PHRASAL VERBS

EAT UP / DRINK UP

When you
When you eat up your meal, you will get a dessert.
I want to try apple juice after I drink up this lemonade.

fill up - fill something completely (fill up the tank in the car)

come / run / drive up to - approach, come closer come up with - make some ideas, plan Let's come up with a topic for discussion.

set up - arrange, organize set up alarm, set up a tent, set up the time

SEPARABLE PHRASAL VERB PUT ON
put a shirt on, put on a shirt -> same when you put the object between the verb and preposition or after preposition.
BUT: use pronoun always between verb and preposition put IT on ~~put on it~~

INSEPARABLE PHRASAL VERB get away from this boring person/place
I want to have some changes and I'd like to get away from this city for a while.

DIRECT - REPORTED SPEECH

eat - ate
will eat - would eat
can help - could help
is playing - was playing have been - had been PRESENT PERFECT -> PAST PERFECT may - might should - should were knitting - had been knitting kept - had kept
must do - present = have to do -> had to do had done - had done PAST PERFECT doesn't change in Reported Speech has been sleeping - had been sleeping am - was

was/were - had been