KLCC Park Overview

KLCC Park, short for Kuala Lumpur City Centre, is every local and tourist's favorite destination to unwind and relax. It sits at the city's heart and at the foot of the Petronas Twin Towers. If you want to get away from crowded streets and noisy establishments, this is where you can find your peace.

KLCC Park is Kuala Lumpur's urban oasis with lush greenery that stands out in the landscape. The park also has refreshing water features, including dozens of water jets, a waterfall, and a water fountain.

Of course, we can't talk about the water fountain without mentioning the water fountain show. But more on that later!

The park spans over 50 acres and boasts a blend of urban and nature. Set your sights on the beautiful landscape gardens that burst with vibrancy.

You'll also see about 74 species of 2000 (more or less) native plants, indigenous trees, and palms. This encourages local and migratory birds to drop by the park.

The KLCC Park is a sanctuary and a playground for all ages. You can find many fun activities here and visit many attractions with family and friends. The walking trails are also a fan-favorite if you enjoy strolling or jogging.

Are you here on a family vacation? Fantastic! Families with kids can enjoy the children's playground and wading pool. KLCC Park provides the perfect location for family activities and an unforgettable getaway.

Have a picnic, swim at the pool, watch the fountain show, and more! Whether you're here to relax or unwind, KLCC Park has something for everyone.

KLCC Park's operating hours are from 7 am to 10 pm daily. Everyone is welcome to enjoy this paradise; the best thing is KLCC Park has no entrance fee.

Attractions and Fun Activities at KLCC Park

KLCC Park isn't just popular because of its gorgeous landscapes and impressive tower views. Endless attractions and family activities also await you at KLCC Park! It's the ultimate destination to spend a fun-filled day with your family. From interactive playgrounds to amazing fountain shows, the park offers diverse experiences.

Here are the best attractions and activities to do at KLCC Park.

Lake Symphony

Lake Symphony is the most popular attraction in the park. Surrounded by lush greenery, this artificial lake catches all the attention. Its most appealing feature is the water jets that shoot water high up to 46 yards (42 meters). During the day, the water jets shoot water that dances around in patterns, hypnotizing you with its performance.

Musical Fountain Show

If you think the Lake Symphony Fountain is already impressive during the day, wait till you see it at night! Every night at consecutive hours from 8 pm till 10 pm, the fountain comes alive to perform a musical and light fountain show. Witness the magical performance of the Lake Symphony Fountain as it plays music and forms patterns rhythmically. It also comes with laser lights that shoot explosive colors and changes to the beat of the music.

Children's Playground

Bring the kids to join in on the fun! The children's playground at KLCC Park is like every kid's dream of a play paradise. There are slides, tubes, things to climb on, spring riders, and more. The best part is they can also play with other kids on the playground! All these playground activities are sure to tire out your kid.

Wading Pool

The wading pool in the park is also one of the most fun attractions for children and their parents. Let your kids cool off after a long day in the playground and beat the heat. Another fantastic feature of the wading pool is the cascading waterfall, good for a quick refreshing splash of water.

Picnic Area

Fancy a picnic at the park? KLCC Park offers many picnic spots, which is great especially if you want to pick one with the best view of the tower. Having a picnic day is one of the best family activities in the park. Prepare your lunch or meal for the picnic, and have a great time with your family. All this while sharing conversations and taking in the breathtaking views of KLCC Park.

Jogging and Walking

KLCC Park has a 1.3 km rubberized and paved jogging track if you're in the mood for a peaceful walk or jog. The quiet surroundings and green plants set the calming atmosphere as you go for a walk or jog. The best time to go jogging is in the early morning or at night when the sun's rays aren't the strongest.

Admire the Twin Towers

You can't go to Kuala Lumpur without admiring the famous Petronas Twin Towers. This iconic landmark and Malaysia's pride can be seen anywhere from the park. The twin towers are magnificent day and night and will leave you awestruck. And one of the best spots to enjoy the view is at the arch bridge near Lake Symphony. Don't forget to take pictures to capture the moment!

Aquaria KLCC

Aquaria KLCC is your ticket to the most exciting underwater adventure in Kuala Lumpur City Centre. This oceanarium showcases thousands of aquatic creatures. You'll discover many species, including some of Malaysia's own, like the Green Sea Turtles, Sand Tiger Sharks, etc. Aquaria is all about exploring and discovering the wonders of marine life.

Make sure you don't miss out on this interactive experience during Feeding Time. You'll have a chance to touch the pool that houses various species. Watch the aquarist hand-feed some of the incredible marine species and find out how they contribute to the balance of their habitat.

Other Things You Need to Know About KLCC Park

Park Etiquette

A day at KLCC Park calls for a great day of relaxation, fun, and excitement. And as someone who benefits from the park's fantastic features, we want everyone to have the same experience.

Whether you're a local or visitor, observing proper park etiquette is a must for promoting a pleasant and respectful environment for everyone.

Here are some of the common park etiquettes to live by:

1. Respect the environment - The flora and fauna at the park are lovely to look at, and it should stay that way. Don't destroy plants, trees, or habitats of wildlife. Always pick up after yourself and use the trash bins available to dispose of your trash.
2. Follow the park's rules and regulations - All parks have rules and regulations. Read through them and consider any restrictions on certain activities, designated areas, or operating hours.
3. Manage your noise - In short, keep it down. In respect of other people in the park, avoid doing loud activities. Don't blast loud music or engage in disrupting activities that will disturb other people.
4. Clean up after your pets - If you're bringing your fur baby to the park, be mindful of their waste. Always pack a waste bag and know where to properly dispose of them.
5. Don't leave your kid/s alone - Children can't be left alone in the parks. Make sure there's always an adult to supervise them wherever they go, including the restrooms.

6. Yield to pedestrians - Be respectful of others and give way to walkers, joggers, or individuals with strollers and wheelchairs. Stay on the walkways and avoid damaging grass fields.
7. Leash your pets - Make sure you're in control of your pet, and they are leashed accordingly. Maintain a safe distance from everyone, especially because not everyone is fond of pets.
8. Clean as you go - Don't leave anything behind in the park. Be mindful of your personal belongings and trash.
