SOFTSWISS Game Aggregator Adds Five New Studios to Its Global Portfolio

17 September 2025, Malta – The SOFTSWISS Game Aggregator continues to expand its industry-leading portfolio, which now features over 35,000 active games from both established and emerging providers. The company has announced new partnerships with Peter & Sons, Just Slots, BlueJack Gaming, FA CHAI Gaming, and TokaCity – five studios bringing original content and strong regional expertise.

The SOFTSWISS Game Aggregator connects operators to the widest and most diverse range of games through a single seamless integration. A recent Kantar study revealed that operators select software providers based on security, reliability, revenue-growth potential, stable infrastructure, and high-quality client service. SOFTSWISS is fully committed to these priorities, consistently delivering robust security, proven stability, and responsive support, while enabling operators to unlock new business opportunities.

Through its Game Aggregator, SOFTSWISS not only ensures operational excellence with 99.999% uptime but also provides the industry's largest content hub with over 35,000 active games, helping partners drive engagement and retention. This commitment to quality and growth has earned SOFTSWISS the highest Net Promoter Score (NPS), reinforcing its position as the most trusted and reliable partner in the industry.

Nikita Keino, Head of Partnerships at SOFTSWISS Game Aggregator, comments:

“Expanding our portfolio with five new studios strengthens the value we deliver to operators. Each partner adds unique mechanics, themes, and market perspectives, ensuring our clients can keep their offerings fresh and competitive. At the same time, we provide the reliability and tools that help operators maximise the impact of this content across multiple markets.”

The Game Aggregator has just welcomed newly added game providers to its portfolio:

- Peter & Sons stands out for its distinctive design, sound, and mechanics, with popular titles like Barbarossa, Barbarossa Revenge, and Ghostfather.
- Just Slots released its first game in 2024 and aims to launch 10 titles by the end of 2025. Now its portfolio includes Book of Arcane 100 and Shogun Skylord.
- BlueJack Gaming offers more than 40 slots and table games, including King's Crown, Macao Ladder, and Quick Blackjack.
- FA CHAI Gaming specialises in slots and arcade-style content, including the popular 3D Fishing series and Coin Dozer.
- TokaCity combines modern slot design and crash-game PVP elements with immersive storytelling, developing visually engaging titles with broad appeal.

With the addition of these five studios, alongside recent integrations of CG Games, Champion, and Formula Spin, the SOFTSWISS Game Aggregator further strengthens its position as the industry's largest content hub, ensuring that operators can deliver tailored, competitive portfolios to meet diverse player demands.
