

Woburn

The inclusion coach works with inclusive practices mentors and administrative teams from each of the ten schools within the district. There are two mentors per building. The coach collaborates with each mentor during the week long coaching cycle. The mentors identify meaningful goals related to inclusive practices, and the coach supports professional development in those goal areas during the cycle.

