his transformation gone to try and conserve energy. Thinking that the mob is about to storm the house, he, in his immensely malnourished state, squeezes into a cabinet. We lose sight of maple for a while as we go outside to watch the growing search party look all around ponyville, with a couple brave souls heading into the everfree to see if he had wandered in. We watch as weeks pass, and multiple ponies, from the mane 6, to canterlot guards, to Princess Luna even get involved, but no sight of him. Eventually, Lyra accidentally hits her head on the ceiling, knocking down the attic staircase, which she forgot even existed. When she walks up there, she falls backwards in fear, causing Bon Bon to catch her before hand. The two investigate, finding the skeletal remains of a pony, and a journal, containing most of the lyrics of the Song Outside.
- All Hallows
 - All horrors go out to play on All Hallows Eve.

A Matter of Factories

A MLP storyline that consists of Ficsit sticking itself inside MLP. A Pony Pioneer named Office Worker starts his career at Ficsit, being sent to an uninhabited section of the MLP planet. After a couple chapters of Office honing his craft and starting his immense factory, we start seeing that he's actually starting to send off his materials not only to Ficsit but also into Equestria, under the moniker of the "Awesome Shop." While the shop is considered like any other, occasionally a miracle because of the amount of supply, the Map of Friendship sees all, and sends over Rarity, Twilight, and AJ to that section of the planet, known as the Dune Desert, and they're not prepared for the industrial Wonderland that Office Worker has made.

JABBERWOCK: CHANGELING of MYTHICALITY

Part 1: Roughly just the mlp series, in which jabber is present for things he could've actually changed. Starts at the end of season 4.

Part 2: Unknowingly, Jabber is transported into an alternate universe where equestria is more bleak, and also in civil war. Twilight sparkle has been murdered, and the main ponyland of equestria is split.

Part 3: Because I'm milking this, Jabber is transported to another equestria that is female dominated, Similarly to "Anomaly in a mare's world," mixed with "The devil's prize," as both kinship and friendship doesn't exist. Not only that, but technology has advanced enough to where basic revolvers are a regular occurrence, and televisions to be very common. Having to adapt will be tricky, but at least we've got the all stars cast of majins, from part 1, part 2, and some new members.

Majins

means the chapter they appear in.

#P Means parts they appear in

? (Skin), ? (Crystal and Eye color) If gender is not specified, male. If appearance is not specified, when discovered, he can go into it at any time.

Card Name = Class

- Spades = Intelligent and Wise. Manipulation is key.
- Clubs = All about the Power.
- Hearts = Relations, both positive and negative
- Diamonds = Tactical, but gain an ego

Ace = Power fluxuates through the story

(2 - 13) = Power Level

Might go with the idea they are all actual creatures that were basically stuffed into Jabber.

Part 1

1P, 2P, 3P: Plain, Transparent: Jabberwock = Ace of Spades

Starts as Trustworthy and even snarky, but after Actual Shifting, becomes cautious and paranoid, yet drastic and erratic. Always thinking someone will betray him. Main power is crystalized extremities. Generally wears a Black T and Sweatpants, with a green glowing robe, which he gains from King Sombra. This applies to every majin that doesn't have specified clothes, except for the robe, which changes to crystal color. After obtaining Purity, I become more relaxed.

P1, P3: 3, 27, 31, 38, 51, 53: Dark blue, Cyan: Dexterous majin = 5 of Clubs

Somewhat like Pinkie Pie, great at movement, acts female. Appears whenever in high stress situations. Wide smile and squinted eyes. After obtaining Purity, is now able to clone herself.

Was originally a Majin sonic.

1P, 3P: 16, 32, 39, 40, 53: Black/Dark red, Dark Red: Exalted Majin = King of Clubs

Incomprehensible Speech, Barely moves, incredibly powerful magic. Only facial feature is two glowing eyes, left of which is now the eye of horse-us (Horus) and the other is of a sun eye. When appearing in 39 and 40, only his silhouette is seen by the characters. Once in P3, Horus eye is now Purple, Sun eye is now red, and skin becomes mosaic turquoise. Just generally more powerful.

P1, P3: 31, 36: Glowing Green, Green: Celestine Majin = Jack of Hearts

Empathetic and Cautious. Appears when many animals are in the same area. Female. Looks like changeling fluttershy with a jade like skin and glowing eyes. Able to communicate with anything, and uses invisibility like a spritz of water.

5, 6, 17, 32, 33, 38, 41, 53: Plain, Purple and Gold: Royal Majin = Jack of Diamonds
Superior syndrome, tactical genius, and charisma. Powerful as a regular pony. Appears whenever needed, usually when being a leader or when other royalty are around, but usually the first one. Carries a Gilded sword. Appears with a magenta robe and silver crown.

Was a Pony royal named Count Simon. Was supposed to be an actual prince, but the title was passed to his adopted sister.

6: Tan/black, Brown: Captain Majin = Jack of Diamonds

Nearly the opposite of Royal. No one knows if he plans stuff out or if he just goes to the wind, but he almost always wins. Still acts cocky, and isn't at all gracious or nice like Royal. Just think jack sparrow, and there he is.

Was originally a Pirate captain with a boiled brain named Sword Baron.

1P, 2P: 27: Black, Red: Judas Majin = 7 of Spades

A Sinful and Traitorous person on the surface, and will easily double-double cross someone, but knows what's right and wrong. Money is a key determining factor in his planning.

Was the original Judas, who in this world was a noble who betrayed the princesses to Tirek. Still has this primal urge to Double-cross, but now knows when the right time is.

30, 43, 53: Green/Red, Red: Hatred Majin = Jack of Hearts

Sour and Angry. Only appears when the captors or chrysalis is an opponent. Expert at fire and heat magic. Appears with burned patchy skin and a missing eye.

4, 5, 23, 36, 37, 39, 53: Black, Black: Alternate Majin = 6 of Clubs

Sadistic and somewhat legible. Able to contort his body like a snake in many ways. Completely shadowed and blank skin, except for eyes and teeth, which emit a white glow. Eyes are also now that of downward crescents.

Was originally a normal pony named Spiked Cliff (He sold cacti) before getting devoured by one of these creatures, now taking its mantle.

23, 33, 50: Gray/green, Glow: Darastrix Majin = 3 of clubs

Acts similarly to a dragon, but still has Jabber's core personality. Appears as a dragon with changeling eyes. Only appears when in the area of the dragon isles.

41: Blue, White: Speedster Majin = 5 of Diamonds

Obsessed with getting stuff done and going fast. Cocky, but smart whenever he's needed. Appears with a blown back hairstyle and red shoes. In 41, he is implied to have already appeared before 41.

P1, P2, P3: 40: White, Blue/white: Perfected Majin = Ace of Hearts

A complete version of Jabber. Knows everything that will happen, but insanely rare.

Only appears for brief segments to an hour. Has obtained an object called purity.

Appears with white fur, blue fur as a secondary, heterochromia, and a small bowler hat.

In part 3, despite seemingly like an anti-villain, he's doing the best for the characters.

P1, P3: 10, 12, 13, 14, 18, 19, 22, 37, 39, 51: Red/purple, Black/red: Matrix Majin = Jack of Spades

Basically the smart*ss. Think of psychic from fnf mind games, and saiki from TDLOSK.

Expert at tech and magic and able to deduce a lot, but has bad people skills.

Completely white eyes, Hair now spikes at one point. Uses gravity spells at the beginning.

Was a nerdy and anti-social tech wiz, before a glitch occurred and he died in his own computer.

P1, P3: 18, 22, 27, 40, 44: White, Pink: Lustful Majin = Queen of Hearts

Charismatic and Sexual. Can mind control and manipulate. All Female, All pansexual.

Wings become that of a moth, grow 2 more arms, and smaller fangs.

P1, P2, P3: Dark Purple, Red Eyes: Miller Majin = Jack of Clubs

Similarly to Judas Majin, Miller is another old creature that has been embedded into Jabber. This creature is an old and psychotic pony named Manage Miller. He's also one of the only 2 majins in part 1 that are actually villainous, other being legion. Similarly to Legion, he only works with himself. Has Defensive Microbot-like eyes he named Duke and Count. Think of Him as a mix of Rob from Amazing world of gumball and Henry miller from Dsaf.

28, 30, 40, 43, 45, 48: Dark Orange, White/ Black: Obsessive Majin = 10 of Hearts

Bloodthirsty and obsessed with whoever means the most to Jabber (Either Twilight or Luna) Crazy look with wide eyes and a malformed mouth. Appears slightly, mainly just when Jabber is freaking out, in 28, 30, and 40, but is given a full spotlight afterwards, mainly in 43 when this Majin is finally revealed by Jabber to actually exist.

25, 31, 40, 41, 44, 51: Black, White: Absurde Majin = Joker Card

An eternally smiling version of Jabber. Mostly Black, except for the head which is all white. No eyes. Cocky and likes making fun of people. He's also a cheater, not just in games, but also in reality itself. He breaks it. Just casually. Casually breaks reality, usually with magnets. He plays with physics and the nature of how life works like a cello. Not a fiddle though, he's not that good yet. It's a fun time. Fun, if you're him anyway.

1P, 2P, 3P: 19, 24, 46 (Cameos), 52: Black/White, White/Black: Legion Majin = Ace of Kings

A Weaker version of all other majins. Acts superior to everything. Incredible skinny, incredibly tall, crazed look. Appears as god in a bad future in 19. Appears as Jabber's counterpart in 24, and both him and Miller Appear to Umbra in a vision in 46.

Part 2

Red, Magenta/Brown: Pirate Queen Majin = Queen of Diamonds, 5 of clubs, 7 of spades

The accidental Mixture of the two notable Royal and Captain Majins. Came into being by rogue spell. Has all the good parts and bad parts of both majins, with Royal's elegance and intelligence, yet his arrogance and caution, along with captain's skills and charisma, but with his arrogance and willingness to overlook bad things. Based on the name, obviously female.

White/Green, Glassy: Re-Animator Majin = King of Spades, 8 of diamonds

Similar to the Matrix Majin, this Majin knows it all, and always thinks he's better than everyone else. Not similar to Matrix however, His ways are Questionable at best. While Matrix was Lawful Neutral and sherlock holmes emotionally, Re-Animator is Chaotic neutral, yet stoic. Able to bring people back to life, whether mindless or same as they died,

P2, P3: Deep Blue, Black (white iris): Digitized Majin = 6 of hearts, 4 of spades

Appearing as Jabber with a blacked out face and glowing white eyes, this majin is of note thanks to it's unique ability to transfer itself into other bodies, so far being the only majin able to travel outside of Jabber's body. If done correctly, the two can independently work together to get something done.

P2, P3: Unknown, Unknown: Prototype Majin = 1 of clubs, 0 of diamonds, 0 of hearts, 6 of spades.

An byproduct of both scorched and Legion's ability to draw abilities from other majins, this amalgamation of jabber is intelligent and disobedient. She doesn't want to listen to anyone, let alone her host body. You think she wanted to be like this? You think she wanted to be born? No way. Only friend is digitized majin, thinking that digitized might help her escape the body of jabber. In Part 3, she is revealed to be the only male nightmare, with a big vendetta against Nightmare Moon.

P2, P3: Darkish blue, Regular: Ling majin = 3 of diamonds, 2 of clubs

Ling majin is similar to faker majin, but instead of faking other majins, it fakes being an entirely different changeling. What a disguise! Female. The only discernible difference between Ling and changelings are the jaw, as ling's jaw is wider and shorter.

P2, P3: Dark Blue, Nothing: Scorched Majin = 7 of Clubs, 4 of hearts

Basically the Legion Jr. Not as evil as it's predecessor, but also not good. Usually only relies on physical strength, but in dire need, can extract power from all other majins. Existing for too long however, causes Scorch's, and by proxy Jabber's, neurons to fry, giving the titular name.. Wears ripped Jean shorts and has Jabber's shoes merged into it's skin.

P2, P3: Glowing Yellow, Spiral rainbow: Supreme Majin = King of Clubs, 8 of spades

A megalomaniac and egotistical golden being, the supreme majin is the definition of power. Literally spreading it wherever he goes, he oozes complete and total power, and due to this, he's a total jackass. He talks a big game, but he can usually back it up. He's not just brawn, he's also got some brain in him.

P2, P3: Plain, Dark: My Way majin = Ace of all

The My way majin is the most dangerous majin, and it isn't by choice. He just literally cannot exist in normal universes. Whenever he is spawned, you can immediately tell based on the body proportions, as all limbs, including neck, as well as torso are massively extended, minimum being 60' tall. As he exists, he continually grows taller, 2" every 5 seconds. If he isn't switched or somehow killed, he will unintentionally destroy everything around him, mainly by breaking laws of physics and logic, cause he shouldn't reasonably be able to exist. Notice how I said somehow killed, as it seems this majin doesn't seem to be able to feel or at least notice pain or fatal injuries. He's never summoned, nor is he ever seen until side stories.

Blurry Gray, Static: Blurry Majin = 23 of spades

The Rod sterling of Majins. Poetic, mysterious, and barely able to be seen. If choosing to, obviously based on the name, can make himself look like a smudge on a window, except the window is your eye. In this blurry status, it becomes partially incorporeal. He can pass through simple materials, but complex things, such as creatures or mixed material building things, he's just as physical as you and me. You might be wondering, what makes this the, "Rod Sterling?" Well, let's just say, he's quite a narrator.

Orange/Black, Glow yellow: Commando Majin = Jack of All

Complete with the twin laser pistols, this son of a gun is the definition of a warrior.

Tactically smart, Armed to the teeth, smart with people in general, and to top it off, he has some cool armor. Appears after Jabber takes a swig of Pinkamena's Wartime beverage.

Orange/White, Black: Artwright Majin = 5 of spades, 9 of hearts, ace of clubs, -3 of diamonds

A majin entirely based around the idea that no one is perfect. Hates people who think they're higher than everyone else, and so he gains more power when facing a "superior" being. With enough power, around the level of Queen umbra, his entire face becomes black with blue facial features. Cape is also now deep navy blue. Main weapon is a dual sided green diamond hammer and war ax.

Brown/White/Yellow/Red, Black/Blue: Jacket Majin = 7 of Clubs, 8 of diamonds, 8 of spades

Silent in all ways, this majin is an aggressive and angry delinquent. Proficient in every kind of weaponry, he's frightened by everyone he faces. Usually appears with a form of mask. Very rarely, does he not.

Scaly crimson, Pale/Black: Perdition Majin = Queen of Clubs, 9 of spades, 10 of hearts
What might as well be a majin made from legion, Miller, Supreme, Shape, and Prototype, this devilish majin is a definition of Evil in the nicest way possible. Sadistic in their ways, psychopathic with others, and with feeling joy and happiness in others sorrow and agony, heck they even munch up the agony like a 5 star buffet, this majin shows no restraint when they're called to the battlefield, yet can still find time for gardening and donating to charity. Appears with Tiny pupils and the old wind symbol emblazoned upon their chest. Can be either gender, and prefers not having one, but usually appears as female.

Black, Yellow: Damien Majin = 13 of stars

Basically a majin that takes the form of Pothead, aka Damien Lee's Gmod character.

Wears a green pot on his head, has a yellow skull mask, that good stuff. Oh yeah, he's also basically Absurde 2, cause he can do all Gmod shenanigans possible.

Relations

(Jabber to ?, ? to Jabber)

Part 1

Relations are weakened for Jabber after 6.

Luna: Eternally grateful and sees as a mother, Sees as a son.

Applejack: Uninterested in, Wants to capitalize on

Rainbow Dash: Evade at all costs, Her White whale

Fluttershy: Cares for, likes

Pinkamena Diane Pie: Empathizes, can reach out to, and helps with his plans to overthrow Nightmare Moon.

Rarity: Evade at all costs, Hunts for

Nightmare Moon: His long term enemy, Constantly sees his face in her dreams.

Tempest Shadow: Secretly helps, Secretly helps

Queen Umbra: Similar to Dream and Technoblades relationship

Leader Chrysalis: Fine with, Happy for the support

Other Characters

Part 1

Zelo Ring: A more of a cowardly pony who is scared of Jabber.

Scarlet Flame: Cutthroat Pirate Queen who sails around the lower half of equestria. Only appears in Part 2, Part 3, and Side-stories

Samael: Pony of Death, disguised as traveling lord. On good terms with Cadence and Gleaming in all (but the canon) universes

Judas: A Pony from centuries ago, who betrayed the sisters for a miniscule amount of bits. He was killed technoblade style.

Manage Miller: A Pony from over a millenia ago, and mostly blamed for Luna's transformation into Nightmare moon, which he was. A Psychotic and emotionless one, he harnessed nightmare and chaos magic so he could do whatever he wanted, and as part of the deal, he helped luna become nightmare moon centuries after his death, helped umbra take over the crystal empire, and helped Eris escape. Eventually, all sides realized that he was too much of a threat, and banded together to defeat him. Because of this, he is seen as a villain to everyone. He wasn't killed by a mortal, and instead killed by the sword of Damocles, an effect where someone with so much power eventually destroys themselves. Looks like Miller has learned his lesson though, and in Jabber's body, he isn't gonna mess up again.

Damocles: The Brother trapped in the sun. Killed by a dropped sword, and now watches over the sisters.

Mei: The Sister trapped in the sun. Ghost that was the reason Celestia and Luna were Alicorns. Watches over the rest of the world.

Part 2

Amadeus Blue: A snobbish noble who believes they're superior because their daughter is a princess, and their other daughter is powerful mage. While Princess bluebelle denounces her mother, she unfortunately has enough influence to corrupt the guard and get plenty of ponies to her side in the war. Why does she want to wage war? So her daughter can release her potential and become the most powerful mare on the planet.

Asmodeus Blue: Youngest daughter of Amadeus, and sister to princess bluebelle, Asmodeus is one of the most powerful mages on equis, rivaled only by the obvious. At 74, she releases all of her energy and becomes a Xenophanes style beast, with her mind and magic still intact. In this form, she's called astaroth.

Chaotia: A anarchist mare who believes in an idealistic future where there is no ruler, and will do anything to make that future happen. Cruel and merciless, yet still idealistic. Also, shes secretly a demon. Takes hold over Vanhoover.

Iris Prime: A technology nerd and overall egomaniac, this frail stallion believes in a world where everything is all robotic, and while he denounces all other sides, he himself isn't sure about his idea being perfect either. He realizes his idea sucks after one of his weakest robots turns his entire arsenal against himself.

Fatal Iris: The said weakest robot that uses the arsenal to empower himself and become one of the most powerful beings.

Inferno: An A.I created by Re-Animator majin from the brains of his victims. Similar to Jarvis from marvel, this A.I Will listen to any call from Jabber, and has control over the Furnace Suit.

Furnace: A power suit created by Re-Animator, Miller, and Digitized majins. Jabber is able to call upon it at any point. Built from damascus steel, this hunk of a suit is able to withstand most magical attacks and uses fire to both empower itself and function. At 74, Digitized is able to apply itself into it.

Mr. Genius: An A.I made by Fatal Iris in order to take control of Jabber, and gain his bountiful knowledge. Use Nightmare In Silver quotes Including Mr. Clever for

Part 3

Twilight Sparkle: Top of her class, and similarly to when she started her journey, extremely anti-social. Was never a Celestia student, but does now have random outbursts of magic she has to keep track of, as a result of not releasing them all during the test. At least she still has her old friend group. Has never met the rest of the mane 6.

AppleJack: Thanks to villain influence, became a massive icon in the world as the face of nutrition, which she absolutely is. Unfortunately, her honesty has nearly all but gone thanks to it going straight to her head. Works in Nightmare Studios.

Rarity: As seen in the bad future, became a servant of nightmare moon. However, not mentioned in the bad future, she wasn't doing this willingly. With her mind partially wiped, and her pills that she used to regulate her mind gone missing, she becomes the most willing servant yet. However, Perfected breaks through that barrier by reminding her constantly of the area the pills in her room are. Works in Nightmare Studios.

Rainbow Dash: Leader of the night guards, her loyalty towards nightmare moon knows no end. So much, she doesn't even think of herself as worthy, despite Nightmare's incessant saying that she is amazing. Only regret is killing Mick Nova, a random civilian in a fit of rage. She still gets nightmares about it. She's secretly only a lunar guard commander so she has a purpose in life

Pinkamena Diane Pie: A depressive artillery commander, her anxiety and regrets are usually too heavy for her to actually do anything in her position, and for good reason. Smart tactically and in weaponry, usually the one who makes breakthroughs in weaponry as well.

Fluttershy: Assistant to Princess Cadence in this world. Her kind nature still exists, albeit her shyness has been nearly advanced tenfold.

Celestia: Banished to the sun, she now relaxes with Mei and Damocles, watching over her sister.

Luna: Imprisoned by the nightmare, she's had...things done to her by nightmare moon.

Cadence: Thanks to the luna side of Nightmare moon, cadence still rules over the crystal empire and serves as a princess should.

Nightmare Moon: The monarch that's large and incharge, the nightmare moon of this world won in her return due to twilight never being a student of celestia, and took over all of equestria's ponylands as fast as possible.

Tempest Shadow: Commander of the legions of nightmare moon, Tempest shadow is a slightly merciful captain, but that doesn't mean you should be simple around her. Show her and all others higher respect, or get stabbed in the throat. Sometimes works at the Nightmare Studios.

Queen Umbra: Imprisoned in the nightmare dungeon, and broken out by jabber, she has a vendetta against Nightmare moon that she'll fulfill, even at the expense of her life. If she doesn't die, well, she plans to just retire. It's not worth the constant imprisonments and deaths to be the ruler of one area.

Leader Chrysalis: A Renegade now trying to care for a ragtag group of changelings, she has shed her previous title to become more humble and appealing towards potential rebels. Jabber joins with conditions.

Mesosoma: Another member of chrysalis' rebel group.

Trachea: Sister of Mesosoma, she'll put down her life to protect not only her, but the entire rebel group.

Switchblade: Lower thief and assassin in the rebel group, he gets his time of day whenever rainbow dash infiltrates the compound, and gets into a pretty neat fight. Jabber hands him controls for furnace for saving his life at the attack.

Ocellus: Aggressive yet still shy, this changeling is outraged at nearly everything in her way, but can never say so in fear of reprisal.

Alice Annexia: Another changeling, and while on the surface nothing more than just another one, near the end of the story, jabber finds out that this changeling is this universe's version of him. Not because she also has majins or the lab powers, but because of just how she acts and personality. While Jabber can't do much for her, he does give her a prototype for another mechanical suit...The Loader.

Command Miller: A female, and this universe's version of Manage miller. Appears in her demonic form near the end, but Miller majin, who has somewhat reformed, is able to take her out. She is him after all. Why couldn't she take him out? Simple, Manage is in Jabber's body, so he doesn't have the same weaknesses.

Gleaming Shield: Captain of infantry for lunar forces, she was given grace by Nightmare moon, and in return, remains a thorn in Jabber's side once again, all just so she and her family won't be harmed.

Mick Nova: One part of a resurrected duo that Re-animator, well, re-animated. Heavy on the bong and drugs, but thanks to the whole being dead thing, he only gets the positive. Comedic, lazy, and loves fuckin with people. Was killed by Rainbow Dash when she angrily threw a bottle straight into his head, and is understandably pretty pissed. When a zombie, the bottle is still there, and obviously, he's immortal. Before dying, he was an astronomer.

Pnub Almond: The second half of the resurrected duo. Idiotic, but courageous. Acts more like a bodyguard for the mares he finds hot. Was decapitated by Applejack after he claimed he slept with her. Surprisingly, he's not pissed off at all. Exactly as expected, he can move his head around anywhere he wants, and obviously, he's immortal. Before he died, he was a nut seller.

Quotes

Part 1

Single Quotes

Jabber

- A Cell, no matter how beautiful, is still a cell.
- I prefer Ace of Spades.
- You know, mythical is just a word.
- Changelings are a species I used to be. Keyword being used to.
- Since we're in the prospect of disowning, I hereby disown you as my mother, Chrysalis.
- Ugh, friendship is bugged. Can someone fix it?
- Everyone is special. I'm just more special than them.
- Imagine being part of a race that kills others. Oh, wait.
- sure why not.

- Sure Why Not.
- SURE WHY NOT.
- SURE WHY NOT.
- SURE WHY NOT.
- (In response to twilight saying “Their parents created them I guess”) I don’t wanna credit them for that.

Dextrous Majin

- おはようございます (Ohayōgozaimasu - Good Morning)

Absurde Majin

- Let’s cause some Tomfoolery
- Absurdity. The most powerful form of chaos.

Perfected Majin

- It smells like hot Stone, and tall grass
- It tastes like the world, sweet yet hot
- It feels like Solar chimes, and a Solar breeze
- It sounds like two siblings, chasing glass frogs in the sun
- It can look like anything, because it doesn’t decide what it looks like.
- That is all Purity is. Being pure of something. Doesn’t matter if it’s evil, greed, pride, kindness, wrath. If you’re pure of something, You’ll obtain it.
- Simple. The elements of Harmony are your purities...or more accurately, you’re the purities of the Elements of Harmony.

Royal Majin

- Jabber might not like his title, but I’ll graciously take it from him.
- I know a thing or two.
- Well then, we better put on our dancing shoes.
- Get off the throne Jester, the king sits there.

Judas Majin

- I’ll see through. What’s your deal?
- Tirek Gambit. It’s where the winner is given something of their choice from the loser. An object, a service, even a life.
- Remember me princesses? I would be surprised, but I guess the name Judas is a bit of a taboo, no?
- You two are so pathetic. How can you expect to have balance or power over the other when you don’t even know the other? When I try to take advantage of someone, at least I pretend to be their friend.

Hatred Majin

- I'm going to enjoy burning every part of your body off, and I'm going to enjoy making you enjoy it.

Obsessive Majin

- THEY DIDN'T LOVE YOU, I LOVED YOU! DON'T YOU GET IT!?
- I get it now...If Jabber is your coltfriend...and I'm not your coltfriend... THEN YOU'RE NOT TWILIGHT!

Lustful Majin

- Don't worry sweetie, I can show you a good time.
- Shorty

Matrix Majin

- It's simple. Literally anyone Should Be able to solve that.
- Come on Twilight. You should be smarter than this.
- I used to think everyone could be predicted, everyone could be simulated, like a script. But I forgot one major thing Luna...the universe can surprise you.

Alternate Majin

- You're an Undergoing risk.
- Nothing is worth the risk

Exalted Majin

- You have no business existing. Go back to your throne in hell, where apollyon himself can torment you.

Legion Majin

- Oh yes, of course I'll be back, there's no other way.
- The end will be here soon...very soon.
- I can wait.
- You'll bring me back of course. Who else would need someone so powerful.
- May Demiurge have mercy on your soul, cause I won't.
- I'll play along for now.
- ERIS WEPT

Miller Majin

- Oh yes, time indeed.

- Remember Remember, the name that be Miller
- Truths can hurt
- Princesses, please. If you destroy each other, who'd be on the front when I return?
- Of course I'd be back. Every big villain gets a second appearance, don't they?
- Me? Doing some form of heinous magic? Oh no my dears. In the years I've been banished from life itself, I've learned a few things. But the most important thing I've learned is that the most powerful force anyone can have, is simply, words.
- Visitors? How Quaint. Has Judgement day finally come?
- Meaningless.
- Orphan.
- False Savior.
- GOD. DAMN. COWARD.
- You are just as bad as ME.
- You are a CANCER.

Twilight

- Write them down, WRITE THEM DOWN!
- I...I knew you'd feel the same way.

Rainbow

- THAT WAS BUCKING SICK!
- So, how is it being in a relationship with a mutant changeling, ey twilight?

Rarity

- Think of the scandal! It would be just delicious...I said that out loud, didn't I.

Spike

- Hops up and down ALRIGHT!

Chrysalis

- I...I have many questions.

Manti

- How could I be Mad? I'm Proud...

Mesosoma

- I don't Love him! He's practically my Brother!
- You think that we were chosen to be weirder?

Trachea

- I'd buck 'em

Queen Umbra

- Alright then. Be careful though, Prince Jabber. You'll only have one chance to tango with me.
- I...I can't find a flaw. I find flaws in everything, including myself, yet, your plan is...faultless

Ocellus

- Are you sure we're normal?

Smolder

- Dope isn't even close to perfect to describe you.

Damocles

- I might be dead, but all I have is still alive.

Mei

- Ghosts might exist, but who cares. You exist, don't you? That's what matters. You exist now.

Cell

- And to think, after all you've done, you just ended up here and found me.
- To think, you won, and yet you somehow still lose. Classic.
- I saw how weird you are, and how you cheated out there. So, now you're here.

Jabber: Good Mythical Morning...

Multi-Quote

Queen Chrysalis: What do you want

Jabber: I think you know

QC: I assure you I (Is thrown off her throne)

Royal Majin: Get off the throne jester, the king sits there.

Jabber: It actually worked. Rainbow succeeded in science.

Twilight: It is snowing in tartarus.

Celestia: Well, what's wrong with my acting?

Jabber: A, prop comedy is not funny. And B, you charged everyone a two drink minimum!

Scotaloo: That's how they get you.

Part 2

Jabber

- When I said I was happy with this ending, I never wanted another story!
- What is this, a sequel?
- I...Like Cigarettes
- Please. Please just send them away from us! Murder them! Fucking... anything! Why am I ranting? I don't know. I should've ended this a long time ago. Fuck, that rhymed!
- You have no idea, how high I will fly.
- Look, I haven't toured the bourche bell, I'm not a comedian I'm just kind of an asshole.
- Look lady, this is supposed to kill us both, but this would not be the first time someone has expected me to die. So, you better hope you're just as good at this as I am.

My Way Majin

- This is what happens when you try to play GOD.

Re-Animator Majin

- I GAVE HER LIFE!
- Who's going to believe a talking head? Go get a job in a sideshow.
- What'll they do? Embalm us?

Digitized Majin

- I mean, I like to think I'm substantial
- I'm glad you resigned. We all would've died if he got his way.

Scorched Majin

- I don't want to be here long. I won't live long.

Hatred Majin

- Wow! You are such a bitch, you made me spawn in! That is an accomplishment and a half!
- Fire fueled by the 2 of the most powerful emotions, hatred and agony. Only the third could extinguish it, and, well, you don't, nor does anyone love you.

Multi-quote

Chaotia: WHAT ARE YOU DOING! NOW WE'RE BOTH GOING TO DIE!

J: It's to be expected.

Part 3

Single Quotes

Jabber

- Great. Usually the third story is the worst, so let's see if I continue the trend.
- Someone better catch that Catch-22.
- Think I could pass as royalty?
- Chrysalis, I hate you with every fiber of my being. I loathe every single moment I sense you in such a way, where I have an entire power just for my hatred towards you, and I want nothing to do with you. But, luckily for you, that's my chrysalis. So...Leader Chrysalis, Prince Jabberwock is at your service.
- Listen to me you sadistic mystic,
I'm about to go ballistic (Transfers to Jacket Majin)
- Heh heh heh ha, what's up bitches?
- God Damnit, why can't royal or matrix be here?
- (In order to lure Nightmare moon) On my most viewing of this film, it finally hit me. The princess of Equestria is the greatest work of art to ever be created. It's honestly impossible to do such an unexpectedly majestic work of genius justice with words but I'll try. This is the only film that feels like a completely uncompromised vision. A movie that tells the exact story it wants to tell without any executive interference. There's a large celebrity voice cast, and there's some comedic relief, yet neither of these detract from such a profound and sufficiently mature retelling of the story of Celestia. Nothing is sugar coated. Nothing is dumbed down or softened. It really is the best possible adaptation of this story. This movie uses the rich language of cinema to convey ideas and themes just through the visuals alone. It's tremendously profound for a movie intended for younger audiences. The songs range from great to phenomenal. Not a single bad track to be found. They contribute so much to the size and scope of the story, taking full advantage of the medium of acting in the process. Even the weakest song in the movie made my top 30 villain songs list. The characters are fantastic, with the growing rift between Celestia and Luna coming across as being so heartbreakingly genuine. The sequences and set pieces this movie shows us, from canterlot, to the freeing of the crystal empire, to everything in between do such an amazing job of immersing us in this grand tragic and profoundly Equestrian story. The princess of equestria is easily the greatest movie of all time. It isn't even close. Nothing will ever top this bold, risky, beautifully animated and acted, artistically driven, magnum opus of a film.

- (Interfering with the Lunar Empire's show) The Jabberwock interrupts this program for an important announcement. Don't bother watching the rest. Nightmare Moon doesn't take over; she only postpones her defeat. And while she postpones her defeat, you eat chips and watch her invert problems that you are too lazy to deal with. This show is part of a brainless desire to replace true experience with simulation. You don't talk, you watch her talk shows. You don't play games, you watch her game shows. Travel, relationships, risk; every meaningful experience must be packaged and delivered to you to watch at a distance so that you can remain ever-sheltered, ever-passive, ever-ravenous consumers who can't free themselves to rise from their couches, break a sweat, and participate in life. You want the lunar army to protect you, and make yourselves ever more powerless in the process. You tell yourselves you're being "looked after". That you're inches from being served and your rights are being upheld. So that the system can keep stealing from you, smiling at you all the while. Go ahead, send your army to stop me nightmare. And you viewer, grab your snacks, watch your screens, and see what happens. You are no longer in control. You never were, but now I am.
- Sometimes you just have to play the role of the fool to fool the fool who thinks they are fooling you

Miller Majin

- You don't seem to understand. Equis isn't yours to conquer.
- Oh, what do we have here? A gigantic, Soulless, alicorn infant, 2 War criminals, a bitchy celebrity, a mindless servant, one of the only good ponies left, and a student who doesn't know anything about being social. Well, let me introduce myself. I'm Manage Miller, and I'm going to teach you what you all failed to understand the first time I slaughtered you.

- Connection Terminated.
- This is where your story ends.
- House that Jack Built Quotes

Perfected Majin

- You must be so confused. About what you saw. Don't worry my little nightmare, answers will be given eventually.
- Don't try to solve this puzzle only with the pieces you have so far. This is only the beginning.
- I must tell you a story about a broken changeling. A beautiful changeling. One who wasn't bound by the laws we know about. One who can't think for himself.
- Safety in pills, rarity, Safety in pills, Rarity.
- (To Pinkie Pie) You feel so sorry, about what you did to them. But there's nothing you could do. Remember that.
- Lucky You.

Artwright Majin

- Whatever happened afterwards, no matter what nightmare Moon, you're a killer. You know it too. You're a murderer, no matter what has happened to you, no matter what you've done directly or indirectly, that doesn't make up for the fact that you have killed.
- We all have things we wish we had done differently...including me.
- Superiority is only relative.
- Supremacy is just perspective.
- No matter what, there is always someone stronger.

Perdition Majin

- Evil is a property that exists no matter what. Sorry nightmare moon, but your reign isn't even close to the evil and darkness that penetrates the minds of everyone on a semi-daily basis.
- I'm a fearful reflection of you nightmare. Or, no sorry, I'm a more handsome and more fearful reflection of you, and all the evil the permeates from you.
- Hush little pony, don't say a word.
Jabber's gonna watch this whole world burn.
So just relax and close your eyes,
Now it's time for you to...

- YOU ARE AN

HA

Mick Nova

- It's MIGHTY JOE BONG!
- So, there was this light at the end of a tunnel, but we figured, fuck it. Like that's really far.
- That's it?
- No one hits my killer but ME!

Pnub Almond

- GOOOOOOOOOAAAL!
- I feel like it was a bit of a rash decision, but I get why you'd just kill me right then and there.

Rainbow Dash

- You know, I'm starting to get fed up with my own mortality.

Nightmare Moon

- You think you can just waltz and take over?

Pinkamena

- Everyone needs a little somethin...

Rarity

- Darling, I'm sure you've heard some bells, but I assure you, that's nowhere near the worst thing that will happen to you.

Multi Quote

Mick Nova: So...how are you doing Rainbow.

Rainbow Dash: I...I'm doing...okay...

MN: That's good. You know, I'm not doing great.

RD: Yeah...I...I can see...

MN: Yeah. You know, I'm not exactly one to be mad at people. I mostly just smoke weed and bong most of my life. I'm chill, I'm not someone you'd just kill at the minute.

RD: Oh god...

MN: In fact, you could even say I was a friend to some people. Sucks that I was killed when I was only 17 years old.

RD: It...I...

MN: It also sucks for the person that killed me. They are right in front of me stammering.

Jabber: You know that can kill you, right?

Rainbow Dash: Oh, you're gonna rat me out are you?

Jabber: Relax, I'm a monster so I'll let this pass.

RD: Jee Thanks I...wait what?

J: I mean, if I did, we could probably get you help and make you an even better soldier, but if I didn't, well I might get something off my back.

RD: Wha-Shut up!

J: I mean, just imagine if Nightmare Moon found out one of her greatest soldiers cuts herself, or even killed herself? Or if Tempest found out? Or rarity?

Perfected: Your past is dark...

NM: Let me guess, but my future is bright?

Perfected: You have no future.

Perdition: Your Rage is a waste.

RD: Vengeance and loyalty is everything!

Perdition: But your family is lost forever.

Perdition: Ah, their deaths still haunt you.

Pinkie: Of course it does...

Perdition: I can work with that.

Perdition: Aren't you scared yet?

Rarity: Intimidation doesn't work on me.

Perdition: I'm not so sure...

Perdition: You pretend to be fearless.

NM: What could I possibly fear?

Perdition: FEAR ITSELF.

Perdition: I used to fear Commander Pink

Pinkie: You still should.

Perdition: No one fears Pinkamena.

Perdition: You seem to dislike being warm.

NM: My body prefers the cold.

Perdition: Imagine burning alive.

Queen Umbra: We have a mutual goal, and we're working together to get it done.

Jabber: Yeah, like, I'm not trying or pretending to be your friend-

QU: EXACTLY!

J: Yeah, we're not trying to be friends with each other, we're just teammates at best.

QU: Exactly! Thank you! You're not my friend, I'm not your friend, we're just ideal co-workers.

J: Yeah. Once we're done, we go our separate ways.

QU: Yeah...Yeah...that's what I want...

Nightmare Moon: Of course, as I would be scared of you.

Jabber (As a hacker): How many creatures have you killed?

NM: What? Where did that come from?

J: Answer the question. Not from order, not by accident, willingful killing directly from you.

NM: Only potential death would be my sister, but knowing her, she is burning alive for eternity if balance truly is a thing.

J: Only one? Surprising.

NM: Oh really? How many have you killed, if you're going to be criticizing me?

J: Five buried, Zero found.

NM: What?

J: I answered the question. Ever since I have arrived, 5 have been buried by my hands, and 0 have been found.

Rarity: Do you have any last words?

J: Yes. Hurry up you hoosier bastards, I could've killed dozens more as you were screwing around.

Rarity: Is that all?

J: See you in Lunaland.

RD: Seriously, is that it?

J: I'll let my lawyers do the talk for me. I'm ready to go.

Jabber: That's not advantageous.

Guard: S-Shut up! You're the one at gunpoint!

J: Yeah, sure, but here's the thing. Based on your armor, which I can tell is only plated gold, I can tell you guys don't spend a lot of money on this place, and I'd like to think that's the same as the walls. You've got hallow points in there? Doesn't matter. That bullet is strong enough to go through my skull, the wall, the vending machine on the other side, and at least two ponies of your underpaid treasury staff. Might I see that?

Guard: Oh, s-sure.

Jabber:...See? Now you've just given me the gun!

Command Miller: I Don't...I Don't Understand. I'm the Protagonist. How can this be the end?

Jabber: Please, you're done for. We won.

CM: Won...Won? Let me tell you. I've been sealed away for epochs, and yet, my influence, the culmination of my being, has leaked into your world. Go ahead and let me die. I will be back. I always-

Manage Miller: Shut up and die, you chromatic fuck. If you think you're the real protagonist here, you have not seen past your blind eyes. I brought you into this world by existing myself, I can take you out just as easily. Kills CM by slicing himself

Jabber: Woah. Miller...are...are you a good guy now?

MM:...Protagonists are usually good, right? Might as well start playing the part. Besides, I cannot wait until Celestia sees I'm good now, thinking I'm irredeemable.

NM: I am Nightmare Moon. Diviner of the Night? Nightmare Moon, THE RESURRECTED!?
EQUESTRIA. IS. MINE!

RD: Lord Queen, with respect, get off his throne.

Mister Mediocre, the hack of all trades

he's the master of none, since the start of his days, oh

Mister Mediocre, get on that stage and

Show us what you have today!

Ladies, gentlemen, and all in-between

Let's take a look at the star on your screen

It's mister Mediocre!

You all know him!

Coming back to whine about his stupid self-esteem!

BUT NO ONE CARES!

About his useless feelings

They might care if he's appealing
Honestly, he's just not good enough
(I wish I was good enough)
There are so many others more worth it than him
Because he's mister Mediocre, the hack of all trades
he's the master of none, since the start of his days, oh
mister Mediocre, get on that stage and
Show us what you have today!
mister Mediocre!
Come out and show us!
mister Mediocre!
Come out and show us!

MISTER MEDIOCRE, WHERE DO YOU THINK YOU'RE GOING?

You're really gonna ditch and miss a very important showing?
The one with all your previous accomplishments that make you
Seem so small now
Notice how your ego was inflated
Thinking you were so high and mighty
You thought your life was set but now you're Sitting at your desk just ugly crying
Thinking there are others more worth it than you Because you're mister Mediocre, the hack of all trades
he's the master of none, since the start of his days, oh
mister Mediocre, get on that stage and
Show us what you made today!
mister Mediocre, look at him now
he's a former hopeful soul and now a certified clown mister Mediocre, get off the ground and

Turn your desperate life around
mister Mediocre!
Come on, you got nothing to lose.
Come out and show us!
Come on, everyone will love you.
mister Mediocre!
Come on, you have got no excuse.
Come out and show us!
Or else everyone will know what's true

16: Misery helps Colurtara stand up and do what he wants instead. Lustful seduces the producer away and helps him to see how Colurtara actually feels, and gets him to accept the new plan.

24: when the Darkwater seeps into Jabber, Legion takes over his body. However, instead of causing mayhem, he attempts to disguise himself as the actual Jabber. Once Twilight is cured, he points out that Jabber also went into the water, and asks why he isn't evil. Legion reveals himself to everyone, saying that he will come back, and they will be the reason he comes back on purpose. Jabber is cured, but Legion is kept a secret from him.

25: Judas Majin makes his second appearance and makes a Tirek Gambit with flim and flam who haven't lost a poker game. Judas Majin loses, but wins when he points out that the brothers are revealed to have 2 of diamonds in place of their cards. The 2 are hesitant to help with the plan, but thanks to them making the gambit, the show continues as normal.

29: During the journey, Obsessive appears when Jabber is told that Twilight is gone. He also appears when he sees Twilight caught in the egg.

30: Jabber confronts Chrysalis on the top of the tower, and his rage is finally unleashed in the form of Hatred Majin. Chrysalis is burned alive, but doesn't die due to Changeling's anatomy.

32: During the Daybreaker Nightmare Moon fight, Jabber's spirit wafts in and turns into Judas to mock the nightmares and sisters, both of which have arrived in the same dream, saying they'll never know balance if they never know each other. When the nightmares attack, he turns into miller for the first time, mocking them further, saying if they don't work together, how will they defeat him again.

41: Jabber is chosen as another class teacher, that of being a "Special Studies." Unlike the mane 6, not only is Jabber liking this class, but so are his students, because Jabber is the new Michael stevens. Every class is a Vsauce1 video.

43: Obsessive's time to shine. Obsessive is confronted by the fake 6 and chrysalis. It doesn't go well with the more occupied party.

45: When appearing down in the basement in 45, Obsessive is surrounded by twilight imagery. The young six are creeped out by this and escape.

47: Once confronting Umbra, Royal majin engages in an actual dance with her, as they argue about how Umbra does things, and that it'd just be easier if he was more benevolent. In the end, he gives into how Royal explains things for her, and Royal becomes he mentor in the art of being a Ruler.

56: Once Legion is unleashed, by the good guys as a last resort, he claims they are all weak for turning to him, and that he knew they would. He does deal with the fearsome 3, but then claims that he is now their rival. However, before he can do anything, a strange monolith appears and chains him up, tearing at his flesh and causing him to yell, before any semblance of legion is gone, leaving a incapacitated Jabber in his place. Meanwhile, with the heroes, Cell appears and explains the situation, and how Legion will spend 9000 years in his serious room until he gets the hint not to cheat. Cell leaves, saying, "To think, he did all that, and it just led to me."

Epilogue: It is revealed that Jabber, tired from everything, is starting a recording station for this new thing called, "Radio." On it, it's basically a podcast version of Good Mythical Morning, with his co-host, Spike.

Bygone Purpose:

Part 2

57: As seen in Bygone Purpose, Jabber is transported into another alternate universe, this time, where a civil war has broken out in equestria, and twilight sparkle has been murdered.

60: Re-animator appears for the first time, and brings Twilight back to life, but leaves, allowing Jabber to explain everything to twilight.

62: Re-animator is put on trial for tampering with Twilight's coffin, which everyone on allies side thinks he's a total douche for. At the trial, run by the three princesses, and watched by twilight's family and friends, Re-animator isn't looking too hot, until his lawyer, twilight sparkle disguised as just someone else, arrives. Even with Twilight's help, he's still not looking great, until he screams, "I GAVE HER LIFE," into which Twilight chuckles, and reveals herself.

66: Furnace is finally in construction, and with help from Twilight, the three majins responsible for the construction of the mech realize what they need to build it. Iron. While it is questioned why iron, as it is not only extremely rare, but it also has near to no magic resistance, unlike gold. Digitized explains that if we can convert iron into a stronger material, condense it, and add a gold plating, it would be the strongest material ever made. Thus, iron is found, it's converted into steel, then converted into damascus steel.

68: Shape Majin first appears in front of Starswirl, and starswirl immediately notices the different demeanor. Putting 2 and 2 together, he calls for the princesses and mane 6 to follow him, where he explains that Jabber might have his former student as a new majin, and to be incredibly cautious around him whenever his eyes turn black and he starts breathing heavy. Also put in the Halloween theme here.

74: Scorched appears for the second time, but before he can deliver an effective blow onto chaotia, Blue faker appears in his beast form to take over. A fight breaks out between blue faker and scorched majins in jabber's body, attacking separate parts of the body.

79: A Battle breaks out between Asmodeus Blue / Leviathan and Supreme Majin. Fatal Iris joins in, but Digitized majin comes as an ally in his furnace form to take care of Fatal. Chaotia in her demon form also comes in as a last resort for the Central powers, but supreme and digitized are both smart enough and powerful enough to take them out. Or at least, they are until Chaotia starts siphoning Supreme's power. While Supreme doesn't feel it, cause he just continues making it, Chaotia continually become more and more powerful, eventually rivaling supreme as she still sucks his power off.

80: As Digitized tries to convince both fatal and leviathan to help the allies, Supreme continues trying to take down chaotia as she continues to grow in power and, well basically her D&D stats increase by 6 every minute. Eventually she grows to a large size and devours Supreme, although he's able to get out relatively easily. Celestia and Luna convince the ally nations of equestria to send their power to Jabber, but Chaotia just gets in the way, growing even more in power. Supreme resigns to chaotia, before suddenly, he uppercuts her.

"FAT CHANCE!"

81: As Chaotia laughs off the attack, supreme continues dealing blows along her side. We cut to a flashback where supreme and Digitized are strategizing, and it's revealed both knew that chaotia would siphon supreme's power. Digitized tells supreme to simply act dumb and continue fighting, no matter how powerful she becomes, saying Damocles will take care of it. Sure enough, the sword of damocles effect occurs in chaotia, completely fizzing out her powers. Plus, both fatal and leviathan have resigned, seeing how awful things have gotten, with Fatal wanting to save his kind, and leviathan simply wanting people to stay alive. Chaotia is sent back to hell, Fatal is powered down, with the promise of his robots staying alive, and Leviathan reverts back to asmodeus blue, now a reformed pony who, like bluebelle, completely hates her mother.

Part 3

?: During a broadcast interviewing Rarity about the Princess' (Nightmare Moon's) Recent Reclusiveness, Jabber interferes, hypnotizing the host, and rarity has to take the role of elastigirl and stop the interference. Afterwards, Tempest, Applejack, and Rarity plan to figure out who broke the signal by hosting another interview, then sending Rainbow Dash and lunar guards to the location where the interference occurred.

After ?: The next broadcast goes, and this time Jabber completely takes over the broadcast, doing his whole screenslaver monologue, and rainbow dash is sent out to find the interferer. Unfortunately for the nightmare studios crew, the message from jabber gets across without a hitch, and ponies start to question what they want in their life. Nightmare Moon plans a party to get people under her influence again. Jabber hears this.

?!: During said party, Vinyl scratch is lured to the back, where it's revealed that she is also in the rebellion. Vinyl agrees to be hypnotized to take blame off her, because whenever she goes back out to the stand, new glowing goggles over the eyes, the Hi-jack machine is activated and all non-main character ponies become, well, hi-jacked, mind controlled, hypnotized, whatever you wanna call it.

???: Rainbow Dash, in one last resort to defeat jabber, is given a small boost from eris that turns her into Supreme Dash, aka a fleetway Rainbow Dash.

After ???: Jabber uses his digitized powers to go inside of Rainbow Dash's mind. In there, he tries to help Rainbow Dash pull through her misguided mindset, but eventually he gets to the root of the problem.

Mythical Side-Stories

Just a small spin-off about what happened to the majins that were freed, and what they did after.

An Obsessive Corruption

A story about Obsessive's endless search for a twilight that will love him, but eventually he becomes a more likable anti-hero/anti-villain. This story is basically about Obsessive's journey's through creepy worlds. Obsessive in this story is much better at masking his insanity, and can match more towards a First half "Where was my hero," tails, rather than a Secret histories tails, and his insanity continues going down as he starts becoming a better person. However, his insanity can still bubble beneath the surface.

- Pony.MOV
 - Showdown between Fluttershy and Insane-Obsessive
- Rainbow Factory

- Pretends to be an agent and forecloses the Rainbow Factory. Rainbow Dash tries to intimidate him, and he, stoically, shows her the gun at his belt. She leaves quickly.
- Becomes a surgeon to surgically remove pegasi wings to save them from death. He tries to do the same with twilight, but the alicorn wings are built differently, to where he can't get rid of them without twilight going into clinical death.
- Smile HD
 - Obsessive catches pinkie like a fucking bird.
- Cupcakes
 - Twilight asks him for help, and he agrees for a kiss.
 - Exposes Pinkie Pie by chemically testing a cupcake brought to him from twilight.
- Rocket to Insanity
 - Rainbow Dash goes to plenty of doctors, including twilight, but nothing seems to help her. Then Pinkie Pie, being the fourth wall breaking menace she is, tells her to go to the clinic called, "Obsession with Medicine," while Rainbow is visiting.
 - Obsessive gives Rainbow Dash a medicine that allows for obsessives to manually control either rainbow dash or her mental visuals whenever she goes insane.
 - During one of Rainbow Dash's breakdowns, Obsessive peers in to see what happens. Unfortunately, the parasite notices, and quickly stops the panic attack. Double unfortunately for the parasite though, not only does Obsessive now understand what's happening, but he has close contacts with luna.
- Lunagame
 - Obsessive appears as a neutral force, mainly helping luna.
 - During the Pinkamena and Luna battle, Obsessive builds a furnace like suit for Luna.

This is my the Way

A story about My Way and Artwright showing others what happens when you try to play god.

- Alicorn Amulet AU

A world where Twilight donned the alicorn amulet to defeat tirek, but it was too late for the rest of the mane 6 (+ Discord and Spike) Leading to psychosis and tyranny in our favorite little purple alicorn.

- A rebellion starts to brew, which attracts the attention of our duo.
- Victorious Villains AU
- The Eclipse Kingdom

A world where Nightmare Moon and Daybreaker are the monarchs, respectively ruling over 2 sides of the planet, and both are at constant war with each other.
- The Kingdom of the Sun

A world where Princess Luna never existed, and Princess Celestia has passed on...at least she has physically. Her memory has evolved to such a degree that ponies actually believe that she is still alive, when in reality, a Celestia obsessed Chrysalis has taken her place.
- Classic Ending
 - During confrontation between the pillars and villains, Tirek is knocked out by the artwright ax, making the fight 2-7.
- Spirits of hell

A world where the mane 6 are possessed by demons, all of which are only planning on becoming stronger in their own ways. Protagonist would've been Spike, Shining, and Luna.

- Darkwater AU

In this AU, the evil 6 are more connected in their darkwater forms, and are able to work together to take over their respective land.

 - When the duo arrive, they are able to get Luna, Spike, and the CMC away from the chaos of the evil 6.
 - Doing some SCIENCE they're able to make the antidote, but twilight arrives, being the genius she is, and erases the minds of luna, spike, and the CMC. The duo gets away in order to work in secret, but twilight is suspicious that the 5 weren't alone.
 - Confrontation occurs, and the evil 6 prepare to use their elements of harmony on Artwright. Before they can though, My Way appears, scooping artwright, and making their way elsewhere. This leaves the evil 6 stunned, namely Twilight. Nothing should be able to be that large and survive.
 - The Final confrontation occurs, but just as the elements of harmony are going off, suddenly, the elements reject the mane 6, all conforming into an Ax that Artwright smiles at. He is now the element of altruism.

Seas of the Count, Captain, and Queen

Stories of high seas adventures with Royal, Captain, and Pirate Queen majin. This story reveals that Royal and Captain are indeed gay, and while royal doesn't play along, Captain likes pretending that Pirate Queen is their child.

R73: The Deviant Changeling

A Story inspired by Conner's story from Detroit become human, but it's really more of a conner mixed with Markus' story. R73 is a changeling drone who is the only changeling that is allowed to interact with outside nations, due to his complete obedience to anyone in a superior position. However, what happens when he starts to become someone that thinks for himself...well, let's take a look.

Characters

R73: The protagonist. He is a changeling who was found and delivered to the sisters, and he obeys their every command. However, until he was old, he was sheltered in the castle, and much like Connor, he is very unaware of social slang and customs, leading to the innocent changeling being the brunt of many a joke and attack. He is very loyal, is very proficient in all skills, and depending on the superior in the area, will obey any command given. Unlike almost all changelings, R73 does not have hivemind control, but his obedience still maintains the line. Gains many Alias due to his name being not a real name.

- Ratou (Informally; Princess Celestia and Luna)
- Seventy Three (Informally; Guards)
- Agent (Higher-ups)
- Arthur (Twilight)
- Ar-three (Rainbow Dash as a joke, but R73 liked it)
- Artee (Informally; Shining Armor & Cadence)
- Insect (Bigots)

Chapter Ideas

1: We start at an empty stairwell, as we watch R73 fly upwards like he's using it as an elevator. Throwing a bit around like Connor at the beginning D:BH, he uses this to practice his reflexes for his assignment. Once he arrives at the destination, guards escort him out of the stairwell, where he then observes the room and is told what the problem is. A Stallion is holding a filly at daggerpoint. While the guards are unsure of how to approach the situation, R73 starts casing the room, and notices the odd connections. The stallion is seen in multiple photos with the family, and by piecing together the scene, R73 knows what to do. Going up to the rooftop, he confronts the stallion, obviously overcome by grief and anger. R73 starts to negotiate, and the stallion asks him if he has a weapon. R73 says yes, and throws away his blade, increasing the trust between the two. R73 also motions guards away, further increasing the trust. R73 explains what happened. The stallion was the mother's bygone son, and he wanted revenge so he kidnapped his cousin, aka the filly. The stallion confesses that he just wants to be part of a family again, and that the filly took it away from him, but R73 explains that she had no part in this. Blame the parents, but not the child. The stallion, overcome with sadness, lets the filly go, and R73 retains him, promising he'll be part of a family again, but it'll take a while. We then see that R73 is currently being used by the sisters for problems that guards cannot handle by themselves, and not just crime problems either. R73's nature is also revealed, that he is the most loyal creature to ever be alive, closer to that of a robot than a creature. While Celestia and Luna pressure him to make his own decisions, he explains that he is simply a servant for all, and he likes it that way.

2: Starting in Season 3, we see the mane 6 gathering at the train station, when suddenly Twilight appears with R73 by her side. Obviously, at first the mane 6 are concerned, after all this takes place right after the changeling invasion, but Twilight explains quickly. The events before they leave for the crystal empire play out the same, but before Twilight leaves the throne room, instead of telling twilight she must do it by herself, Celestia and Luna assign R73 to protect her and her friends. Twilight is confused, knowing that she and her friends have dealt with worse, and they don't need a simple guard to protect them, but then R73 walks in, bowing before the princesses, who then introduce him. He accepts the protection of Twilight, changing his loyalty to now match Twilight, who finds him a bit creepy, thinking he might just be a robot, but she's fine with him coming along. Of course, Rainbow isn't too fond, but she keeps her thoughts to herself. On the train ride to the crystal empire, we see R73 playing with another bit like before, tossing and catching it in multiple ways. After the train stops, Shining armor appears from the snow, greeting the girls and R73. The girls are confused, and Shining reveals he's been working with R73 for 5 years at least, and leads them to the empire, with the usual events playing out. However, instead of Shining being cursed, R73 takes the hit, as Shining is registered as a superior officer to R73.

?: While staying at an inn, the girls decide to do a karaoke thing...or something. After a few turns of utter weirdness, the girls ask if R73 would like a try, saying make it good. R73 agrees, choosing "Sisters (Brothers) in arms," saying, "I've known this one for a while." Rarity questions this, explaining that the song is over 700 years old, and Pinkie accuses R73 of being a time traveler. R73 Counters, saying that Celestia simply has favorite songs. Taking the command of, "Make it good," too seriously, he absolutely blows it out of the proportion, transforming into Celestia and Luna during the performance, doing shadow puppets, and throwing his voice around to make the show amazing. The mane 6 are absolutely blown away, and ask him to do another one. R73 looks through the categories, and chooses "Wish you were here." While every starts out well, with R73 doing the same performance tricks as before, when the line, "Did you exchange a walk on part in the war, for a lead role in a cage?" R73 stops. This one line makes him realize how long he's been in a cage. While he does stop for a second, he continues the song, keeping the performance up. The girls congratulate him, but fluttershy noticed his pause, and knows something isn't right.

Another brick in the wall pt. 3

This little pup had given up
All out of luck, her heart struck
As the evil plays their little game
Such a tragedy!
And the world we knew was painted black
Now take it back, you attack
Just prepare your boots for an adventure
It's in the bag!

They made the gravest of mistakes
Doomed by the eyes of a snake
You must rejoice with your old chum
As you run and gun
Up in the clouds and on the ground
Inward bound, so profound
Make 'em pay the price for taking over
With the luck of a four leaf clover
Through the hill of apocalypse
You'll saturate this whole place with your magic horntips

Like an eternal eclipse you shine
So make it rain!

Sisters in arms, they will run
They color up the rainbow that bangs on the drums
The fable will prevail as our heroes travel far
In this cartoon universe you're a pest
Now put me to the test!

Our paths foretell of many heights on the ground or take flight
There's a problem dwelling over there
For those who even dare
For you see this cryptic renegade
With your friend, there's no shade
Will they face the big battle royale?
(You've got it pal!)

With fingers like projectiles

Make the boss infantile
These monsters hail from the dread
They've come to take your head
May God enlighten your road
May your journey behold
Try not to slip through the riverside
The weather brings hell to the tides
As the Devil would lick his lips
You overcome this homicide with your magic horntips

Like an eternal eclipse you shine
So make it rain!

Sisters in arms, they will run
They color up the rainbow that bangs on the drums
The fable will prevail as our heroes travel far
In this cartoon universe you're a pest
Now put me to the test!

"Ah, see the roulette spins,
You're seriously out of luck"
"Your soul was sold, and took the toll,
This is my hell you schmucks!"
"But the price you'll pay to end this day,
Sets challenges far and wide"
"For the time will come, your journey is done,
You found out I lied!"

What will we do?
Let's form our crew!
Let's bring this back to life!

Sisters in arms, they will run
They color up the rainbow that bangs on the drums
The fable will prevail as our heroes travel far
In this cartoon universe you're a pest

And when they both save the day
The tyranny will die
So they all swing and sway
Until the roll of film comes to a sudden end
The story descends into our history

Tincture: The Multi-Chromatic Changeling

Starting In season 3

(S) = Available at Start

(L) = Gained after Crystal Heart Discharge

- Primary
- Changes Skin color
 - White (S)
 - Default
 - No weaknesses. All attacks in any form don't leave any lasting impacts aside from normal pain.
 - Ex. Flames only leave burn marks, no matter how strong the flames actually were.
 - Red
 - Enhanced physical abilities, mostly in strength. Proficient in Crowd Control.

- Lots of Scars appear over skin. While this is cosmetic, these scars are weaknesses as they can be penetrated easier than normal skin.
 - Unlocked at
- Orange
 - Complete control over 4 Basic elements (Earth, Water, Fire, & Air) Only one can be controlled at a time though.
 - The user is not at all immune to any element, and can be injured by their own elements.
 - Unlocked
- Black
 - Immense speed and strength. Allows for night vision, super hearing, and echolocation.
 - Eyes are red no matter secondary.
 - Cannot speak in this form.
 - Unlocked at
- Blue (L)
 - Intelligence skyrockets, passing even Nezu's Intelligence, allowing the ability to play 7D chess irl. However, most physical abilities are lowered, basically giving the user polio.
 - Arms are replaced by tentacles.
- Green (S)
 - Enhanced traversability, most likely because of the gained ability to fly, float, or glide. Highly enhanced Stamina and Agility.
 - Due to the gaining of wings, this also decreases speed while not flying and increased hitsize. However, it also means that these wings are now also connected to the user, so if these wings get injured, so do the user.
- Grey
 - All contact or damage on exterior, including Powers or not, no matter the force or essence included, feels like a tap from a finger.
 - Due to the user basically turning into steel, this decreases the mobility of the user significantly.
 - Steel plates line the skin as a cosmetic. Eyes are green no matter secondary.
 - Unlocked in
- Purple (L)
 - The user can dig through any material with no issue, and can come back to life on death. He also gains the abilities of Stubbs the zombie.
 - Skin is broken on various areas, and skull is slightly exposed, but this does not cause pain. It could be used to kill the user easier however.
- Yellow
 - Also gaining the ability to fly, the main part of this ability is the "Connection" Ability. This ability allows the user to gain the ability of one person, and the person also gains the user's current abilities. These last as long as Yellow lasts.

- Think of this version of flying as the Fledging wings to Green's Solar wings.
 - User gains a Halo (Good) or Horns (Evil) depending on who is being connected with.
 - The mentality of the user and the connected can be merged if held for over an hour.
 - Unlocked after
- Secondary
- Colors change Hair, eye, fingernails, and inside of mouth unless stated.
 - Starred
 - Grants a barrier that only breaks on an immense amount of power. Blue enhances the ability.
 - Once broken, the star appears 12 hours later.
 - A Star appears on the forehead.
 - Unlocked at
 - Pink (L)
 - All melee attacks launch projectiles that explode from the ground up. Blue enhances the ability.
 - The user must be in contact with the ground in order for these projectiles to appear
 - Veins glow pink through skin.
 - Dark Blue (L)
 - Grants a shield that protects against danger, breaking over time, as well as a surge style attack that erupts from the ground.
 - The user must be in contact with the ground in order for the surge to appear.
 - Once broken, the shield reappears after significant damage to the user.
 - Horns are grown.
 - Frosty
 - Attacks can freeze opponents in time. Green enhances this ability.
 - Unlocked after
 - Appearance is similar to that of Frostbite or Hypothermia victims. This does not effect the user by itself, but can kill or injure the user easier.
 - Darkened (S)
 - Attacks can weaken opponents severely.
 - This in itself weakens the primary and alt secondary.
 - Primary color is darkened down.
 - Glitter (L)
 - Grants both self teleportation, and teleportation of others.
 - 5 Minute Cooldown
 - Multicolored
 - Dark Green

- Physical contact disables magic Powers for as long as the contact is for + A time set by the user.
 - Using Dark green nullifies the primary used, unless Yellow has already connected with someone.
 - Unlocked at
 - Some skin is exposed, revealing Dark green flesh and glowing green veins. Unlike other forms, this actually benefits the user, as it is much tougher than normal skin and flesh.
- Brown
 - Allows for the manipulation of the emotions of others...or yourself.
 - Unlocked at
- Kaleidoscope
 - The user can create illusions and delusions in the minds of others.
 - Unlocked at Final exams.
 - Eyes are that of kaleidoscopes, reflecting what is in vision back. This limits the user's vision.
- Meta (Holographic) (S)
 - While active, makes the user entirely incorporeal. Nothing can be felt by the user, but nothing the user does affects anything else.
- Stained (S)
 - Life force can be drained from those attacked. On occasion, the user's body can drain the energy from itself, causing fatigue or worse for a minute or more.
 - Stains line the body all around.
- Crimson
 - Rapid Hyper-Regeneration, to such a level, a limb can be grown back in 8 minutes.
 - Inside of the body looks similar to the inside of Demons from Demons Slayer (Red Abyss)
- Colossus
 - Rapidly increases the size of the user, as well as strength and vitality, but slows severely.
- Behemoth
 - Rapidly increases the speed and look of the user, looking wild as all hell, as well as strength and vitality, but intelligence suffers.
- Crazy
 - Enhances the primary significantly.
 - White
 - Not only is resistance against all forms of attack are increased, but vitality is also multiplied 5 fold.
 - Red
 - Grants a Charge ability, where you can stockpile energy and release it in the form of an attack, whether it be a fist, a kick, or a headbutt.

- Orange
 - Increases control, but also allows for the creation of the element.
- Black
 - While Speed is active, time can be slowed down if the user so chooses.
- Blue
 - Foresight is granted.
- Green
 - Massively increased stamina and attack power.
- Grey
 - Weaknesses are pointed out through the eyes of the user.
- Purple
 - Purple is now considered a Secondary by the body, and another Primary may be chosen.
- Yellow
 - Power that is being connected with is now boosted.
- The longer crazed is in effect, the more the sanity of the user lessens. Sanity is restored overtime once Crazed is removed.
- Prismatic (G)
 - Basically the divine relic from Cuphead. Combines all Primaries and secondaries and switches between them all at random intervals. These primaries and Secondaries are enhanced however, in simple and complex ways.
 - Simple

Simple merely upgrades how effective the ability is.

 - Red
 - Orange
 - Black
 - Blue
 - Green
 - Purple
 - Starred
 - Pink
 - Dark Blue
 - Frosty
 - Kaleidoscope
 - Colossus
 - Behemoth
 - Crimson
 - Complex
 - Grey

- Body is completely remade into steel, converting the weight accordingly, basically activating a metal box from ssmb.
- Yellow
 - Connection can be performed on 3 people.
- Glitter
 - Teleportation can be performed at and from any range on anyone wanted.
- Darkened
 - Attacks don't just weaken, they completely cripple the area of impact.
- Dark Green
 - Nullification can be done without physical contact.
- Meta
 - Literally anything can be done in Meta form, but with it being all holographic, it doesn't really matter.
- Stained
 - Basically, you're tirek stealing magic.
- Everything is literally just changing color like it's in the color run.

Calamitous Misfortune

Sort of a “What if...?” story about if a character like Milo Murphy was in the MLP universe, and was a friend of

Discord's Mod

Discord's Mod

Eris decides to retire as the lady of chaos, and picks another discord to take her place. However, this discord is happily not going to do that, so he picks a random pony, named Zelo Ring, to take his place. What was not in the contract was he would take his place right after her return, but nor was bringing Eris back from retirement.

Forms

These forms are not just Zelo putting on a disguise. Early on, around chapter 3, Eris witnesses that Zelo is seemingly knocked out, a green fog seeps out of his mouth, and 4 ponies start to compose from the fog. Eris explains that due to Zelo being a pony, not a draconequus, his body cannot fully handle chaos magic.

(#) Order of Appearance

Zelo Ring (0) He/Him

A 17 year old, darkish blue maned and polished gray furred unicorn, and now the new lord of chaos, and outside of his chaotic state, very timid, but very situationally aware. Might as well have foresight cause he evades being caught as the lord almost every time.

Maledicted Curse/Evil Genius (1) He/Him

The 34 year old loudmouth and unlikable evil genius. Maledicted initially is formed under the guise of a crotchety and rude neighbor in The Ring, but eventually turns into an Austin Powers-esque and super-dramatized supervillain, known as Evil Genius, and completely out of Zelo's control.

Liston Splint (4) He/them

Egotistical and boisterous, yet well meaning and kind, this doctor is the strangest, yet best you'll meet. Literally, he's the best surgeon in the MLP world. The 25 year old might have an ego the size of the sun, a pension for fights, and hold a very high bar to his assistants, but he admits his mistakes, and does it all out of the goodwill of his patients, even if he acts like a rockstar whenever he's performing his operations. He's a nice guy, but he keeps losing his patience. Oh yeah, he's also 7'5" and more jacked than Big Mac and Shining Armor combined, despite being nowhere near as large in general.

Bulwark Anvil the Heretic (1) He/Him

A 15 year old supernatural blacksmith, and the owner of the bulwark trials tournament. While never seen in person, always relaying his message over a megaphone, Bulwark simply looks like a smaller Zelo with an inverted color pallet, and when I say smaller, I mean a lot smaller.

Harmonic Resonance (1) They/Them

A 19 year old shy and nerdy music pony. Knows how to play every instrument and knows how to make them as well. Not only that, but they are capable of bringing the instruments to life for their performances.

Concord Dissonance (1) He/Them

HR's alternate Persona, brought out by Maledicted's meddling. While HR is shy, nerdy, nice, and occasionally obsessive with his music, CD is masochistic, extravagant, dramatic, egotistical, and incredibly obsessed with his work, so much he'll do anything to continue it. He also refers to HR as a lesser form of him.

Ghastly Astonish (4) He/Him

Basically if Dr. Facilier wasn't a bad guy. A 20 Year old earth pony with "Friends on the other side" (Chaos Magic) that runs the signature voodoo parlor. Not to mention he's also the brother of Liston Splint. Ironical the fields they went to. One is treating your physical health, and the other is treating your spirit.

Full House (1) He/Him

Essentially the MLP's Robert E. House. Owner of the Badlands' sanctuary, The Charming 22, Full is best described as a heart and mind of gold, and eyes of it too. He'll give you the safest and most luxurious place ever, as long as you can pay the rent.

Professor Omniclass (1) He/Him

The Dean of the Stupendious School of everything, Omniclass is likely one of the most well knowledgeable ponies in all of equestria. Even if he can't perform everything that his school teaches, he can still be a stand-in to any of his school's teachers.

Fowl Day (2) It/That

Literally a goose. There is no more to say. You meet any goose, you'll know how fowl day acts.

Game Science (3) He/Him

MatPat if he wasn't insane, but just as excitable as Pinkie Pie. Whenever Zelo makes Game Science, he also makes a whole lot of games to go along with it, and while most ponies don't notice the sudden surplus of video games due to barely any gamers existing, Button Mash does notice. However, Game Science speaks to all gamers with his inert gaming charisma and meme ability. Also catches the eye of Twilight Sparkle due to his actual intelligence.

Major Part (3) Xe/Xim

By Day, xe's a major film star, taking Colutura, Photo Finish, Fluer de Lis, and many others off their pedestals with xis seemingly perfect acting voice and abilities. By night though, xe's Maledicted Curse's right hand Xam, and easily the most charismatic pony you'll ever meet, even if xe has a temper whenever things don't go xis way. Xe's only motivated by fame, and what's a better fame then world domination?

House Flipper (3) She/Her

Exactly her name, House Flipper is the best in the business when it comes to renovation and improving your house. Just don't expect her work to be safe, or quick, or consistent, or logical, or safe. There's always room for improvement, and you didn't need those load bearing walls anyway. Also best friends with, and maybe more, with Fresh Coat.

Entropy (2) Xe/Xim

The closest to Discord anyone of these will ever get, this maniacal megalomaniac is the most chaotic and insane form Zelo has. Basically a mix of Freddy mercury, Coconut Fred, Expunged, all in a blender that was cell shaded, then blended with some salt. Constantly rambling, changing perception, and completely indifferent to good and evil, Entropy is an annoying and incredibly infuriating character, however, you can't hate them. They're a child at heart, and they are well meaning in his chaotic endeavors...well, not really, but they at least try not to harm anyone.

Chapter Ideas

1: Prologue

7:

8: Rarity asks for a couple of accesories, but Zelo accidentally put the reality stone in the ruby's place, Space in Sapphire's, Power in amethysts, Soul in citrine's place, Mind in Yellow Topaz's place, and Time in emerald's place, and they went to Pinkie Pie, Rainbow, Applejack, Fluttershy, Twilight, and Rarity respectively. He notices whenever the gauntlet -6 stones are still in it. Hijinks ensue as he tries to get the accessories back without the girls realizing. Eventually during the make-up gala, twilight with her mind powers and fluttershy with her soul powers realizes that

Zelo has a crush on rarity. They confront him, but zelo thinks it's because they know he's the new lord of chaos, so he skedaddles, forgetting about the stones in the process. When everyone goes to sleep at midnight, he sneakily takes the stones back, replacing them with the gemstones they're supposed to have. Twilight is confused, but chalks it up to divine magic, thinking it was supposed to bring rarity and zelo together, and that they failed. Obviously, she goes nuts trying to redo the magic, to no avail. She tells fluttershy to keep it a secret from the other girls.

9: Zelo thinks about these new characters that are essentially coming out of him, and decides that he might need to worry about them. Entropy is at the top of his list due to him basically being a less restrained Eris, and decides to turn his form into that of Eris, as it's not like he had a logical form beforehand. While his personality can't be changed, Entropy seems to just kind of go with his new form. Meanwhile, Fowl Day he just sends off to a apploosa, but then he can't decide to do with his more normal characters. After conversing with Eris about what to do, and considering none of them have awakened yet, he decides to implant memories into them, and send them of to a neighborhood he made known as the ring, with houses made from the Tool gun's Paste option. We stop watching Zelo ring for a second, and turn to Harmonic Resonance, the first to wake up. His memories is that he's lived here for 4 years, in his Breathing house, the same applies to his neighbors.

12:

13:

16: Zelo does some MAGIC and makes it so he is now the main jeweler for the canterlot wedding. It'll not only drive his business, but it'll give him a chance to play the hero, as he knows exactly what is going to happen. Then he realizes he, not only has never met cadence, shining armor, or celestia, but he also doesn't know who chrysalis is disguised as.

17: Thanks to using the Mind stone, and after quite a few tries, Zelo figures out that Chrysalis is disguised as Cadence, and he very slightly panics. Using his soul stone, he gets on good terms with shining armor and is invited to his bachelor party, along with spike. While Spike is curious how Zelo got invited, due to him stating he barely knew shining, he isn't going to pass up a chance with Zelo. The party goes well into the night, and Zelo, upgrading his sneak ability, walks into the hall to work on his abilities, but a changeling finds him. However, before the changeling can get a jump on him, Zelo senses them with his soul stone. He quickly learns everything about the changeling with a soul and mind combo, finding out all the details in the other character section for the changeling, and separates the connection between the changeling and the hivemind. This paralyzes the changeling, and he uses the space stone to transport it to somewhere safe. Meanwhile, Chrysalis senses this separation, and gets out of her bed, walking around, disguised as Cadence still, looking for what could've caused a separation. The last thing the changeling said in the hivemind was, "There's a pony with a strange stone-." Going off of this, she walks around, and she finds Zelo, but she knows something is up due to the magic remnant around him. Quickly, she finds out that Zelo has more power than any normal pony, but before she can do anything, the mind stone comes in clutch, erasing her memory of both the changeling and Zelo, and the space stone transports her back in bed as Cadence. Zelo walks back into the party, and strikes a conversation with Shining and Spike, asking leading questions to make them figure out that Cadence isn't who she says she is.

18: Shining tries to confront "cadence," but she just activates the mind control earlier than expected.

20: This is meant to be the Eris reformation episode, however, due to Zelo instead having the chaos magic, and Eris being on vacation, instead the Entropy turned Eris is the target. It uh...doesn't go as planned. Unlike Discord/Eris, who at least have some form of heart and emotions, Entropy's only goal is to cause chaos. They can live with or without anyone by his side. So instead, they just make a deal with Entropy. He doesn't affect any populated areas, and clean up their mess afterwards, they won't go out of their way to find them and imprison them.

?: House Flipper is employed by Princess Celestia to redesign her and Luna's quarters. Neither are prepared for Flipper's absolute insanity.

Beginning of Season 5: Because of Starlight being reformed before her fascist regime goes through, the cutie map doesn't navigate them to equal town. Instead, the map, being a little cheater, calls them to a new area, known as the ring, inhabited by the resident in the locations menu. The Mane 6 arrive, but they still don't know why they were called there. Harmonic is happy to see his friends again, and very eager to show them his house, as well as introduce them to the The ring. Scutellum doesn't care much, but does welcome them, and Liston welcomes them in his usually egotistical manner.

##: Harmonic continues the tour, going to Luna's Junkyard, AKA Ghastly Astonish's place. This is where the "Friends on the other side," bit, and Astonish accidentally turns Fluttershy into a gecko, but she doesn't seem to mind. Ghastly apologizes, saying to come back tomorrow and he can fix it. Afterwards, they continue, but everything stops when they come to Maledicted's house. Harmonic explains who lives there, and that he tried to walk in to meet him once, only for the resident to kick him out before he even got to a couch. The mane 6 are suspicious.

 - Fiend like Me

Tune into your favorite station
Peruse any news publication
See the state of the states and nations
Corporations, inflation, invasions
Well, I say that they could take some Intercontinental consolidation
One flag emblazoned with my face on
And I don't plan on an application

Introducing villainy squared
Just your standard reclusive trillionaire
With a maniacal air and a violent flare
Vibrant tyrant enshrined in a stylish chair
You can find me there on my flying lair
Where the sirens blare, as I stride in striking fear
With the slightest glare, I'm not fighting fair
Step aside for the frightful heir

So you'd better get to polishing your white flags
I've a plethora of monuments to hijack
Shrink the Castle, use the columns as a spice rack

And enveloping the villages in a flytrap
Minions all over my map
Turn your dominion into a nice back
Yard for my kingdom, your income might lapse
Might have to squint at the price on the ransom price tag

You know, I've just realized this dotted line around the globe is supposed to be the Equator
I always thought of it as more of a "cut here"

If all the world's a stage, then I shall play my part
You may say it's cliché, but I say that it's an art
Every deck needs a knave to come and stack the cards
The world may be yours to save, but it's mine to tear apart
One spell is all it takes to set Equis a-quaking
Or is the world afraid and the planet started shaking?
You'd need tectonic plates to serve the schemes I'm baking
And the menu for today is some world domination

I'm the meanest genius scheme unfurler
Genius steeped in burglars, murderers
Fiend Weekly's champ moustache twirler
I cheated, I used curlers
Yes, my amusements bamboozle
A glamorous ruse to confuse all
Your plans to tamper and snoop
You're delusional

Can't see no scheme while you're schmoozing my valets
Casino screen obscures my base
So if you don't want a day to rue, let's
Just play some roulette, forget the backstage
But if you do sleuth through to my sanctum
I've a few new tools here to have fun
Like a tank full of pony-eating plankton
Or a smooth henchpony with a handgun

So whilst I'm busy dislodging Hockway
You'll spend all day dodging my saw blades
Raising my Pinball scoresheet
Freak in the broadsheets, Great Trixie in the hallways
Stay between the laser beams
You still won't make it face-to-face with me
Your agency just paid you to take
A vacation in my interrogation seat

One wrong step in my bullion vaults
And you're gonna be met with a billion volts
But if you do pocket any ill-gotten profits
Then I'll dock it via rocket from the minion at fault
My management skills are uniquely stirring
When lacking in diligent, measly servants
Having one killed with the team observing
Works magic on building the weak's subservience

See, I think I'd make a perfect leader. I'm very hands-on
And by that, I mean my hand's on this big red button that may or may not do something terrible to the Moon's gravity
Don't worry, I'll write you a lovely orbit-uary

If all the world's a stage, then I shall play my part
You may say it's cliché, but I say that it's an art
Every deck needs a knave to come and stack the cards
The world may be yours to save, but it's mine to tear apart
You secretly live below my laser-mounted space station
You may need to think it over, but if I get bored of waiting
I'll be beaming tic-tac-toe between the borders of your nations
Want to keep the Griff Plateau? Then give me world domination

I've minions poised and entrapped informers
Villains exploiting the map's four corners
Off to deploy my outlandish orders
Warrants are void, international waters!
If I steal her bling, do I have to wait
For the Solar Princess to abdicate?
Shrink rays are aimed, so why raze the place?
Turn your famed locations to paperweights

Now your monument's stored in a portable size
Does my offer seem more of an affordable price?
Your monarchy's nice, but you ought to comply
Or I'll alter your mind via the water supply
Report's coming live of a sort of device
That authorities describe as an orb in the sky
It's absorbing the light and distorting the ice
'Til your tenth-story palace is caught in the tide

Forces of justice ought to give up
'Fore I bore through the crust and get awfully destructive

Force down your government's doors, then I'll bust in Awesomely scored by a chorus of trumpets
Rulers you foolishly trust to prevent my ascent
Just uselessly buckle and bend
If your throne ever feels too comfortable, then
Remember, all good things come to an end

If all the world's a stage, then I shall play my part
You may say it's cliché, but I say that it's an art
Every deck needs a knave to come and stack the cards
The world may be yours to save, but it's mine to tear apart
That stylish new telephone, home appliance sensation
Rewrites your genetic code every time the tone is playing
So I'm sure to get your vote for my new administration
Detonator's set to blow for some world domination

- Liston Splint
 - Losing my Patients

New day and I'm raring to start
Okay, let's look at your chart
New spleen? Cool beans, pretty routine
But what say we take a look at your heart?
It seems we're fresh out of spleens
But that won't matter a smidge
'Cause I've sent Milo to see what we have got in the fridge
These kidneys won't keep
So while you're blissfully sleeping
I'll throw some in for free, a little treat in your treatment

So you say you wanna be my patient?
Well, go ahead and make my day
Open up so I can feel your heartbeat
I wanna get inside you in a good way, hey
You ate it hard for breakfast
Baby, now you're scrambled eggs
Hey man, I'm gonna fix what's broken
I wanna get inside you in a good way

You might find a shrub for a lung, unlikely
Nurse misheard me when I asked for an IV
At least try three, had no cats on your CAT scan
What were you expecting when you asked for a trans-plant?
We soon gave up with the tracking the rates of patient survival

'Cause I am psych-i-opathic as I am homeo-cidal
We heard it's hip to recycle so now your hip's a bicycle
And we replaced your slipped disc with this record on vinyl

Digging through your small intestine
Gonna give you what you need
Sauerkraut and poor digestion are my two least favourite things
I wanna cut you open and take you apart
And put you right back together again
Eye for an eye and an arm for a leg and a pickle for an arm
Hey! What's that doing in there?
Oh, you say you got a bad kidney, I'll put it in its place
Open up, I wanna cure what ails you
I wanna get inside you in a good way, hey
Well, I'm a second-class sawbones but baby, that's okay
Come on, I'm gonna fix what's broken
I wanna get inside you in a good way

Day four of my medical residence
There's organs to jettison and the morgue needs some specimens
Hippocratically negligent like I'm hacking at venison
There's a reason it's called "practising medicine"
So I'm excited to make your acquaintance
In the waiting room I've made in my basement
'Cause I crave the sensation of your brains in my waste bin
I'm a nice guy but I keep losing my patients
If your internals have curdled and need some surgery urgently
It must be an emergency if your GP refers to me
I'm certain you'd prefer to see some nerd from university
Earned their degree deservedly
'Stead of free when they purchased the "Learning Surgery DVD"
This infernal infirmary, there's a quirk in your circuitry
We'll work on it externally
Pretty soon you'll be surfing the one way gurney to purgatory
All aboard to absurdity, anaesthetic's a courtesy

So you say you wanna be my patient?
Well, go ahead and make my day
Open up so I can feel your heartbeat
I wanna get inside you in a good way, hey
You ate it hard for breakfast
Baby, now you're scrambled eggs
Hey man, I'm gonna fix what's broken
I wanna get inside you in a good way

Welcome, students to Two Point U!
 This campus we've established to point you
 Down the path of academia and viewpoints new
 And there's a chance that you will leave here as employed, too!
 We're certain that the circumstance could use a little pomp
 With learning, you can turn your hand, just choose the skill you want
 The young mind needs a-molding and we do it with aplomb
 Though no one ever specified just what to mold it from

Every course, of course, has been meticulously planned
 Though standard Maths and Science is particularly bland
 So, pick from our curriculum of kitchens, crypts and bands
 You won't find a diploma simply digging in the sand!

What's that? Oh, they will? Ah, Archaeology, right, yes, we do teach Archeology
 In that case, you might want to start digging for that diploma now, before it starts to compost

*Would the teacher's pet please report to the nurse for microchipping and deworming
 Thank you!*

We're best in class for espionage, the course is sure to thrill you
 But if I told you where it is, of course, I'd have to kill you
 Embark upon the darker arts if morbidity fulfills you
 Our dungeon's rather wonderful with all authentic mildew
 There's jousting in the grounds, see them gleaming in their chivalry
 There's pizza in the kitchen, inconvenient for delivery
 Or come improve your subterfuge and scheming for the ministry
 And rest assured our Wizard School is big on inclusivity

Ah, young Mr. Toasterpastry, come in
 I'm afraid I've called you to my office to talk about how you've been conducting yourself in the Music Lab
 You see, you're supposed to use a baton

Here at Two Point Campus, where our mind's put to the test
Our scores in class stil can't surpass our piling student debts

*Would a Mr. Danger, on the Deep Undercover Spy course, please be aware that your mother is at the office with your packed lunch
This tannoy will now self-destruct*

Greer? Here
Pleasant? Present
Glendenning? Attending
Samson? Absent
Hardy? Tardy
Tate? Late
Glover? Undercover
Drake? Baked
Connors? Slightly fossilised
Sorry, I apologise
Ustinov? Goofing off!
And Robinson's robotified
Have we got a Gideon?
Just pondering oblivion
Hurst? I'm a little cursed
But William's amphibian
Hammam and Stately?
Ran out of battery
Cormack? On horseback and galloping gallantly
Pickering? Pickling
Coombes? Entombed
Hirshall? He's virtually trapped in normality
Higgins? Digging
Emily? Napping
Wrinkler? Tinkering
Gregory? Rapping
Owens and Cleese?
Throwing some cheese
Duncan flunked and that only leaves
Llewllin Mayhew Matt O'Grady Baudelaire Phipping Tim Matthau Witherspoon?
He fell in a huge vat of gravy, but they are fishing him back out with a spoon!
...The Fourth?
...and fork!
Eugh, I'm just going to put "absent."

Here at Two Point Campus, we've got straight A's through the roof
Though we're acutely aware that our degrees are quite obtuse

Students are reminded that, though we are contractually obligated to encourage you to follow your dreams, that does not excuse falling asleep in lectures

Thank you!

We're here to paint the future and now you can be the canvas
In that you'll be hung out to dry as soon as fees are handed
Zoology? Neurology? We muddled up the pamphlets
We tried to hire Pavlov's Dog, but built a Hippo-Campus

We've scientific instruments, so come and get involved
Though one horrific incident Chemistry club dissolved
The canteen's packed with ten foot stacks of huge profiteroles
And a little dairy derring-do and you could win the gold (Go, team!)

Other faculties can grapple with the boring and uncomical
Our methods are methodic and we've taught the tautological
The courses may be dangerous and harm is very possible
You're fortunate we're neighbours with just far too many hospitals

Good afternoon, class!
I'm glad to see you're all here to hand in your invisibility assignments
Or I'm in the wrong room
Yeah, this is camouflage class, mate

Here at Two Point Campus where the future's being formed
But you've seen what we teach here, so don't say that you weren't warned

Graduating students are encouraged to have the time of their lives. Because it's all downhill from here

Thank you!

It's half 11 and your doorbell chimes

Yeah, I know I said I'd start at nine
But I had to grab a bap on the M25
Don't worry, love! Still gonna charge for the time!

'Cause I'm a jack of all tradesmen
And your place is craving renovation
Straight from the facias, down into your basement
'Fraid your radiators need replacements

Greatest decorator in an eighth mile radius
Don't check my ratings, swear they're outrageous
All their outrage is baseless — I'm blameless!
Only three of my extensions ever caved in

You got savings? Ooh, well, I hope you do!
'Cause it's an 'eck of a job that I'm quoting you
Look, I know that you only want a coat of blue
But, to be safe, I better run my dozer through

I could do it in a flash, in a jiffy, in a jot
But the trouble is, love, it's coming up one o'clock
So I'll have a spot of lunch, then a cuppa, then I'm off
And I'll come back tomorrow, see if anything's in stock

If I've got in the van, that's grand
If I haven't, then I gotta get the parts from Japan
They should be here in Jan, maybe June, in a year, maybe two
But I'll take the down payment now, see you soon!

I tell you, I have got five-star reviews
And, by that, I mean have five one-star reviews, which is basically the same thing
Don't think about it

Satisfaction guaranteed
Cash in hand and no receipts
Your dream home is my debris
How's about a cuppa tea?

I can see a little room for improvement
I can see a little room for improvement
Are you sure you want the glass translucent?
I can see a little room for improvement

I'm a one-man overhaul, sporting overalls

Though I don't recall the load-bearing walls
So I s'pose I ought to bulldoze 'em all
Eh, your home is sort of disposable!

I do wiring, grouting, I'll put your power shower in
That pipe ain't leakin', it's just a little fountain
Whaddya mean, "That's not what a power shower is"?
The spout's right here, where the plugs are mounted?

I'm the handyman with the plan
To retire via cheating cash from your gran
Do you really need to tile all my ceilings?
That's right, I'm afraid, that'll be ten grand

If your wall's too bland, I can lend a hand
Got a car full of samples to artfully fan
And most of the lead-free cans aren't banned
Though some colours are still carcinogens

We got eggshell, beige, ecru, sage
Hessian and sesame and peppermint rage
Indigo dingo, elephant plague
Hotdog embargo and lemon rampage
Baby blue, navy blue, gravy blue, maybe blue
Grape and rhubarbecue, caribou cabin crew
Third degree verdigris, turtle infirmary
Phlurple and curdle and terminal burgundy and—

Oh, white?
You'd prefer white?
Okay, whatever
White's fine too
I'm not hurt or anything
Just a bit emulsional

Satisfaction guaranteed
Cash in hand and no receipts

I can see a little room for improvement
I can see a little room for improvement
Yeah, the fixtures are nice, but the quote don't include 'em
I can see a little room for improvement

They say home is where the heart is and that's true enough, I guess
'Cause it seems like your garage is now in car-diac arrest
I've installed some extra arches, but your bathroom's somewhat less
I'm afraid to say your bath is firmly parked upon your desk

I'm a stone-cold filler, pro roach killer
I'm a fixture of fitting in a kitchen in your villa
But my teacup could use a little refill
And I don't suppose you got a biscuit, do ya?
I'm no clever boffin, but you know I'm never stoppin'
I can stick up a partition quicker than you'd slot a noggin
I'll be bodging 'til my spirit's level lying in a coffin
'Til then I got a new side gig in pressure washing

Satisfaction guaranteed
Cash in hand and no receipts
Your dream home is my debris
How's about a cuppa tea?

I can see a little room for improvement
I can see a little room for improvement
You clearly just don't appreciate the Brutalist movement
I can see a little room for improvement

I can see a little room for improvement
I can see a little room for improvement
Regulations? Nah, never use 'em!
I can see a little room for improvement

- Sly Robert
 - Neath! (Robert's Lines)

Nice to meet you, guvna', what you want to know?
Trying to keep a track of numbers now we're dumped here down below? Oh!

Fine, come take a look you'll see – I'm an open book to read
Something took the city then this city really took to me

I'm not a crook or thief – I just do what I got to do
Bloke's still got to eat - Veg is more than a bob or two

In a ditch and out the picture, London's withering in walls which are Far too steep a pitch to climb but steep just makes the tealeaf richer

See it did you? Oh, it takes me back
Day like any other then became the Day of Wrath

As the monuments were toppled and the cobbles writhed and jostled
And the skies above were gobbled by a raging plague of bats

Stuck down in the Neath
Drowning in disease
Air sticks to your teeth
It's thick and viscous with the whispers in the breeze
Tried to earn an honest bob
But a bob is just a Robert
And a Robert's just a robber to a tee

Wasn't much, but used to run a comfy shop
One half fell down the hole, the till's still sitting up the top

Now nobodies are in charge, it's rather dark the things they've barred
But every market turns to black as soon as all the lights are off

Portobello sort of fellow shifting stock down Shaftsbury Avenue
Most coppers came a cropper so they stopped the 'let's be having you'

Random that they've banned them but I have accrued a map or two
And since they took the signs the maps ain't half collecting value

Counting off the days to die, it's a solitary life
Can't help thinking maybe I should cop myself a wife

An Eliza, Nellie, Nancy, here to hold me tight at night
A lady's tastes is fancy but still coal is twice the price

Oh wouldn't it be lovely to find a counterpart?
'Cause I'd do anything to put love's fire in the hearth

I can cook and I can clean but Neath be damned a man can dream
Sell my soul but I won't ever fence my heart

- Scutellum
 - Neath! (Cassie's lines)

Way up on the surface, chap by name of Clyde

Clerking for a hive of vermin purely to provide
For a queen who never liked him, every day was made to hide
The other person, soft, but certain, that resided deep inside
Some may cast an eye, but, darling, why should I,
Be the prim and proper carefree boy for every passer-by?
I give us a year, maybe two, if we're lucky, then a few
But the former me embraced the chance to die

Clyde can take a backseat, Scuttel's turn to drive
Who can say on any day who gets the reins? Enjoy the ride
When it comes to who I am, I wear the trousers, or I don't
Oh, darling, won't you see that this place is at its best de-gentrified?

I gave love a go, nothing short of woe
What's the sense repeating empty feelings stuck below?
The high and mighty in the sky might find me
Wildly improper, but, in a hole, well, how're they gonna know?

Done with companionship, hassle it brings
Don't need the baggage that's strapped to a ring
I'll take the packages, lay off the strings
'Cause when they aren't attached, it's my favourite thing
There are devils in the streets, what's an extra in the sheets?
Either way, you'll be beneath, so take a fling, woo!

There's a sorry-looking pantry and the kitchen's on the brink
And I'm worried that they'll catch the taste of river in the drinks
Not a sausage from Her Maj, it's like the riddle of the Sphinx
Why she's holed up in her palace as her kingdom ever sinks?
Hard to pay the rent at all when plagued by the nonsensical
It's daily an acquaintance 'twixt the strange and the unmentionables
Who can blame a dame in situations unconventional?
A basement full of tentacles, but waiting on a gent to call

A lady friend or several to get me through the nights
To place me on a pedestal and set to seeing me right
It pays to be quite flexible, and, truly, who am I?
To cater to convention and eschew these new delights?
If you came for documenting, tick whatever box you like
You've got Pages full of questions, but I left my lot behind
They're praying for ascension, but this bird ain't keen to flight
It's a shame it took descent into the depths to see the light

- Chugga Chugga and Choo Choo

- End of the Line

Sleeping deep beneath the sleepers of the isle
There's a demon creature dreaming, heathen and reviled
Sees no rhyme or reason but for feasting when he's riled
Better let him be, lest you are sure to see the smile
Of 16 tons of scurrying death
Smoldering souls through funnel of red
With a pick-like grin on the front of his head
Sat atop a most illogical number of legs

Tickets, please, let me tell you the tale
Of a wicked beast, that'll follow your trail
Through the valleys and vales, on your tail day and night
There'll be chaos on the rails when the railway strikes
Stop, take stock, try to gauge the situation
'Fraid your train has been derailed
There's no use waiting in the station
Every engine's been dismantled, there's no other service coming
Charles is leading by example, he's the only train that's running
All in all, we're in a doozy of a mess
So, all aboard the WTF express
Should you want to stay safe, then I wouldn't play games
Or you'll learn another way of saying, "Run away, train!"

Every life has a light in the tunnel ahead
But you might just find that behind it instead
Of a heaven is an engine and the devil inbred
And we're next on the menu if we've left him unfed
Charlie, your timetable says it's almost time for tea
Charlie, and we've laid on quite a spread, as you can see
There's a choo-choo train coming after you
Food chain's gone a bit askew
Won't catch that train, if it's gonna catch you

For certain, worse than what they say to mind the gap for
The train's not just cancelled, it's damn well deplatformed!
Since it scampered off the tracks to Find a snack from off your back lawn
Couple jackdaws and your cat and then your dad from off the back porch
He's hungry and he's hunting down the islanders
With a side of any siding-hiding bystanders
Quite queer what his dietary requirements are
But it's pretty clear regardless, he's a dining car

Coke? Coal? Petroleum? Alone, they'll never do
No, this engine sends the scent of rendered flesh out from the flue
On this service, we'll be serving something rather more unnerving
Chugga-chugging on blood as he chew-chews you
It's all true, choo-choos consume fuel too
Ponies are a whole new consumable and whole food
Gluten-free range and more renewable than coal, too
So, who to choose to chew to this tune? Ooh, you'll do

Every life has a light in the tunnel ahead
But you might just find that behind it instead
Of a heaven is an engine and the devil inbred
And we're next on the menu if we've left him unfed
Charlie, your timetable says it's almost time for tea
Charlie, and we've laid on quite a spread, as you can see
Charlie, if we sate your lust for flesh on which to feed
Charlie, will you promise to eat them instead of me?
There's a choo-choo train coming after you
Food chain's gone a bit askew
Won't catch that train, if it's gonna catch you

Engine, engine number nine
On the Aranearum mining line
If your train comes off the track
Better run, better run, or you won't come back

Hey, guess who? This is déjà vu
Like HS2, you'll be railed right through
Penetrated in the vein of a mainline route
When we come, well then, we're gonna run a train on you!
You might say we've got a loco motive
To provide the train with a load of groceries
Locally sourced from the local folk, dear
Granny's s'posed to host, although she's toast when the smoke clears
The el choo-choopacabara, the beast come to dine
And it's far worse than leaves that he leaves on the line
You'll see when he feasts in the deep of the night
By the pieces of equine-y debris left behind
Riding off-peak? Don't be ridiculous
The worth of your season ticket is Quickly diminishing with every pillock
We're feeding into his gleaming scissorous teeth
But if we seem insidious, we're just uneasy villagers

Seeking to keep the most hideous beast
We unleashed from committing the deed of killing us

If killing a priest, a vicar, a grocer, or postman or three is villainous?
Well, what's it to me? You probably see the feast is imminent
Keep on screaming, pump the bellows, he'll be drawn to your duress
Charlie loves a little murder on the goriest express
You can ruminate on whether there's a certain train near
Or pray that it's a rumour made to circulate fear
But in case you didn't hear, then I better make clear
This train terminates here

Every life has a light in the tunnel ahead
But you might just find that behind it instead
Of a heaven is an engine and the devil inbred
And we're next on the menu if we've left him unfed
Charlie, your timetable says it's almost time for tea
Charlie, and we've laid on quite a spread, as you can see
Charlie, if we sate your lust for flesh on which to feed
Charlie, will you promise to eat them instead of me?
There's a choo-choo train coming after you
Food chain's gone a bit askew
Won't catch that train, if it's gonna catch you

Locations

- Bulwark's Tournament

A massive arena built out of a cliff face at Mt. everhoof. Fighters and travelers come from near and far to witness and participate in this magnificent and brutal display of power and pride. The monsters here aren't real, simply advanced illusions, and no player dies permanently, ending up back in a nice hot bath where they're revived. Despite the literal life-threatening challenges and ideals, plenty of creatures come back after their first match to go again. Every round, a different artifact is activated, ensuring no match is the same twice.

- Difficulties

All difficulties except for fathomless are either scheduled in advance by bulwark, or are

- Sunny

- No artifacts

- Teams allowed
- Drizzle
 - Artifact on final turn
 - Teams allowed
- Rainstorm
 - Artifacts on all turns
 - Teams allowed
- Thunderstorm
 - Artifacts on all turns
 - Bonus Round with Artifact of Petrikov (Along with all other difficulties below)
 - Teams allowed
- Monsoon
 - Artifacts on all turns
 - No teams
- Typhoon
 - 2 Artifacts on all turns
 - No Teams
- Tempest
 - 3 Artifacts on all turns
 - No teams
- Fathomless
 - Must be specifically stated.
 - All Artifacts are on (- Petrikov until bonus round)
 - Teams allowed.
 - The only way to obtain the Glitched Crown
- The Ring

A small villa that Zelo made to house his, uh, more natural forms, along with anyone crazy enough to actually live out here. It's simply a road that leads down into a deep cavern, with the houses of everyone around.

 - Residents include...
 - Harmonic Resonance
 - Liston Splint
 - Maledicted Curse (Undercover base)
 - Bulwark Anvil
 - Ghastly Astonish
 - Game Science
 - House Flipper
 - Scutellum (Eventually)
 - Sly Robert (Eventually)
 - Building Included
 - The Breathing Home (HR)
 - Office of Liston Splint

- The Living House (MC)
 - The Bulwark Monument (BA)
 - Luna's Junkyard (GA)
 - Science Blaster (GS)
 - A Mistake? (HF)
 - The Pleasure Garden (S)
 - House of Friendship (M6)
- The Breathing Home
 - Home of Harmonic Resonance, this entire house is covered with instruments, some of which are alive, some of which aren't, but something is always playing from this house.
- Office of Liston Splint
 - If you make the trek here, most likely because of an injury, you better believe you'll be taken care of well. While Liston might be a bit intolerable, whatever is wrong with you, he'll figure it out and fix it...in front of a live studio audience! That's right, all surgeries, check-ups, and anything else happens in front of a theater, which is coincidentally right next to the Stupendious School of Everything. Unless there's a medical course happening though, there's only one person in the audience, and his last name rhymes with purse.
- The Living House
 - A 2000+ ft high house, looking like phineas and ferb made it, and I say that in the worst way possible, with the only thing keeping it held is a sky chain at the very top. So many features on the exterior and interior, but if you step in without an invitation, well, who knows what Curse will do to you.
- The Bulwark Monument
 - Even someone as successful as Bulwark needs a break every now and again. While the Bulwark monument on the outside only seems like a statue dedicated to how Anvil helped make the ring, clicking the letters right on the plaque opens a staircase to a secret room contained, which not only has a direct entrance to Anvil's room in the tournament arena, but also has anything a 15 year old stallion would want and need.
- Science Blaster
 - A fairly average house. Home to Game Science, and complete with multiple games, consoles, PCs, and cork boards.

- Luna's Junkyard
 - A neat little abode filled with superstitious objects and decor, of course Ghastly would live here.
- The Pleasure Gardens
 - Owned, operated, and maintained by Scutellum after her reformation, the Gardens are partly a bar, and partly...uh...well I think the title tells you all you need to know.
- A Mistake?
 - When House flipper has his own house, which he can do anything to? Yeah, you can see why everyone calls it what it does.
- Charming 22
 - The sanctuary of the Badlands, largest gambling establishment, beating out Las Pegasus by dozens of acres, and some of the most luxurious buildings in all of equestria. Just be sure to pay the rent.
- House of Friendship
 - The house used by the mane 6 whenever they are called to the ring for a reason or another. Built from the ground up, this house is just the right size for the mane 6 to comfortably live with each other. If only they didn't build it next to the living house.
- Heaven Cracker
 - The actual base of Maledicted Curse when he breaks free from Zelo's influence. A Floating orb in the sky, full of mazes and luxury, it's a supervillain lair in the best and worst way possible.

Objects and creatures

Tool-Gun

A better attuned way for Zelo to use his chaotic powers.

Red Sea Object

A disc that Zelo uses as protection from out of universe sources. Not in the hands of Zelo could be catastrophic.

The Architect

Based on SCP-184, this octadecahedron is able to create liminal spaces when placed inside of a closed area. Zelo uses this creation to expand his shop, but doesn't realize the ramifications, as many unicorns start to realize the strange resonance coming from the area.

Tizona

An incredible and complicated blade constructed that can create magical beams. Given to twilight in Her second bulwark trial. Given to shining armor afterwards

Scepter of the ~~Harmonizing~~ heart

Gained by twilight's second bulwark trial, this allows for the use of the feelings of one's self or others as a weapon, creating a bubble of the emotion in the real world. Anything that passes through it becomes overwhelmed with said emotion. Given to cadence.

Wondrous cello

A shining, blinding, and radiant crystalized golden cello, it's a relatively unknown creation by Zelo, until Octavia gets her hands on it. Afterwards, it's revealed that the cello is alive, and begins to get a relationship similar to fern and finn with octavia.

Ring of Wonder

A limiter that Eris helped Zelo make, to keep his power in check whenever he chooses to.

Infinity Gauntlet (Classic)

The glove that fits all and does all, this hunk of gold and pure power is most likely one of, if not, the most powerful accessory or tool one could have. Zelo thinks it looks ugly and decides to redesign it.

Pin of Power

The accidental creation made for Applejack, this allows for the strength to split a mountain at its base, in either magical or physical strength.

Ring of Reality

The accidental creation made for Pinkie Pie, this allows for the manipulation and tampering of any object the user desires.

Shillelagh of the soul

The accidental creation made for Fluttershy, this walking stick allows for the reading and understanding of the emotions and feelings of anything with a soul.

Sash of Space

The accidental creation made for Rainbow Dash, this allows for instant movement and transportation of objects. Rainbow dash assumes that it's her own power.

Muff of the mind

The accidental creation made for Twilight Sparkle, this wondrous glove allows for the reading of anything that could produce a thought.

Tuanshan of Time

The accidental creation made for Rarity, this allows for the user to control all timeframes present, simply by looking through it at the frame in question, sort of like a lens of truth.

Eternity Gauntlet (Zelo Modified)

The modified and enhanced pearl white infinity gauntlet, now able to adapt and change itself to suit zelo's needs.

Artifacts of Bulwarks Quarry

Used in the Bulwark's Trials, but can be used outside as a world change.

- Artifact of Soul
 - All beings, if DQ-ed, return as a hostile or support spirit, and if their team lives through the round, they are returned, revived and refreshed.
- Artifact of Spite
 - All beings, if DQ-ed, explode upon death.
- Artifact of Chaos
 - Friendly Fire against teams can occur
- Artifact of Command
 - Teams can be mixed and alliances can be made.
 - Items can be chosen
 - Rewards are Halved
- Artifact of Death
 - If one team member is DQ, entire team is disqualified.
 - Rewards are tripled
- Artifact of Evolution
 - Random items are given to all players and monsters.
- Artifact of Frailty
 - Damage is doubled
- Artifact of Glass
 - Damage is increased by 5x
 - Stamina and Vitality are lowered to 10% the normal.
- Artifact of Dissonance
 - Any monster can be in the trial
 - Rewards are doubled
- Artifact of Honor
 - All players gain a Elite Skill
 - Blazing
 - Creates a fire trail wherever they walk
 - Overloading
 - Gain a protective barrier that siphons their vitality to work
 - All attacks gain an explosive electrical ball on contact

- Glacial
 - Slower
 - Higher vitality
 - Every now and then, create a spherical ice storm
 - Mending
 - Casts a healing beam to any close ally
 - Celestine
 - Creates a massive aura that cloaks nearby allies.
 - Much higher vitality
 - Malachite
 - All attacks prevent healing
 - Perfected
 - Gain a protective barrier that siphons vitality to work
 - Gain the positive effects of 3 random artifacts.
 - Voidtouched
 - Can mind control allies and enemies
 - First attack on a voidtouched doesn't occur.
- All monsters can only spawn as total elites.
- Rewards are tripled.
- Artifact of metamorphosis
 - Players switch species. Any species that has existed in the MLP universe is up for rolling.
 - Dragons
 - Ponies
 - Unicorns
 - Earth ponies
 - Pegasi
 - Bat ponies
 - Alicorns
 - Changelings
 - Changedlings
 - Queens
 - Griffons
 - Hippogriffs
 - Sea Ponies
 - Kirin
 - Draconequus
 - Abyssian
 - Yaks
 - Tantabus
 - Nightmares
 - Foxes
 - Caribou
- Artifact of Sacrifice

- Items can only be dropped by enemies
- Artifact of Swarms
 - Monster spawn rates are doubled
 - Monsters are weaker than normal
- Artifact of Kin
 - Arena is separated into regions. Regions only contain one type of monster.
- Artifact of Vengeance
 - After the first round, doppelgangers of every player relentlessly chase the original player.
- Artifact of Petrarch
 - All teams and solo members become one unified team.
 - All monsters are now replaced by Risk of Rain monsters, including bosses (About the I CAN SEE YOU difficulty)

SG Pepper's Trumpet

Harmonic Resonance's greatest treasure. Once used by his Ancestor in the Crystal Empire war, this trumpet can not only energize and raise the morale of those around, but it can even revive anything if played perfectly. Harmonic spends an unhealthy amount of time practicing a duplicate trumpet so he can play it correctly if he is ever called to take his ancestor's place.

Cracked Crown

The Cracked Crown is the top reward you could normally receive in Bulwark's Trials At the end of Monsoon, Typhoon, and Tempest. The Cracked crown, upon equipping, immediately increases the power of every possible ability, stat, or skill the user has.

Glitched Crown

Is the top reward you receive in Fathomless difficulty, but the question is, is the glitched crown worth it? Well, what the glitched crown does is...something. No one has won it, so even idk.

Choo-Choo Charlie

Yep, the spider train, made by Maledict's own Chaos magic, starts roaming the foresty side of Equestria.

Other Characters

Silver Swift

Pegasus Royal guard who has multiple personality disorder, but thankfully all of her personalities have fallen for her marefriend Quick Blast, even if she desperately tries to hide her disorder.

Quick Blast

Unicorn Lieutenant and head of her own group of guards, she's a humorous but strict leader. Aware of Silver swift's disorder, but wants to see how far she'll go with pretending she doesn't have one.

Quirrell Skrimage

A Battleborn Pegasus veteran, and not someone you want to mess with. While she has hung up her spears and weapons, every now and again she'll visit the Bulwark's™ trials for a nice bout. Similar to Penumbra from Ducktales, finds most enjoyment in battling, and has a hard time finding fun in other things.

Half Baked Apple

An estranged member of the Apple Family, who rose to be the Right hand man of Full House.

Scutellum

A changeling that was separated from the hivemind by Zelo's Soul and Mind combo. Slightly above average Intelligence, Blood/Love Thirsty half the time, Also Slightly dimwitted and a Tsundere the other half of the time. Scutellum is also chosen by Zelo to be at the ring to basically monitor all his other accidental creations. Oh yeah, she's also a trans female, and a total pansexual, mainly leaning towards females. That trans female thing is much easier due to her nature as a changeling, it's not hard to change yourself.

Sly Robert

A Very sneaky and touch-starved bandit that lives in the Pleasure Gardens, probably without Scutellum's knowledge. His life goal is to simply find someone to love, but due to his nature and life, it is really hard for him to catch anyone's eye.

Chugga Chugga and Choo Choo

A Train obsessed Duo that are the main followers and Protectors of Choo Choo Charlie. Chugga is more stable and intelligent, but also more sadistic. Choo Choo is unstable and dumb, but also has a heart. Chugga has a conductor getup, and Choo has an engineer getup.

The Beta Alpha

It's not uncommon for ponies to look nothing like other ponies. It adds variety, diversity, and it just wouldn't make sense for ponies to look alike.

Of course, ponies aren't the only species on equis, but they are a dominant one. Most ponies look exactly like you might expect. 4 hooves, mane, tail, somewhat long neck, snout, and at least on equis, a deluxe color sheet.

Of course, however, some slip through the cracks, and look mighty different from others, or even just one small detail. Alicorns are an obvious outlier, but there are others, like screwball, with the spiral iris, or rarity with the diamond-like manes. What, haven't noticed? I wouldn't blame you.

However, it's not often that a pony comes along that has so much fur that he looks like a cloud of gas, and orange glasses that reach out from the fur. That...That is what those are, right?

Wait...why are the glasses glowing now. Why is he standing on two legs? Is...oh my god...is...is that thing even a pony!?

Beta Acreus has come to MLP.

Impossible, Right?

What if real life was twice as fast? You've probably never thought about that, have you? Well most people don't, mainly because what reason is there to?

Well, now Cadence has to think of that constantly, as she has been transformed into a creature that is absolutely terrible to be. A character from a game named Coda.

Not only that, but she has appeared in My Little Pony, almost 2 millennia before the main series started. Let's just hope that no one touches her.

At least she's still the same gender.

Tsururan's Excellent Adventure

So, Tsuraran was doing...something. I don't know what they do, but they're cool, so, what the heck. Anyway, they were doing something, and suddenly they're in mlp. Oh yeah, and they can just switch their gender. Also, they're characters are now at their command. That's nice.

Sweetie's Such a Q.T.

So...Sweetie Belle is a real cutie, am I right? I mean, in my opinion, she is the cutest of the Cmc's. So innocent, colorful, and has a very helpful sister. So Naive and friendly...

...What a perfect Target.

Sweetie Belle becomes a slight-skinksuit for a rather malicious robot, and now the two have a Venom-like relationship.

I'm not Real

Hello. My name is Brennan Quartz.

I have a Cyan Mane.

I'm 4' 3"

I have silver eyes.

I weigh 153 pounds.

I'm 15 years old.

So...what's my problem?

Not simple. I'm not real.

Vessel of the Void

The Knight had done it.

The infection is gone.

The radiance is defeated. He had finally defeated it, releasing His brother from his eternal prison. His shell is broken in the final battle, but he then ascends above all gods by defeating the gods of hallow-nest, and giving into his inner shade lord. He ascends above them all in his death, and rebirth.

But, then they're dragged back down. In, assuredly a new world, he arrives in a world of Equine creatures with their own magic. And it seems he isn't a Pure vessel anymore.

So...how will a creature formed to have no mind to think, no will to break, no voice to speak, a being born of god and void, and a being who has known almost nothing except violence, now deal with all forms of emotion and fairness in a world of Friendship and love? Let us see, shall we?

One Slip

Michael is a changeling that was never reformed. He was a good dude, but it seems like ponies are way too racist to accept him as a reformed changeling.

Suddenly though, he slips and falls down a seemingly bottomless hole. As he emerges, he finds himself in a world where everything is stopped. Nothing is moving, and it seems like he can do anything he wants. But how does this affect the real world?

Inspired by Pink Floyd's "One Slip"

The Wall

On the border of, supposedly the world, there's a wall. Every creature is told, never break it, never touch it, never go even near it. The wall is something no one knows what's on the other side.

Then...Pinkie pie breaks it down, And she's face to face with...Herself?

Inspired by the cover made by Flutterthrash

Multiversal Stuffs

Unlike every other header, these are simply things that transcend more than one story.

Characters

General

These characters exist through all stories

- “RLORD” the 891st
 - “There’s no need to focus on my one-sided war of the worlds.”
 - “You’re blind to the fact that the product is you.”
 - “Because I know what you own, and I own what you know.”
 - “Should’ve read the fine print my friend.”
 - The epitome of business. The BTS Maker of every world’s major corporation that doesn’t already have a creator, including Ficsit, Arasaka, Halcyon, and many others as his main enterprises. His abilities aren’t just limited to infinite charisma and Universe hopping. He can do so much more with just a snap.
 - Shape-Shifting (And by proxy DNA/Gender swapping)
 - Doctor-who style Regeneration
 - Fusion
 - He also goes under quite a few names, and while he says one of them is his real name, no one can pin the real one.
 - Floyd
 - Ben
 - Zode
 - Offiz
 - Neal
 - Overlord
 - King of Infinity
 - Boneless
 - Business personified
 - Songs
 - A Matter of Factories
 - The Datastream
 - The Fine Print
- Stuart Fireball
 - “We work to earn the right to work to earn the right to work to earn the right to work to earn the right to work to earn the right to give ourselves the right to buy ourselves the right to live to earn the right to die.”

"We work and then we work and then we work and then we work and then we work and then we work and then we end up in the ground."

- RLORD's Left hand man, not that it gives him much of the man's power. In all reality, he just gets a day off a week, and every other day, he's just another employee.
- Tiberius "Black" "The Watcher" "The Interloper"
"Villains are never born. They always, ALWAYS, have to be made. Usually, I'm the catalyst."
"It's a journey to embrace."
 - The Empress' old flame, and the being usually referred to simply as "Black." While he isn't directly evil, his presence inspires everything, animate or inanimate, to rise up and become villains. It kind of sucks. Aside from that however, he also acts as the overseer to Samael, AKA death. Samael is the reaper, Tiberius is the supervisor.
- Sinnoh "The Dark"
"Sing in grief a requiem, the curse of our millennium."
 - While Tiberius unwillingly inspires evil, Sinnoh is the embodiment of it. Malevolence and maliciousness incarnate, he brings any analog horror or fictional villain to their knees with his horrifying sense of power and ill intent towards all that cross his path. He might be the darkest being in existence, but at least he doesn't go out of his way to be so.
- Apollyon "The Emperor"
"Never Knowingly be Serious."
 - Lord of Abyss/Void, Benevolent yet Cunning, and while annoying, is worth your time. Loves a good underdog story, hates being disorganized.
- Scarlet "The Tamer"
""For some people, small, beautiful events are what life is all about."
 - The...I suppose, "Goal," for many...sexual deviants. Known as the "Queen of hearts," Scarlet is similar to Midnight. She's a vision of sexuality, the holy grail for many, but unlike midnight, she herself isn't much of a sexual deviant. In fact, she's Asexual. However, if you are willing, she is always looking for a romantic partner.
- Zelo "The Brutal"
"Why do humans never do as they're told? Someone should replace you all with robots. No, on second thought, they shouldn't, bad idea."
 - Judge, Jury, Torturer, and Executioner aren't even all the titles that Zelo can go by. He decides where you go, he decides what you get, and he decides when you've repented, and he isn't able to be fooled, so good luck.
- Ozeal "The Dealer"
"The Sharpness of the tongue always defeats the sharpness of the warrior."
 - The Contractor of the Abyss. Not only does he work with 4P011Y0N on the features he makes, but also works like alastor in his dealings above hell.

- Samael “The Harvester”

“I mean this literally. They call me Samael, because I’m Death.”

“If that isn’t sad enough, it’s an awful lot of paperwork.”

 - The Grim reaper, death itself, you know him, I know him, we all know who Samael is, whether we’ve met him or not.
- 4P011Y0N “The Showrunner”
 - While not a part of the Abyss crew yet, he is contracted frequently for his immense knowledge of how technology and human nature works.
- Cameraheads “The Surveillance”
 - Creatures, possibly demons, that are used by the above characters to monitor worlds. Can be killed, as they masquerade as normal mortal beings. Killing a camerahead isn’t too much of a task on its own, but it puts a target on your back, mainly from Zelo and Ozeal.
- The Empress
 - Basically god, but instead of the massively popular “father/mother and helper of all” she’s very similar to Puppet History’s god. She just does whatever she wants because she can, and that includes having children in multiple universes like ego from Guardians of the Galaxy.
 - Throughout the stories containing said children, The Empress will appear in the dreams of them, acting as, basically an SCP-990.

“This is what happens when you try to play GOD.”

 - While not given a concrete name, this traveler is essentially a multiversal outlaw. Considered to not be able to live in any universe due to the magnitude he carries, he’s being constantly tracked down by Cameraheads, Tiberius, Empress, RLORD, and even a few of the Abyss Devils. General descriptions are hard to come by, but what is known is that he is incredibly tall and lanky, with long blue hair, and a very serious demeanor. You’ll never see this creature smile. He does go by quite a few names however.
 - Infinity
 - Boundless
 - Cosmic
 - Limit
 - Unbounded
 - Interminable
 - Undeterminable
- Cell
 - An omniscient being that watches over every single world. Its purpose is to find anything it classifies as a “Cheater.” Think of him as a one man TVA that also watches for impossible power bursts.
- Elh

- A Wandering spirit, and the most obviously malicious entity. Capable of absorbing the life force of anything it comes into contact with, and capable of traveling to other universes unwillingly.
- Evernaut
 - Similarly to the watcher from what if, the Evernaut is a simple viewer of universes. Unlike the watcher however, he isn't afraid to interfere if things start going awry. This puts him in direct conflict with Cell.
- Angel

Magical

These characters appear only in MLP stories

- Napping Flies
 - Mythical atrocities, these beings are some of the most situationally powerful entities to exist, rivaling the powers of the nightmares. Napping flies are creatures that kidnap any creature that sleeps with the lights on, where they then feast on the dreams, before discarding them, alive or dead. Napping Flies are said to be one of the biggest threats to the nightmare creatures, including Nightmare Moon, and strangely enough, Princess Luna.
 - Features in...
 - Jabberwock
- The Rabbit in the Moon
 - The strongest being in the MLP universe, but he can't be bothered to get out of bed (Feel that)
