

Email, Justin Hollis, Campaign manager, Will Hurd for Congress, November 5, 2015

On Thu, Nov 5, 2015 at 2:04 PM, Ioannou, Filipa <Floannou@express-news.net> wrote:
Hi there,

I'm a reporter doing a fact check for Politifact Texas on some recent comments of Pete Gallego's that Congressman Hurd follows the party line 96% of the time. I wanted to check with you and see if the campaign has any response or rebuttal other than the one given to the Tribune in the original article. I can be reached on my cell at --- if that's easier for you. Thanks very much for your time!

Best,
Filipa Ioannou
Hearst Fellow
San Antonio Express-News

From: Justin Hollis [mailto:justin@hurdforcongress.com]
Sent: Thursday, November 05, 2015 4:11 PM
To: Ioannou, Filipa
Subject: Re: Response to Gallego?

It took Pete Gallego losing in 2014 to finally become interested in the legislative process. Funny how he can criticize anyone, considering he never passed a single piece of legislation. On the other hand, Will Hurd has authored two vital pieces of bi-partisan legislation that have been signed into law in less than 9 months. Nancy Pelosi said, "Pete Gallego is the perfect mold of a Congressman". Her idea of a "perfect Congressman" must be one that gets nothing done.

-Justin Hollis