

☆Micro's Drag Race All Stars 2 Episode 13 - Roast of Stars☆

Anthyy's Roast look

Now thanks for this roast Zodya, I never thought of you as a comedy queen.. stops mid sentence

Tonight we're all here to ROAST.. and I didn't know I auditioned for Hell's Kitchen.... even though I guess you could call this place Hell!

Talking about hell Let's go over to the devil herself.. Micro I called you that, not only you're the owner of this rotted place, but I was hoping it's going to bring you back memories to when you gave the poisoned apple to Eve in that garden... I bet you remember it, like it was yesterday! Micro you're so old, when you were preparing the word count for this episode... you just typed in your age. But being old is not always a bad thing... I know Greantee likes it, everytime someone old dm's him, all it takes is one pic and he just know he has that nitro covered for yet another month! Those old ones always pay a lot! That's exactly how Grean won MDR if any of y'all were interested! Your name also doesn't make a lot of sense to me green tea's supposed to wake me up! When in reality everytime you stepped out on that runway I snoozed!

Let's look to the right! I know it may seem like a meeting of an HIV positive club... when it's just the remaining queens on MDR AS2.

Whorechata's still here... somehow! As many of y'all know, Chata was really pressed to be "SAFE " during episode 4... I wondered why's that?! Then I remembered she's a whore meaning she's not used to doing stuff safely. But on a lighter note.. you won the rusal this season therefore you're often referred to as a verse queen... which to be honest I don't see, cause all I get from you is... BOTTOM.

While we're on bottoming! On AS2 she's no stranger to it.. It's Zodyaaa! This season you've been more absent than my father! And I know you have the rehearsals and all.. I just hope in those you don't start flopping midway through it! I do have to applaud you though for competing on MDR for 114 consecutive days... it truly takes a lot of talent and delusion... and you definitely have the 2nd one!

Talking about 2nd... to the third power it's 8th... Hi Steph! I know a lot of us have been a bit concerned that this is an all stars season... and people often like to do double crowning's on those... but with Steph on the season we have nothing to worry about... DRAWing and her don't go well together! The closest she'll ever get to double crowning is on a dentist's diagnosis.

Enough about the top 4, after many. many.. many... weeks we're reunited! The whole cast is in the building, give it up for them! I know all of you girls are probably thinking "yasss loosening is the new winning, i'm so fierce" or "I still made it very far considering we're ALL stars", and to that I'd like to tell ya'll BULLSHIT, keep in mind next season happening is "All Legends" so we're just the drop outs from it... so in fact all of you are the worst of the worst!

Our freshly eliminated Fleur's here though! During the snatch game you played Lea Michelle, and I would like to thank you for that because I really relate to her...3 years ago she got cancelled for Micro-aggressions and i'm just really aggressive toward micro!

Fleur's BFF Wren Wyvern arrived! Now I really didn't want to make jokes about your lip-syncs... because they've been re-used more times than Zodya's and Chata's looks. But they're truly your forte! In them you always EAT that one lil thing!.... Paper!

On the subject of paper... our paper drag royalty Sue Pernova's her! Many judges this season said you have a true EYE FOR FASHION, and if that's an eye for fashion. You need to get your eyes checked IMMEDIATELY!

Let's now talk about Lectro Lyte... only because we have too, as for someone who's run on the season was shorter than my June Jambalaya cameo, you always have a lot to say! When others fags say "AND THATS ON PURRRRIODDD" You just say "and that's on COMA" and continue ranting.

As many of you probably know I spent a big part of this competition on an exotic vacation and one day I went on a trip to see whales when I tell you I got so emotional! I Finally got to meet my long time friends Kami and Morgs

Well Micro is now rushing me to go quickly and do my look last minute like I always do on MDR so I guess my time here is up!
Goodbye Everyone!
