

Code of Conduct

- Everyone participating in this hackathon is required to agree to the following Code of Conduct, including all attendees, speakers, sponsors, and staff. The Back2School hackathon aims to provide an opportunity for you to design and construct an innovative solution that will help students, teachers, and schools operating under a full or partial virtual learning model due to the worldwide pandemic.
- We do not tolerate harassment of anyone in any form. If a participant engages in harassing behavior or violates this Code of Conduct, Back2School may take any action we deem appropriate, including expulsion from the hackathon itself.

Reporting and Enforcement

- If you are being harassed by a member of the Back2School community, notice that someone else is being harassed, or have any other concerns, please contact us immediately via email at back2schoolhackathon@gmail.com. Alternatively, you can contact any member of our team.

Slack

Please be respectful while communicating on this channel at all times. If you encounter any form of harassment, contact an admin or moderator via direct message. If the person who is harassing you is a member of staff, they will remove themselves from handling your incident. All reports will be handled in the strictest confidence.

Thanks,
Back2School Team
