10:30-11:30 AM	A Sound Mind in a Sound Body: Collaborative Care in the Health Sciences	This interactive session will include a care team discussion surrounding a client scenario. Representatives and current students from the disciplines of Rehab Counseling, Occupational Therapy, Physical Therapy, and Athletic Training will join together to provide this session. Participants will have an opportunity to interact with all attending. Participants are encouraged to download and review Care Team Information PDF prior to the session.	https://zoom.us/j/97663701663?pwd=Q215WHdGOHI2dlVRbjdKVU1FcjJ1dz09
12:00-1:00 PM	Department of Nutritional Sciences: PhD and Clinical Nutrition Programs	Do you have an interest in nutrition, health, wellness, and biochemistry? Join us to learn about the undergraduate and graduate opportunities in the Department of Nutritional Sciences. We offer a pathway to becoming a registered dietitian nutritionist - a food and nutrition expert! If research is more of your passion, we also offer a PhD in Nutritional Sciences. Join Sarah Golla and Makayla Schuchardt to learn about the exciting field of nutrition!	https://uwmadison.zoom.us/j/9793095833?pwd=VEdrUUhlYk5OdHIEb1FSaG5zYzhRZz09
12:00-1:00 PM	School of Pharmacy Information Session—Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) and Professional Master's Degrees and Capstone Certificate Program	Are you interested in a career in the health professions? Curious about how drugs prevent and treat diseases and improve human health? Join our virtual information session to learn about the School of Pharmacy's Doctor of Pharmacy (PharmD) degree, a clinically-focused professional level degree that prepares students to become licensed pharmacists in the US. You'll have an opportunity to learn about: • Prerequisites and application process/timeline • Current pharmacy student perspectives • Courses and unique certificate opportunities within the program • Career outlook and pathways If this visit date does not work with your schedule, please contact our Student & Academic Affairs office at 608-262-6234 or email pharminfo@wisc.edu to arrange an alternate date to meet with a pre-pharmacy advisor and/or schedule a tour of the pharmacy building with a current pharmacy student ambassador! Join our virtual information session to learn about the School of Pharmacy's Professional Master's Degrees and Capstone Certificate Program. We offer two options for the MS in Pharmaceutical Sciences: Applied Drug Development (ADD) and Psychoactive Pharmaceutical Investigation (PPI). The ADD Masters and Capstone Certificate programs develop skills that pharmaceutical and biotechnology companies are seeking in new employees, including the practical and professional knowledge applicable across the entire lifecycle of drug development. The PPI Masters and Capstone Certificate programs are first-of-their-kind in the US and the world. PPI graduates acquire the unique credentials to compete as outstanding applicants in industrial, not-for-profit, or academic research environments focused in the rapid growth areas of psychedelic, entheogen, and cannabinoid research and application. You'll have an opportunity to learn about: • Prerequisites and application process/timeline • Courses and pacing flexibility within the program • Career outlook • Current professional master's student perspectives If this visit date does not work with your schedule, please contact our Student Services team at prograd@pharmacy.wisc.edu to arrange an alternate date to discuss our programs!	https://uwmadison.zoom.us/j/93765120486?pwd=YVl2YXFhRW1yRmFhWz09
