WHAT: Thyroid Transformed is An Online Thyroid Recovery Program for Exhausted Women with Hashimoto's | Hypothyroid

THE "THYROID TRANSFORMED" VIDEO COURSE + PROTOCOLS
helps exhausted women with Hypothyroid | Hashimoto's who feel frustrated with their medical condition. They can Finally get specialized help to find the missing puzzle pieces and treat the root cause. They can restore their energy and health, start to feel better and begin the journey of getting their life back in the first 90 days.

Allow Dr Kat Halloran to walk you through every step of the healing process utilizing almost 20 years of specialized functional restorative medicine knowledge that has helped thousands of women reclaim their health. After being neglected and told their "Labs are fine" by mainstream medicine, many women come to Dr. Kat to address what they know is definitely NOT normal!

NOW you can access this in-depth level of holistic thyroid healing no matter where you live! We have created a thorough live and recorded video course that prepares you to feel better than you have in years. Together, we gather information and comprehensive lab results. If you need to, Dr Kat will guide you through ordering your own labs! Then we design a customized, effective therapeutic healing plan for you. Over the first 90 days, you will already start to feel better when following the specialized recommendations laid out for you. You have direct access to Dr Kat for questions and also enjoy support from a community of fellow hypothyroid peers who know what your journey has been like.

WHO: I created “THYROID TRANSFORMED” after so many women came to my office in tears of frustration because they couldn't get their doctors to take them seriously!. They were miserable! Most of them FELT TERRIBLE for years and some even decades!

I CREATED THE “THYROID TRANSFORMED” VIDEO COURSE + PROTOCOLS TO HELP EXHAUSTED WOMEN WITH HYPOTHYROID / HASHIMOTOS WHO HAVE BEEN IGNORED BY THEIR DOCTORS. THEY CAN FINALLY GET EXPERT HELP TO TREAT THE ROOT CAUSE, RESTORE THEIR ENERGY AND HEALTH, AND START TO GET THEIR LIFE BACK IN 90 DAYS.

Here's my official bio:

Dr. Kat Halloran, ND was valedictorian of her medical school class at Bastyr University in Seattle. She is a Licensed Primary Care Naturopathic Physician practicing in the Greater Seattle area and is a Certified Specialist in Restorative, Functional, Holistic Medicine. Dr. Kat consults with people all over the world through telemedicine who need specialized help recovering from Hypothyroid, Hashimoto's, Adrenal Fatigue, Autoimmune issues, Digestive dysfunction, Fatigue, Acute Stress and more. Among some of her clients are other Doctors and Medical Professionals who need her specialized knowledge figuring out their own health* issues. Dr. Kat's clients will fly to Seattle for treatment or drive long distances to access the high standard of care she offers because they trust her and are invested in getting their life back! When you work with Dr. Kat and start to heal and recover, you will also spend less time in exhausted misery and more time playing, traveling, feeling good and smiling again! Imagine having the energy to play with your kids and grandkids, garden, play a round of golf, walk on the beach, join a yoga class, finally do that remodeling project or have a cookout with your friends.

For 20 years now Dr. Kat has helped thousands of women desperate for good medical care and is widely acclaimed for being able to nourish them back to feeling better than they have in many years. They send their friends, family, co-workers, neighbors and loved ones to Dr. Kat because they know the healing power of her unique, customized and highly effective treatment protocols.

Now it is more widely available through this “THYROID TRANSFORMED” online live and recorded video course where NOBODY gets left out! You can access the specific tools and treatments that will help return you to better health, no matter where you live. Follow the course and protocol at your healing pace. Combined with LIVE Coaching calls EVERY WEEK and a supportive Facebook group. You'll be glad you did!

Dr. Kat Halloran resides in suburban Seattle with her wonderful spouse and more than a few rescue kittens where she enjoys the gorgeous fresh air, towering evergreen trees and deep blue ocean waters of the Pacific Northwest.

WHY “THYROID TRANSFORMED”?

I created “THYROID TRANSFORMED” because I teach women these same concepts every day, I repeat myself hundreds of times a month; so it's time to record this unique protocol for true thyroid healing so nobody gets left out. No more begging your mainstream medical doctor for the correct Thyroid Meds, or Labs or (gasp!) Vitamins and Supplements and Nutrition! I like to collaborate WITH and educate other practitioners so we can help people better as a team.(if that is what you desire).

Now you can have the best, current holistic restorative functional medicine knowledge and Thyroid protocols. It's time to finally recover and feel good again without being told there's nothing wrong, your labs are fine, you're just getting older, there's nothing we can do, Levothyroxine is "all we got", go home and come back next year.

You deserve an advocate and you and I can get down to business figuring out the root cause of your thyroid problems. I've got your back! And if you know someone who needs a specialist's support, pass this along to them.

You get the equivalent of 12 working sessions / doctor consults at an 80% discount by working with me online with a self paced video course and Live weekly group coaching calls.

Be sure to join us in "THYROID TRANSFORMED" with Dr Kat Halloran. In the comfort of your pajamas, with a hot mug of coffee or tea on a Saturday morning (or any day you choose!), you can learn and implement the same unique Dr. Kat Protocols that have helped thousands of exhausted women get their energy back and feel thoroughly supported in the process. I Got You!

FAQs:

Question: Can I order my own bloodwork and laboratory testing if I need to?

Answer: Absolutely, Yes! Dr. Kat has established professional relationships with several CLIA Certified National Laboratories and designed a professional lab order form so if necessary you can directly order your own labs (affordably) and have the results sent to you.

Question: How do I know which lab tests to order?

Answer: Dr. Kat will provide a thorough list of recommended tests to request (which your current doctor may not have ordered yet or even refused you). These cover all necessary chemistries, immune system, nutrients, antibodies, hormones, infections, toxins, adrenals and 6 or more very specific and essential thyroid tests.

Question: How do I know what to do with the lab results when I get them?

Answer: As part of your “THYROID TRANSFORMED” online video course and protocol, you receive a detailed guide to help you interpret the optimal functional medicine reference ranges (identifying high normals and low normals) so you will be able to nourish your body back to balance and treat the root cause. AND, if you need help with interpretation, just schedule a 1:1 consultation directly with Dr. Kat Halloran Question: How do I know what to do to heal my thyroid after I get my labs back?

Answer: The “THYROID TRANSFORMED” online video course walks you through everything you need to know so you can start feeling better right away. You can comfortably learn and implement at your own pace at home. We have weekly live group coaching calls every Saturday at 11:30 am Pacific Time / Seattle. Ask Dr. Kat questions any time on the “THYROID TRANSFORMED” Facebook group. Also if you need further help, just schedule a 1:1 consultation directly with Dr. Kat Halloran.

Question: Will you guide me through the supplements and vitamins I need to restore and heal my thyroid, adrenals etc...?

Answer: ABSOLUTELY! You bet.

Question: What if my primary care doctor is resistant to me getting a second opinion?

Answer: Dr. Kat will provide you with a special letter written for your doctor that explains our Holistic Thyroid Protocol and asks them to collaborate with us and support you as part of your healing team. If they are still resistant, we can utilize multiple resources to connect you with a new compatible doctor who supports you.
