

Who am I talking to?- By looking at the testimonials in the website and looking at the page, we are talking to men and women that are trying to lose weight with a diet, more specifically, a keto diet. The majority of the audience is women.

Where are they now?-They are in a painful state where they are afraid of not losing weight and having the same body until they die. Men and women are also angry about their weight. Their daily frustrations are losing weight, looking at their flabby body, and not being able to stick to a path where they could lose weight. They assume that it is going to be impossible to lose the tons of weight they have.

What actions do I want them to take at the end of the copy? I want them to click the link and go to the website where my client offers them a customized keto diet plan.

What must they experience inside of my copy to go from where they are now to taking the action I want them to take? I want them to experience a feeling of satisfaction when they hear there is another way to lose as fast as possible. I also want them to sense a feeling of regret in their mind if they ignore this email and if they don't want to improve their body
