

Proverbs 25:2

“It is the glory of God to conceal a matter; to search out a matter is the glory of kings.” Proverbs 25:2

SCJ instructors try to make a case that according to this verse, “It is to the glory of God” to lie in evangelism.

A response to Proverbs 25:2

This verse is speaking to the sovereignty and nature of God. It is in his nature and right to keep his counsels, and the reasons of his actions, to himself; which he does not need to impart to any other being for his advice and assistance; since he is self-sufficient, both for the contrivance and execution of whatsoever pleases him, and accountable to none for any of his matters.
