

Lu's - 2 Week Menu

I'll share a two week menu at a time, this week I'm trying to catch up on photos of recipes we need to share, so I don't have links for several of them, but will soon. :) So stay tuned for that.

I'll always mention our main dish, and sometimes some ideas for sides. If you have ideas please comment on a post or email us. We're always up for new ideas, especially in the veggie department.

This week we are probably going to close on our first house, so we might now follow a menu with all that chaos. But I need it here incase the chaos is too much! :)
