

Kaiāulu

PROTECTING ANCIENT FORESTS TO PRESERVE LIFE ON EARTH

Protecting Earth's Ancient Forests is key to solving the interrelated crises of climate change, biodiversity loss, and pandemics.

Kaiāulu leverages social coherence to generate the necessary societal, political, and industrial will to protect every last hectare of Ancient Forests.

The world's most urgent problems will not be solved with the same thinking that created them. We are weaving together collective intelligence and indigenous wisdom to transform the way we solve these interrelated crises.

We represent an alliance of the world's foremost scientists, economists, activists, wisdom keepers, systems strategists, and philanthropists taking a whole systems approach to preserving Earth's remaining Ancient Forests.

www.Kaiāulu.earth

Kaiāulu Volunteer Roles // 2021

This is a rolling document that is updated regularly.

Leadership Intern: Prospect Research

Advisor: Executive Director

Time Required: 2 - 10 hours per week + 1 - 2 hours per month for mentorship with Executive Director

Objective

Research prospects in a variety of fields on a weekly basis to support.

Why is this important?

Expanding and strengthening our donor relationships is essential for the growth of our organization. This effort is a fundamental building block of our foundation for growth.

Leadership Intern: Media Research

Advisor: Executive Director

Time Required: 2 - 10 hours per week + 1 - 2 hours per month for mentorship with Executive Director

Objective

Research media, reporters, and podcast hosts to build up Kaiāulu's media network

Why is this important?

Expanding and strengthening our outward voice is essential for the growth of our organization. It's an important way to expand our reach and share this work with people who may not have heard about it already.

Leadership Intern: Assistant Website Manager

Advisor: Director of Strategy

Number of Positions available: 1 - 2

Time Required: 2 - 10 hours per week + 1 - 2 hours per month for mentorship with Director of Strategy

Objective

Data entry

Basic page editing

Basic CSS editing and development

Skills Required

Fluent in Squarespace development

Available to work on call throughout the week

Looking to learn and develop their skills and career

Why is this important

Our website is one of the primary ways people get to know us. We are just about to launch our reimagined and restructured website and we need some support in the ongoing maintenance of the new site as well as support with our existing Coherence Lab (parent to Kaiāulu) website. This position is great for people who want to forward their career in marketing and/or web development.

Theme: Information & Data Management, Policy & Advocacy, Comms & Marketing, Science & Research

Information & Data Management

We are constantly in need of analytical research for contributing to our knowledge base and reporting. It is imperative that we continually expand our knowledge by listening and researching and processing past and new information. That requires us to assemble and coordinate effective research teams.

We would love to welcome you to join us in supporting our mission to protect all remaining Ancient Forests.

Advisor: Director of Strategy

Number of Positions available: 2 - 4

Time Required: 2 - 4 hours per week + 1 - 2 hours per month for mentorship with Jared

Ancient (Primary) Forest Research

Research Topics

- What's going on each week from the frontlines from primary forests around the world?
- What are key highlights from the elders and youths from the forests each week?
- Who are the biggest influencers and innovators in primary forest protection?
- What policy gains have been achieved?
- What major global forest related gatherings are happening this quarter? What are the intended outcomes?
- What are the best opportunities for Kaiāulu to support projects on the ground?
- How do we get recognized as a force for humanity in the space tourism industry?

Why is this important

Everything we do needs to be backed by data and designed to influence the global narrative on ecological preservation and protection. This research helps to both educate and protect our organization.

Influencer Research

Objective

Research the most influential people and organizations in the environmental movement and, when applicable, help develop strategies for potential support, collaboration, and alignment.

Why is this important

We need to know who the influencers are, and we need to align our outreach and communications with their current narrative. This is one of our most effective prospects for influencing the policies, leaders, and initiatives with the power to realize our mission.

Policy Internship

The Policy Intern is an integral part of Kaiāulu's team.

- Monitors legislation and policy developments relevant to forest conservation
- Summarizes policy developments for a general audience opinions and for Kaiāulu community and Council members
- Assists with the preparation of policy statements, briefing papers and responses to Government consultations
- Tracks policy meetings and events
- Represents Kaiāulu at external meetings where appropriate
- Assists with general administration as required by the Senior Policy Officer

The successful candidate should be educated to degree level or equivalent in ecology, environmental science or a related subject. They have demonstrable knowledge and genuine interest in public policy. A proven interest in ancient forests, indigenous rights and biodiversity is essential. They also need to have excellent communication and IT skills.

Data Collection

We are also in need of some general data collection. Most of the projects are quick and fairly easy, but they provide a tremendous value to our efforts. We are always grateful for this kind of support!

Research Needed

- Strategic grant opportunities.
- Collecting and organizing media mentions of conservation project successes.
- Inclusivity and diversity research in forest conservation.
- List of Forest Conservation Organizations and Communities we might partner with.

 This list is always growing and evolving.*

Join Us!

To apply to the Kaiāulu Internship Program, please complete this form.

Just let us know which opportunity above you are most interested in.

We look forward to working with you!

The Kaiāulu team and Coherence Lab Council