

Purrwoods

Head to Purrwoods and find out what's happening there!
Go to Purrwoods and figure out where all the kitties are disappearing to!
Learn what the vampire is unhappy about!
Grab some allergy pills for the black mage!
The location is available from October 30 to November 5, 23:59 PST.
The land has 1 level

Purrwoods

Storage - Tent

Packing List

|                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                     |                                                                                       |                                                                                       |  |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--|
| 215 Milk                                                                            | 250 Carrots                                                                         | ~25 Beans                                                                           | 40 Boards                                                                             | ~75 Beets                                                                             |  |
|  |  |  |  |  |  |

Quests

|                                                                                                                               |                                                                                                            |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Spooky adventure       | Go to Purrwoods.                                                                                |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Follow the footsteps   | Find Dr. Bellami and Grand Maman in Purrwoods.                                                  | Go further and find Dr. Bellami and Angelica. Remove the Snag for 5 Boards on your way.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |
| Dead funny           | Tickle the tentacles wrapped around the Motorcycle in Purrwoods.                                | Tickle the Tentacles with 1 Raven Feather, which you get from the Black Raven in the location for 5 Beans. Some ravens won't want to share, so try asking several of them. There are 5 ravens in total, so it's best to bring about 25 Beans.  Use the Raven Feather on the Motorcycle and tickle the tentacles.  |
| Somewhere nearby     | Start searching for Evin the cat in Purrwoods.                                                  | Move on and remove the Snag along the way for 5 Boards.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
| Anxious Vampire      | Place the bowl in Purrwoods. Place a cozy box.                                       | Clear the areas for the box and bowl, and click on the icons with bricks to place them                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Evin, are you here?  | Continue searching for Evin the cat in Purrwoods.                                               | Repair the Bridge for 5 Boards and move on.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| Nap time                                                                                                           | Take the Black Cats to the Soothing Baskets and count them near the Sleep Machine in Purrwoods. | Find 3 cats in the location and move them to the highlighted areas. Soothing Baskets.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |

|                                                                                                                        |                                                          |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------------------------------------------------------|------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                             |                                                          |    You'll find a Typewriter in this area, you have move on to other areas to find the paper needed for the Typewriter.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|                                                                                                                        | Turn on the Sleep Machine.                               | Use 10 Milk on the Sleep Machine and then 150 Catnip (found in the location).                                                                                                                                                                                                       |
|  Where is Evin?    | Continue searching for Evin the cat in Purrwoods.        | Use 5 Boards on the Snag and move on.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 |
|  Eternal youth    | Distract the Clingy Cat from the mummy in Purrwoods.     | The Clingy Cat can either be fed (35 milk) or petted (45 energy).                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |
|                                                                                                                        | Give the Scoop to the tentacle in the Black Mage's Nook. | The Scoop is found in one of the Pumpkin Cauldrons. Use 15 Beets on them to reach a deal. There're 5 pumpkins in the location, but you don't have to reach a deal with each one; you can find the right one if you're lucky. Use the Scoop on the Black Mage's Nook.     |
|  Where are you?   | Continue searching for Evin the cat in Purrwoods.        | Remove the Snag for 5 Boards and move on.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
|  Creepy concert   | Place Blue Berries in the Cat Bed in Purrwoods.          | Collect 200 Blue Berries in the location and use them on the Cat Bed.                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| Kitty, kitty, kitty                                                                                                    | Continue searching for Evin the cat in Purrwoods.        | Remove the Snag for 10 Boards and move on.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |

|                                                                                                                                        |                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
|----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
|                                                        |                                                                                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| Healing with love  | Help Dr. Bellami break the spell on Evin the cat in Purrwoods. | Click on Dr. Bellami and choose the correct answers. Reward: Monster Evin - Roulette   |

Major goals

|                                                                                                                                 |                                                               |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           |
|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Trick or treat?          | Collect all Spooky Sweets from the Magic Pumpkins. | Collect 80 Spooky Sweets, they can be used to spin the roulette in the Sinister Rotunda.   Reward: Vampire (multibox that gives rewards 6 times and leaves an animated decoration)  |
| Terrifying literature  | Place Paper in all Typewriters.                    | There are 4 Typewriters in the location, use 50 Paper on each (found in the location).  Reward: Typewriter (multibox that gives rewards 6 times and leaves an animated decoration)        |

Clearing rewards

|                                                                                                                       |                                                                                                              |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 10% Soothing Basket (multibox, will give some goodies 2 times and leave an animated decoration) | 30% Clingy Cat (multibox that gives rewards 6 times and leaves an animated decoration) |
|-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|

100% - Fire Motorcycle ROULETTE

Sweet Horror portal
Timer 7 days from your first visit here.

Roulettes in the location

Sinister Rotunda

Spin it for the Spooky Sweets

Ghost Lake

Secret Roulette

Maps

Typewriters

That last pesky Typewriter explained!

It's hidden without the fog 😊 Halloween spirits playing their tricks

We need to cut out the stone to the left of the tree and the Typewriter will appear.

Maps are supplied by a great Facebook group: Klondike Addicts 101

Thank you Klondike Addicts 101 for being there for the Klondike community.

Paper

