Ninja Essays Overview

NinjaEssays.com is an essay writing service that provides a diverse scope of academic writing tasks and services. Owned by CareersBoost Limited (once known as Universal Research Inc.), this service is promoted by it. Founded by a certain Yuri Mizyuk, this Ukraine-based company claims to have been in business since 1997 but a quick search in their web archive data would tell you they started only in 2004.

The company is notorious for operating some of the WORST essay writing services on the market, and supposedly was involved in fraudulent activities like reselling papers and providing plagiarized content to customers. Apart from NinjaEssays, other websites operated by this company include BestEssays.com, SuperiorPapers.com, EssayMama.com, AustralianWritings.com, and CollegePaper.org, BestDissertation.com, EduGeeksClub.com, AssignmentMasters.org, EssayOnTime.com, ProEssayWriting.com.

In short, don't expect NinjaEssays.com (along with other sites mentioned above) to deliver high quality papers. It also doesn't really matter whether you want to choose NinjaEssays or any of above-mentioned services because they all are the same.

Pricing System

While they're so proud to say they don't charge incredibly high rates, they are in fact, one of the companies with steep prices. Starting at $19.99, you can choose from three plans: Standard Quality, Premium Quality, and Platinum Quality. Rates increase depending on the urgency level so the sooner you want the paper delivered, the more expensive it will be. You can then choose to pay in 4 different currencies (USD, GBP, EUR, AUD).

If anything, it's the discount program that makes their pricing system look good. You can get as much as a 15% lifetime discount, but that's only if you're a repeat customer and you order more than 15 pages.

Looking at the plan inclusions, they offer "free add-ons" for features like formatting and outline - thus saving you as much as $25. But to begin with, these so-called free add-ons are supposed to already be included in every order without extra charges. And what's the deal with their "Advanced Plagiarism Check" feature? It doesn't make sense at all.

Quality

Placing orders is fast and simple, and there are many discounts, but we are not sure whether spending your money on this site is really worth it.

For writer's levels, you can choose to have it written by a UK writer, one of their Top 10 writers, or your preferred writer (if you have ordered from them before) - all of which incur additional fees. The weird thing is that NinjaEssays claims to have a team comprised purely of native English (ENL) writers. In this case, it doesn't make sense to pay extra for a UK writer. What's the deal here? In fact, most of NinjaEssays writers come from Kenya (essaywriters.net is a freelance platform where writers get clients' orders). Yes, they are lying.

A lot of other NinjaEssays reviews praise the quality of their papers but based on majority of verified customer reviews, writing quality is very poor. Reports of papers written by non-native writers who can't properly write US or UK English are rampant. Most common complaints include grammar mistakes, wrong use of articles, poor sentence structuring, and missing citations (which could put a student into trouble regarding plagiarism).

On the upside, NinjaEssays offers rush writing. This means they can deliver a paper as quickly as within 3 hours. Of course, this always comes at a high price so it's better to avoid this option unless you're catching up with a tight deadline.
