9/2 - 6: On the Island of Angel, all the family of the tree came to gather. All loving and enjoying each other, in time like it happens there are some things that do not fly with one party or another. So steps in Uncle waving the , with deputy Ranger standing in agreement . Things settle down, and the family is together again. The next day stirs, it is time for tiggs to fix the breakfast, get up early and get some coffee. The rest stir and some give a , all is good on the Island of Angel. What? There is another problem!! Someone has gone out and purchased some more vapemail. Who is the culprit, what did they do? Some are thinking they know who did and , can it be? It was not me!! Says blue , no doubt how was she framed? So our minds start to wander.... Is there someone in the island that was not part of the tree fam? Should we accept them ; hmm.. The minds of the family start to think together. It was not Shawn , "no he promised" Could it be jpf? are you insane? Then who could it be? Why is there a camel on the island? Who lives on an island, are they suspect?

Good night and wait for episode two.

9/3 - 1: The Island of Angel, episode two.

The tree family was tired after that exciting day, and rested for the night; but their minds kept wandering who? The next day as they stir, the new shinny is sitting in a birdcage.

What? Up walks Uncle "We are on an island, what did you expect?"

There is a set of footprints in the sand, but not feet... Someone had tiptoed with their shoes off, and on the other side there was a trail of popcorn. Someone agile like Mac, he lived on an island before and knows his way, think some. The guilty dog barks first and was eating popcorn , it must be Count; thought others. There is a sound of pain around the corner, and the people rush to see. It is Bella "Brain freeze" she states while holding up a Slurpee. When did we get a Slurpee machine, and what happened to the camel?

9/3 - 3: The Island of Angel: episode three.

He couldn't help it, tiggs loves slurpees.... Slurp, slurp, slurrp.. Owe brain freeze 🧊.

Count comes around the corner 🧊, enjoying the day. "Where have you been Count?" asks a few "You were the one who got the new shinny aren't you? Your evidence is everywhere." Count laughs, this is too easy "I only eat buttered popcorn, that is caramel covered popcorn on the ground, case closed." Count walks away with a devilish grin 😏. Then it must be mac, where is he? Shawn walks over to the bird cage and examines the shiny. Looking closer he sees some form of writing, but it seems Greek to him. While no one is looking a red balloon flies through the air.

PIF to slow

9/3 - 4: The Island of Angel: episode four.

Lunch was good and it helped everyone greatly , but the thought could not get out of their heads. At that moment Mac shows up on his bike. "Mac where have you been?" "Riding my bike around the island it has been great!" "Can you prove it?" "Why?" asks Mac. "You got that new shinny didn't you, do you have a witness to riding around?" Um no . Uncle and Ranger come up "You know the , we do not have a jail on the Island of Angel, so you must be guarded at all times of the day, until this is figured out." This doesn't look good thinks Mac 😏. GMO invites everyone over to his place to have their favorite juice and relax for a while.

PIF to Count.

9/3 - 5: The Island of Angel: Episode five.....

Lunch is over and it is time for trial, Ranger gets up for the oaths. "Hey everyone, you have got to see this!" says Board. Everyone knows that board is usually right so they go with him. Look at this.. An antique looking wagon pulled by two horses comes their way, filled with the most wondrous items anyone had ever seen. Some unnamed can't help it.

Everything on the wagon is a treasure of lore. "My name is Fuzzy and I have something to show you." Pulling out a 35mm projector, fuzzy beings to show the most wonderful places on earth that one can go adventures on. Count sits ,Blue is not paying much attention, there is a huge rock on the wagon "I so want that."

Fuzzy starts the last video "Oh I am sorry, this is on your island.." Wait shouts anjelvape!! In the distance there is something moving, as it becomes more clear Mac is riding his bike. "When did you take this video?" Yesterday states fuzzy. It could not be Mac it was on the other side of the island. More interesting to some was how Mac was riding the bike in the sand, he must be some kind of ninja. As the video ends, a camel goes into the bushes.

JPF wonders "That camel had one less hump?"

PIF to jpf

9/4 - 1: The Island of Angel: episode six

Shawn had looked for some time, he knew he had seen that writing somewhere before; but where. I have to go to work, and Shawn left. Uncle calls tiggs over "Ranger is taking her one month vacation, to be with her loved ones on the island. I need a stand in deputy." what

It is okay tiggs you got this, reassures Uncle. But um, ok well... If you need anything, I am right here on the island, you can just look me up, states Uncle.

tiggs goes to the birdcage to look at the shiny and the evidence when there is a rustle in the bush. The suspect? Going into the bushes the sound gets louder and louder, this thing is big

. Just then the camel comes out and licks tiggs on the face, nasty . The camel keeps walking to the village, while tiggs cleans off his face. Oh yuck.

When there is another rustle in the bushes, tiggs goes forward some more and peeks through and sees

9/4 - 2: The Island of Angel: episode seven

Everyone had rested well and awoke to a wonderful morning. Feeling hungry they noticed there was no smell of breakfast cooking in the air. Where is tiggs? 🤔 Katz tells everyone "Don't worry I can cook some great eggs, bacon and toast." Everyone eats their fill, with fresh fruit on the side and are satisfied. As the day goes on, many go back to watching Fuzzy video's. Count 🤖, this is great. Blue, watching more still eyeing that rock 🤖. Uncle walks over to the slurpee machine... mmm sounds good, slurp, slurp, slurrrrp... ow 🤖; Bella laughs inside, she had already learned that lesson. The camel spits.

9/4 - 4: The Island of Angel: episode eight tiggs had been missing all day, and some started to wonder. 🤔 Nothing really had happened all day, except that big camel getting in the way; until late in the evening. As everyone gathered for dinner, Count 🤖 looked over. "Hey everyone, where is the shinny?" The family ran over to look and the bird cage was empty, the shinny missing. People looked for any type of evidence around the area, but all they saw were camel tracks everywhere. Off in the distance katz noticed an ostrich strutting his stuff.

Where was tiggs? Why is there a camel and an ostrich on the island? Where did the shinny go?

PIF to slow, and may you feel better sir.

9/4 - 5: The Island of Angel: Episode Nine

All the treefam was sitting around a campfire at night enjoying the juice that GMO had provided. 🤖 When there was a rustle in the brush. Out comes tiggs and a few others. 🤖 Hey guys, welcome Opinionated and Katt, the newest members of the family.

There was a great amount of conversation and then it was asked. "How did you get here?" "We came by a boat." states Opinion. "it was a great trip and a wonderful boat."

"What was the name of the boat?"

I do not know the name of the boat, but a sign stated it was the best place on the earth for the family so I got on. I did meet the owner, she was very kind and welcomed us greatly... she said her name was Angel.

Where had Angel been this whole time? Why were people able to come, but so far no one was able to leave?

A few thought of the song Hotel California, perhaps this was not the island of dreams they thought it was.

9/4 - 6: The Island of Angel: Episode Ten

Uncle had been sitting back and watching, after all he was the watcher of the . It did not make sense. Taking notes all the time, he began to wonder.. Why are people able to come, and not leave? Who got the shinny, and who stole it? The evidence was not clear, some destroyed. Oh how he wanted Ranger back.

Could tigger be trusted? Were Count and Mac truly cleared? Where had Angel been? Who were the new people, and are they truly a part of the treefam? Uncle scratched his head, years of education and degrees did not prepare him for this.  Uncle noticed a red balloon flying through the air.

9/5 - 2: The Island of Angel: Episode eleven.

All was back to normal, it appeared. Mac was riding his bike, Count eating his popcorn, tiggs cooking the food, and Fuzzy was going on a hike on the great island. Uncle always astute to the situation watched. Mac had missed a few steps on the bike, Count was dropping popcorn without noticing, tiggs was not really paying attention and burned some food. Even the camel did not move around like it used to. Everything just seemed to be one step out of sync.

9/5 - 3: The Island of Angel: Episode twelve

Angel walked among all. Howdy all! I hope you have all been doing well, I just finished getting things done. We have been on the Island for more than a year and I wanted to celebrate it, so I brought some animals for a circus, camels, tigers, ostriches, and more. A slew of balloons were released into the air, blue, green, red, and more.

Shawn was so good with his promise that I purchased the best mod in the world from Imeo in Greece, I found it yesterday in a birdcage? She handed it over.

The family was so happy, everyone had what they wanted. Blue got her stone, Count was able to give his family the best education, with the best buttered popcorn. tiggs was given a new grill. Oh we are so doing ribs tonight. Fuzzy was given a new recorder and camera, all were happy. Mac riding his new bike, katz eating his favorite foods. Bella was given a credit line that never ended for mods and all.

Angel's new boat allowed those to leave as they wished, and as time went on more and more people came into the family and joined the Island of Angel; vaping GMO's world known juice. Children were born, and grandchildren. The family grew ever bigger.

Fin.....

Angel got a slurpee... slurp, slurp, slurrrrrppp... Ow brain freeze 🧊

TIOA 2

AH - @tiggerrts Story Time - is Back . . .

So - EVERYONE Gathers Around . . .

9/19 - 3: The Island of Angel, GMO's home (TIOA ep:2, prt1)

It is a beautiful day, the dew is on the leafs; the sound of rain the night before was pleasant. Everyone was holding their favorite in their arms. The Sun came up and shown itself in splendor, what a beautiful sight. Breakfast was being cooked, mmm. it smelled so good on the fire. Bacon, eggs, toast, fruits; and more.

9/19/ - 6: (TIOA ep:2, prt2) The day was most pleasant, the sun dripped down on those who needed it. The dew was just right for those who wanted it. The rain was perfect, those in love found each other still in their arms. Off in the distance the clouds gathered, a storm of lightening; it looked harmless. It built closer and closer.

9/20 - 1: TIOA, Season two, episode three.

The storm was coming in, the lightning fierce. Shawn and Fuzzy were thankful, the farms and animals needed that rain. Crack went the lightning, Boom it was near. The lightning show was intense, thankfully Angel had prepared for this. Crack.

Going back to bed.

(Should be sns 2, episode 4

DNC: TIOA sns 2, episode 3: The storm continued in, it was much worse than many had ever experienced. The winds were high, the rain heavy, the lightening worse. All were huddling in their homes and buildings, the farmers had taken their animals to the farms. It was bad, but stalled; the eye of the hurricane was upon them.

Had to get one out of my head to move on.

9/23 - 5: TIOA sns 2 episode 5: The eye of the hurricane had passed, the worst of the storm was to come. The rain beat down harder than before, the wind as well. Many huddled scared, but there was no need the buildings Angel had built were able to take this on. Some looked out the windows and watched the storm, the lights still working. The wind was not strong enough to take down the building, but it was for the trees. Down fell one onto the main power line to the village, and out went the lights.

9/23 - 6: TIOA sns 2 ep 6: The storm was hitting hard, and soon to pass; but not yet. The lights out, some still scared. The buildings stood strong. The strongest of will got up and built fires in the fireplaces. Giving warmth and comfort to those in need. The wind howled hard, the lighting still burst in the sky. The new born fires in the fireplaces gave rest to many.

Good night all.

9/24 - 4: TIOA, sns 2 ep. 7: The storm was finally starting to die down. Everyone had been up all day and night, watching, listening and waiting. As the storm began to pass and there was only hard rain and wind for the most part, sleepiness began to fall upon all. Everyone was snuggling close to their fires and with the patter of rain, one by one eyes closed shut until everyone was sleeping. Off in the distance, had anyone been looking, as a few last lightning flashes stroke a large boat with masts and sails was moving across the horizon.

9/24 - 5: TIOA sns 2 ep 8: The clean up after the storm was hard, hand tools only. Tiggs was asked how long to fix the downed lines "I think about a week, with no power tools" Thankfully one thing on hand was solar paneling, so the fridges still worked and there was a way for some hot water. Just enough to decide if you wanted to wash dishes or take a shower. The day was long, many trees that fell were being sawed down, the good news plenty of firewood. This continued for a few days and all were getting tired.

At the end of the third day as each retired to their own homes, Angel went to her house and ate some food. "Oh I am so tired, a shower will feel nice." Angel prepared for the shower, but something in the back of her head said someone was watching.

9/24 - 6: TIOA ses 2 ep 9: The next day's work was like usual, hard. Each gathered together to help. Breakfast was a little less than usual, lunch a little better. Blood, sweat and tears. All working happily with each other through the day... at the end of the day Uncle who is always watching said "Where has Angel been?" The group discussed this and no one had seen her all day. 🍷 😞 😡

Good night all, prayers to all who need them.

9/25 - 3: TIOA sns 2 eps 10: The whole treefam had been out looking for Angel, in each house, the commons, everywhere. She was nowhere to be found. People started to get worried and irate. "We need to go look in the forest for her!" The shouts of approval were growing "Wait!" stated Road "Nightfall is coming soon, and if we go out now, more could get lost or hurt; we should wait for the morning." The people were not pleased, but knew this was right, the search would have to wait.

9/25 - 5: TIOA sns 2 eps 11: The morning finally came, many were restless overnight wanting to go. Told to wait just a little longer, people needed to eat some breakfast and pack water and food. Two teams were made of many people and the rule was at no time shall there ever be less than two people together at one time. Road had laid out the rules and the search began into the forest. The humidity from the rain was intense and the heat of the day started to rise, making it harder.

9/25 - 6: TIOA sns 2 eps 12: The two groups moved side by side for a while, but as the search continued the groups began to separate. As the sun got higher and the toll on the people who were already tired, some started back. It was getting down to smaller groups, until the rule was reached. Teams of two. The day was hard, as well as the scratches and bruises going through the brush. "I am heading back, here take my water" said tiggs. Road was determined to find Angel and knew how to be safe and stealthy. Onward Road went..... 🤖

DNC: TIOA sns 2 eps 13: The night was coming on and Road continued on. Fighting the brush and weeds, scratches everywhere. Opening up a passage through the tangles Road saw.... 😊 and then blackness. Back at the village the treefam were tired but yet worried. GMO gave out juice to calm nerves, but it was not working like before.

Elsewhere: Road was being lead somewhere, eyes covered by a cloth. Pushed by someone, or many there were no voices... The senses of Road were still there, I am moving in this direction or that.... Dirt, water, a boat; moving through the water, up and then down, stale smells. Forced down and made immobile, Road could hear a similar voice crying and whimpering.

9/26 - 2: TIOA sns 2 eps 14: The next morning as the treefam got up, they smelled that wonderful breakfast cooking..... mmmm bacon. Everyone gathered to eat, thinking of Angel still. As the conversations started up tiggs was asked by Anjel "Where is Road?" Well I gave Road my water, but had to come back. Some overheard this and began to look around, Road was missing as well. What in the world is going on? Fuzzy had now become more than irritated, and started to devise a plan. Peoples nerves were on end, even Count was not

, Mac no longer rode his bike, Bella had not charged anything on her endless account for two days; and Blue was using her new big stone to send out good vibes.

9/26 - 3: TIOA sns 2 eps 15: Enough was enough said Fuzzy, it is time to find out what has happened, gather enough food and water for three days travels. As the treefam went to do so Fuzzy went back to his house, and grabbed a wooden case. After all had gathered with their supplies, Fuzzy opened the case. Inside was found a stash of firearms. Fuzzy took out a Colt 45 and placed it on his hip. He then passed out some more to the eldest of the group. "We are going out to find Angel and Road, who is with me?" A roar came up from the treefam, and they began out on the path that Road had taken.

9/27 - 1: TIOA sns 2 eps 16: Elsewhere Road asked Angel "Are you okay" Is that you Road? Yes. I have been scared. What has happened to you? Nothing they have taken me, and said I would be their cook forever. You are okay, I am here for you; let's figure a way out of here.

The new scouting party of Fuzzy started out, more determined than ever, the brush no longer had an effect on them. More than enough food and water and supplies. Through the trees and brush they followed Road's trail.

9/27 -2: TIOA sns 2 eps17: The new party of Fuzzy went on Road's path and stayed together this time, more determined than ever. Through the woods, weeds, brush. Finally to the other side of the island, and as they passed the last barrier of thicket they saw a boat. A large pirate boat, the menacing skull and crossbones. Fuzzy took out his binoculars and looked it over. The deck was full of pirates, they were armed heavily; the sides full of cannon.

This is not going to be easy thought Fuzzy, we need a plan.

9/27 - 3: TIOA sns 2 eps 18: Fuzzy had looked it over, this will take some time. He sent a small party back to the town to gather more food and water. Some time later as Fuzzy looked through his binoculars, he saw a landing party of pirates ferrying to the land and then going towards the town.

Oh no 😬 what should I do? I must think. Think Fuzzy think!

9/27 - 4: TIOA sns 2 eps 19: Fuzzy was not sure what to do. In a little while Count  came over and talked to him. Good idea! tiggs and Ranger come over here! Fuzzy then whispered in their ears. Give them four bottles of water! Now Go! tiggs and Ranger ran as fast as they could back to town.

9/27 - 5: TIOA sns 2 eps 20: Ha ha ha  Come here lady and do your job. The pirates took Angel away to start cooking. Road was sweating, calm down; remembering familiar words. Road started working with his hands still blindfolded.

tiggs and Ranger had run back to the town, and tiggs handed Ranger the last bottle he had. Ranger went to another part of town. Calm down and breath, calm down. Always shy and flushing red in the face tiggs 😬 had to be cool for this one. The pirate party started towards him.....

Fuzzy knew it would not be easy, the party divided.

Blue was using her big new rock sending out good vibes to all "remember to breath" 9/27 - 6: TIOA sns 2 eps 21: Ranger came back hard of breath. "Did it work?" asked Fuzzy "I think so." stated Ranger. Fuzzy had to hope that it did, there was more to be done. Ranger took off her backpack, and handed Fuzzy some supplies. Count  was pleased, just what he had asked for. This part had worked as it should, giving them more water than needed, Ranger was able to come back with two.

/28 - 5: TIOA sns 2 eps 22: The pirates were coming up to tiggs, stay calm he thought but could feel the sweat coming on and the flush. Uncle who had already been sent back came up "Howdy" and began to talk to the pirates in a very calm voice. There began a discussion.

Count  , Okay let's look this over again Fuzzy.

Road was working feverishly, almost there.

9/28 - 6: TIOA sns 2 eps 23: Okay it is time said Fuzzy, the night was upon them and the pirates had eaten; most were asleep. Taking the ferrying boat of the landing party of the pirates, the family took it back to the main ship. Holding onto the ropes of the ship as the ferrying boat went back for more treefam.

Peeking over the edge of the boat there were guards in place, but they had fallen asleep, all but one. The one suspected something by ear and stood up. Oh no.....

Uncle "It is good no one can resist."

Good night all, time to get ready for tomorrow.

9-29 - 6: TIOA sns 2 eps 24: The single pirate coming heard something else and turned away. It is time said Fuzzy, we can not wait for the rest of the treefam to come, go! Up on the boat silently they went, walking carefully amongst those asleep. Through a window they could see Angel slaving over the pot and fire making more food for the next day.

Count did something  .

Clothes were taken off a pirate and put on Shawn, who entered the room with Angel. What? Shawn spoke quickly.

The next day all were happy, the treefam was together again, and eating happily; work still to be done. But what is there without friends and family?

9/30 - 2: TIOA sns 2 eps 25: Everyone was sitting around together laughing and having a good time. Each person spoke about what they had to do or encountered. tiggs and Ranger ran back to town to get the popcorn and medical supplies. Ranger returned to the team. tiggs was getting nervous as the pirates were coming but Uncle saved the day and bought the time. tiggs then added the sleeping medicine to the slurpee machine, like Uncle told them it is so good no one can resist. The pirates enjoyed their slurpees and fell asleep.

Fuzzy, Count and the team were at the boat and the one guard was coming towards them, when the guard heard a sound and turned around. Road had gotten loose from his restraints and came up the stairs toward the deck. Opening the door above him it creaked, getting the attention of the guard. Road had time to hide before the pirate came over and then took him by surprise putting on a choke hold making the pirate silent.

Count went in disguise and gave Angel more of the sleeping medicine and added it to the big pot of stew that Angel was making, Angel was a bit peaved and put in more than needed. Just in case Count had laced some popcorn with the sleeping medicine, who could resist some good buttered popcorn?

It worked with all the pirates sleeping heavily later, the ones on the island were returned to the boat. Mac like a mage put a magic spell on the pirates to forget the island and never return, some thought it might just be hypnosis but were not sure.

All were happy

Fin

Oh how exhausting thought Angel, glad to be back and grabbed a slurpee.. slurp, slurp, slurp ow brain freeze. I little while later she fell asleep. "Oops, I better clean out the slurpee machine" thought tiggs.

TIOA Season 3

10/3 - 4: TIOA sns 3 eps 1: The lessons were learned and lighthouses being build, JPF was in charge. How good they looked, he thought. The summer was gone and fall on the way. Halloween on its way, people started to make decorations.

10/3 - 6: TIOA sns 3 sps 2: The carved pumpkins were placed, candles burning inside. The cool had come and the rain to meet it. The webs of fake spiders were at each house. A tombstone here and there, it was getting festive. The maze in the field was being cut.

DNC: TIOA sns 3 eps 3 - The maze in the field was finished. The décor on the houses finished. It was a fairyland. The lighthouses shone down on part of the fields, and houses.

TIOA sns 3 eps 4: People were happily going through the maze. So much fun, though some were getting lost. The evening came on, and then night. A scream came through the air; a shrill really, blood curling..... 😬

10/10 - 4: TIOA sns 3 eps 5: People started to scramble to find out what was going on. What was it asked @Opinionated ? It was a ghost or a demon, something flying in the air

10/10 - 6: TIOA sns 3 eps 6: It was getting closer, and the families drew their family into their houses. What is it? what could it be? The pumpkins lit it up, as it drew nearer. No! and closed the doors. Whacking on the houses and doors commenced. Time let everyone fall asleep, as the demon in the sky fell back due to daylight.

Good night all.

10/11 - 2: TIOA sns 3 eps 7: The family went out the next morning, the dew on the ground; the air fresh. On the doors and outside walls were scratches and gouges. Breakfast was cooking, it smelled good. What had they seen?

10/11 - 5: TIOA sns 3 eps.8: The family was still looking at the scratches on the door. Another scream came out. Fuzzy pulled out his 45 and shot at the effect on the skeleton. Back to the houses they went.

, it had no

TIOA sns3 ep 9: The flying phantom came at the night but not always at the same time. The skeleton came on the early morning or late evening. The day was left to the tree family, how they wanted to use the evening and night. The decorations were complete, Halloween on its way. The candle lit the inside of the pumpkins. There were many decorations in the air; truly festive.

10/17 - 6: TIOA sns 3 eps 10: The treefam went out during the day. The maze was fun, but would have been better at night or evening. Still afraid of the night and early morning they stayed indoors. The pumpkins lit up the maze.

10/23 - 6: TIOA sns 3 eps 11: No more they said and went out into the night, the pumpkins lit up the maze. Into it they went and had a jolly time, some were still getting lost: but the laughter was good. The decorations made the perfect nuance, some with smiley faces, some more gloomy. It was festive and good.....

10/24 - 2: TIOA sns 3 eps 12: Some had gone to bed, most stayed up during the night enjoying the maze and festivities. Really too late for any age or body, but it was fun. As the last of the treefam started to go to bed, another scream. 😬 It was back...

The last ran back to their homes.

10/24 - 3: TIOA sns 3 eps 13: How can you fight a flying phantom? Who can stop a skeleton?

😬 What were they going to do? The children wanted to go out and trick or treat. The parents wanted to give out candy and escort their children. There seemed to be no answer.

TIOA sns 3 eps 14: It looked dire, and with nothing to do hope was being lost. Uncle showed up and said "Hey all, I found these cool toys!" He pulled out remotes and showed them all how it worked. 🤖 Oh my there was nothing to be afraid of after all.

Everyone laughed and a few days later, the trick or treating commenced, and all were happy.

Fin

11/13 - 5: TIOA sns 4 eps 4: Past: It was a trying time for Uncle, he had lost the love of his life; the hurt was beyond words. Present: Angel and Ranger where in the arms of their loved ones and enjoying.
